This is the third dance given by the club this winter, and incidentally, the third year the club has been giving dances. The first one given was voted a great success, and this reputation has been maintained by the organization. Extra music will be provided at the coming hop.

Both Want to Meet Ritchie

Jack Britton (standing) and Packy McFarland. It has been about two years that Willie Ritchie has been mentioned in the records as the lightweight champion of the world. During all of that time the bouts that he has participated in have been few and far between. Ritchie has seemed contented to just hold the title. He doesn't seem to be awfully strong for fighting over it, if his negotiations with Freddie Welsh and others can be taken for anything. There are two lightweights who have been in fast company longer than Ritchie, and who complain that the champ will not meet them. There are Packy McFarland and Jack Britton. Both are determined to make Ritchie either fight or back down.

Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, Mrs. Wesley O. Smith, Mrs. Fred H. Mills and Miss Maude Baldwin. There is to be another "big noise" under the auspices of Elksdom. Invitations have been extended to all those taking part in the big vaudeville performance last month to assemble at the Elks' Club Thursday evening. At this time the lodge will entertain the amateur performers, in compliment to their efforts for the success of the show. Some novel stunts are promised.

A meeting of the Women's Relief Corps will be held Saturday evening at 1, O. O. F. hall, when the newly elected officers will be installed. Besides the installation and ritual ceremonies, a program will be rendered, and a banquet served. Old soldiers and their families have been extended cordial invitation.

One of the most pleasant Christmas gatherings at the Fort this year was that of the Gray family at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Gray of Wasco county, who are spending the winter at the Fort. The guests did not arrive very early, on account of the deep snow, which fell the previous night, through which roads had to be broken. The house was nicely decorated, especially the dining room, which in the soft candle light looked like the Santa Claus Christmas story in picture. The dinner was very much enjoyed, and a great deal of merriment was caused by the presents which Santa had left in the house, which was part of the table decorations, from the chimney of which he and his reindeer were just leaving. Some could hardly wait to pull the ribbons attached to their place cards and leading into the house, but Santa proved to be a joker to a few of them. Those receiving invitations were Mr. and Mrs. D. Y. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Kirkpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. George Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Collier Gray, Mr. John Gray, Mr. Ira Tungate, Mr. Bert Gray, and the Misses Alice Gray, Maude Kirkpatrick, Letha Gray, Billy Gray and Miss Laura Johnson.

On last Wednesday night, in the apartments prepared for their home.
