Would Change Station
During the week J. E. Niles circulated a petition asking the N. C. O. railway to establish a passenger depot at the foot of Modoc street instead of going on out to the present depot. The establishing of a station will result in a great benefit to citizens of the town as well as travelers intending to stop at Alturas.—Alturas News Era.

Must Register Again.
City Recorder Foss has received word from the attorney general that the recent registration is void and those seven hundred people who registered must register again if they want to vote at the city election January 13.—Medford Sun.

Convict Labor.
Superintendent B. F. Lawson of the Salem penitentiary, who was with Governor West and State Engineer Dowley at the breaking ground on the Pacific highway, announces his intention of establishing a big stockade on the Skisious for the working of convicts on the highway. There is a big stone cut which was not included in the contract of Keasel & McDowell, and on this the convicts will be worked.—Ashland Tidings.

"Levy Day" in Crook.
Saturday, December 6, has been set by the county court as the day when taxpayers may meet with it and discuss the budget of expenses for the coming year and aid that body in determining what levy is to be made for 1914. Judging from the reports, the court will play to a packed house, and a lively show is expected.—Bend Bulletin.

Tammany 'Bagman' Pleads Not Guilty of Holding Up Contractors

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—Everett Fowler, a lawyer of Kingston, a small city on the Hudson River above New York, the "bagman" of Charles F. Murphy, boss of Tammany Hall, has been indicted by a grand jury in New York county on the charge of extortion, and has pleaded not guilty. Reports before his appearance indicated that he would decide to tell the district attorney all he knew.

New York state is expending many millions on the construction of state roads. Contractor had a small contract, requiring the expenditure of about $23,000. Fowler, acting for Tammany or Murphy, told him that he was expected to put up $250, it is charged by District Attorney Whitman. He did so, making the check out to the chairman of the democratic state committee.

It is currently reported in New York that hundreds of thousands of dollars have been taken by agents of Tammany Hall from these contractors, most of it on the plea that it was for political committees. Then

A leather belt in an English factory has been running at a speed of 1,800 feet a minute from nine to twelve hours a day for more than 22 years.

The hours, halves and quarters are spoken by an English clock which has a phonograph with a very durable record as a part of its mechanism.

these were contractors on the Erie canal, which for many years has been in course of reconstruction at the cost of $101,000,000. Beyond this, New York city is building a system of waterworks, which, when completed, will cost more than $175,000,000. It is reported the contractors on these works have been held up, and that very little of the money went into the hands of campaign managers.

BREATHE FREELY! OPEN NOSTRILS AND STUFFED HEAD--END CATARRH

Instant Relief When Nose and Head Are Clogged From a Cold. Stop Nasal Discharges. Dull Headache Vanishes.
Try "Ely's Cream Balm."
Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the Nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open, you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning, the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will disappear.
End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing soothing relief comes immediately.
Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing; Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.
Put your faith—Just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

MOVIES CENSORED IN BUCKEYE STATE

LASCIVIOUS DANCES AND FILMS DEPICTING TORTURE OR VIOLENT DEATH, ETC., ARE ALL UNDER THE BAN

United Press Service
COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 4.—Ohio's new movie censorship law went into effect today. Hereafter there will be no more pictures of the bunny-hug and other dances which the late Mayor Gaynor of New York called "lascivious," no more will be shown "blood and thunder" pictures.

Here is a partial list of objectional scenes in the movies as seen by the Ohio censors:

Chinese pirates torturing victims, girl in the near all-together, bathing in a pool, thugs placing a victim in front of a moving train, girl being stabbed and otherwise tortured, woman in low gown kissing a thief, dragging a girl and taking her into a house of sin, showing nude children, train robbery, indecent dance by a half nude woman with a tough man, showing the interior of houses of ill-fame, muscle dance by women, woman poisoning her husband; a lynching scene.

The film exchanges are required to pay a fee for the censorship under the new law, this making its operation half self sustaining.

Mme. Dieulafay, explorer and traveler, is the only woman in France who is permitted to wear male attire, a law having been passed specially for her benefit.

Jailed Last August; Saxton Wants Trial

Although he was arrested early last summer at Mineral, Idaho, charged with forging the name of Captain J. W. Siemens to a promissory note last winter while at Tule Lake, Eugene Saxton has so far not been given a hearing before the grand jury. He has submitted the following from the county jail, where he has been confined since brought here by Fred Morley:

"Editor Herald
"I, Eugene Saxton, charged with the Siemens forgery, came into your city with the blood dripping into my shoe, caused by the cruel iron shackles which I wore both night and day from Mineral, Idaho, to your town.

I have been in jail here since the first of August, without any trial other than a preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Gowen.

"On November 19th I wrote to the district attorney, asking that gentleman to bring me before the honorable body of grand jurors. November 21st I again wrote to Mr. Irwin, asking him to please see to it that I get a hearing before the grand jury.

"In addition I also wrote Mr. Irwin asking him to please subpoena at once L. M. Harter, Mr. Baker, Mr. Chandler, Mrs. Myers, Milton E. Smith, Mr. Lovelace, Frank W. Hooper and Colonel Wilkinson. I did not receive a reply to any letter sent to Mr. Irwin.

For some reason or other, unknown to me, I do not seem to be able to get a trial of any kind.

"Reader, who is doing this low-down, underhand work? Why do I not get some kind of a trial? A speedy trial is all I have ever requested from the king.

"Morley was never honest with me in any way.
"If they ever convict me it will be by lying witnesses and by buying off the jury. I have many, too very many, good witnesses, who will come here and swear to what I was on February 8, 1911, the time when the forgery is alleged to have been committed at Tule Lake. I can amount for my whereabouts for several months.

"If Fred Morley and the others were one-half as fair to me as Eugene Saxton has been with them, I say I should have been a free man long ago. All I want is a speedy, honest trial."
