Richard E. Smith and Mrs. Karl Whitlock.

The Non-Belgravia Club meets this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Smith. This organization has been in existence for several seasons, and the members look forward to every meeting, when whist games are played. The club is composed of Mr. and Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. English, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Whitlock, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cofer, Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Daggett and Mr. and Mrs. Orb Campbell.

Bids have been issued by the Kasliga Dancing Club for a masquerade ball to be given on the night of December 22. The affair will be given at the Hotel Baldwin, and it promises to be well attended. The Kasliga Club is composed of a number of young people.

Mrs. Frederick H. Mills is hostess to the Bridge Club this afternoon at her residence.

Owing to the continuous activities attendant upon the approach of the Christmas season, several of the clubs have adjourned their meetings until after the holidays. Friday's meeting of the Friday Pelican Club was the last to be held for a month, and the Leisure Hour and Tuesday clubs have also taken adjournments until after Christmas.

Elks and their ladies spent a highly enjoyable evening at the club rooms Thursday evening, the occasion being the regular monthly social session. Dancing and cards were indulged in until a late hour, and refreshments were served.

Mrs. Thomas Hampton was hostess to the Tuesday Club this week, entertaining two tables at cards, and serving a delightful repast. This little group holds fortnightly meetings, that are always highly enjoyed. The members are Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby, Mrs. Charles I. Robertson, Mrs. O. W. Robertson, Mrs. Charles Meldrum, Mrs. Earl Whitlock, Mrs. Orb Campbell, Mrs. Bert Withrow, Mrs. Thomas Hampton and Mrs. Harry Benson.

In honor of Mrs. Bert Withrow, the Leisure Hour Club will give a luncheon at the Hotel Baldwin Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gerber departed earlier in the week for Honolulu, where they will visit for several days.

The Women's Relief Corps held a special election Saturday, and the following were elected for the ensuing term: President, Mrs. Harry Everett Brookfield; senior vice president, Mrs. Luella Stearns; junior vice president, Charlotte Robertson; chaplain, Minnie L. Sargeant; treasurer, Helen Kimball; conductor, Catherine Robertson; guard, Margaret Withrow. Delegates that were elected to the state convention, which will be held at Tillamook, Oregon, in June, 1916, are Catherine Robertson and Minnie L. Sargeant.

The California oil product in 1917 was $7,000,000 barrels which was 5,100,000 barrels more than the previous year.

Greece annually produces more than 21,000,000 pounds of tobacco.
