United Press Service
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 1.—Arkansas practically joins the ranks of the prohibition states today when the law passed by the last session of the legislature went into effect, requiring that a majority of the white adults of a community must sign a petition before a license can be issued for a saloon. The Masonic Grand Lodge adopted a resolution, making it a Masonic offense to sign such a petition.

United Press Service
VIENNA, Jan. 1.—Entering upon his 66th year as Emperor of Austria, Franz Josef, 83 years of age, today received more New Year's greetings probably than any ruler in the world. Telegrams and cablegrams poured in upon the emperor all day, from every corner of the world, including a hearty dispatch from President Wilson. Aside from the dispatches, there was a steady stream of callers, including his daughters, Archduchess Gisela and Princess Leopold of Bavaria, their children and grandchildren, Foreign Minister Berchtold, ambassadors of foreign powers, generals, admirals and other high military officers.

JOHN'S ANNUAL DANCE WAS GREAT

trail and dangerous snowdrifts; of cattlemen and lumbermen, whose idea of a disguise consisted of removing their guns and cartridge belts; of the old fiddler with a patch on his shoe who "patted" time for his orchestra of fiddlers and banjos.

"I hope to live to give two more New Year's balls," said Mr. Houston, "and then I'm through."

Last night's ball was a noisy one, everyone bubbling over with joy and laughter and happiness. Even the judges' decision of prize winners, which same was a difficult thing to render, owing to the many deserving costumes, failed to dampen the merry spirits of the maskers, and each succeeding number emphasized the success of the eighteenth annual masquerade. Mr. Houston has every reason to be proud of the wonderful record he has made in the events of amusement in Klamath Falls.

Three cash prizes were awarded as follows: For the most comical costume, Mrs. Ross as Sis Hopkins; for most original costume, Miss Violet Santimaw; for best sustained character, Lester L. Pierce as a Chinese laundryman. The judges were Mrs. Albert Walker, J. O. Hamaker and Warren L. Duhl.

UNEMPLOYED A PROBLEM IN S.F.

OFFICIALS SAY ANNOUNCEMENT THAT THERE WOULD BE MUNICIPAL WORK THERE DREW THEM FROM ALL OVER

United Press Service
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 1.—Private contributions will make possible the feeding of the unemployed for several days. Subsequently, the outlook is most doubtful.

Officials say the city's hiring men drew workless from the entire coast, cleaning Oakland in a single day. "The state must act in this matter," said a member of the relief committee today. "San Francisco will face three years of this condition, with 1916 the worst of all."

JOBLESS BREAK INTO FESTIVITIES

GILDED CELEBRATIONS IN CHICAGO ARE HALTED BY FIVE HUNDRED MEN DEMANDING FOOD AND WORK

CHICAGO, Jan. 1.—While the New Year's revelry was at its height, 500 hungry and jobless men participated in three downtown meetings. Their leader then urged a parade.

Carrying a white banner reading, "We want work, not charity," they swung into the white light district, where the cold bottles popped.

Once the marchers threatened to invade a State street restaurant, but waiters and other attaches called the police. They entered other restaurants, and demanded food, but they were ejected.

Forty mounted police were finally called and the crowd dispersed, after many windows had been broken.

Thirteen were arrested for disorderly conduct.

The Quick Lunch Is the Style, He Says

United Press Service
PARIS, Jan. 1.—Don't eat too long if you would be swell, says Andre de Fougleres, arbiter of the elegances here, who recently went to the United States to tell folks how to do it over there.

Not only does he advocate what might be termed "quick lunch" dinners—an institution abhorred by the French, who love to dally over their food for hours—but he said champagne should be served all through the meal, that other wines should be few, and mineral water supplied liberally.

Heretofore spending only a short time at the table, drinking champagne all through dinner and having water in evidence have been regarded as essentially American.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has filed with the clerk of the above entitled court, his final accounts and reports as administrator of the above mentioned estate, and that Wednesday, January 28th, 1914, and 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the court house of said county, has been appointed by the Hon. William S. Worden, Judge of said court, as the time and place for hearing objections to, and for settlement of said final accounts and reports. And all persons interested are hereby notified to file their objections, if any they have, to said accounts and reports on or before said day in said court.

PETER GLENN, Administrator.

What Has Klamath Falls and Klamath County Done in the Past Two Years?

Over half a million dollars has been spent in public buildings.

Paving and sewer improvements have been made.

Fine public roads have been built for over a total distance of five hundred miles.

There has been vast improvements in the valleys, new land broken, and larger acreage planted than ever before.

The beginnings of a large lumber industry have added many thousands of dollars to the monthly payrolls.

All this and much more. The question now is, what will Klamath Falls and Klamath County do in the next two years—and what will YOU do to benefit by the development? Now is the time to buy.
