

"MOTHER JONES" ARRESTED AT TRINIDAD, COLO., TODAY BY MILITIA; TROOPS HOLD BACK THE CITIZENS

IS THIRD TIME IDOL OF MINERS HAS BEEN ARRESTED BY COLORADO TROOPS

Will Be Held at Hospital Until Governor Emmens and General Chase Make Some Disposition Regarding Her—Hoach Trinitad Last Night After Being Taken Away Two Days Ago by National Guard.

United Press Service TRINIDAD, Colo., Jan. 12.—"Mother Jones" was arrested here just before noon by Lieutenant Nichols and five privates of the Colorado National Guard. She was taken in an armored auto to the hospital at Camp San Rafael, where she will be detained.

Militia infantry and cavalry drove the citizens off the street while the automobile made the trip to the hospital. She will be kept there pending further orders from the governor and the militia commander.

"Mother Jones," who was deported about a week ago, returned Saturday. She was met by militia men then, and sent to Denver. Last night she returned.

The militia were not apprized of her return last night. She was escorted to her hotel without molestation.

SOCIALISTS HOLD MINERS' BENEFIT

MONEY IS COLLECTED FOR THE RELIEF OF STRIKERS' FAMILIES IN THE COPPER COUNTRY. WEEKS A SPEAKER

Considerable interest was manifested in the benefit held Sunday afternoon by the socialist local to raise funds for the families of the striking miners in the Michigan copper country. Considerable money was raised, too, by this means.

Talks were made by several present. H. J. Weeks, recently from Michigan, was the principal speaker. In addition to telling of conditions there, he talked on the socialist party, making a terrific indictment against the present system.

Home From Eugene.

Robert B. Kuykendall returned on Sunday evening from Eugene, where he spent the Christmas holidays.

A New Office.

Major C. E. Worden has purchased the small frame building on Espinade, opposite the White Pelican hotel, and is having it moved to Twelfth and Main. He will use it as a real estate office.

Moves His Office.

Dr. J. V. Gilbert has moved his office from the First Trust and Savings bank building to the I. O. O. F. building.

TO TAX TIMBER AFTER IT IS CUT

INCOME TAX WILL NOT AFFECT IT UNTIL THE TREES ARE FELLED, SAWED AND SOLD IN THE MARKET

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 12.—No timber land will be subject to the income tax until the timber is cut and marketed, and then only the profit, after the cost, which will include protection of the growing timber, is deducted, will be subject to assessment.

This is the interpretation placed by P. H. Hildale, secretary of the American Forestry Association, on a decision of the treasury department on the subject. The ruling, made public today, was at the request of Secretary Hildale, who requested information as to the method by which the income tax on timber lands might be estimated.

REX CAFE HAS CHANGED HANDS

J. W. LINDQUIST IS THE NEW PROPRIETOR, BUYING THE INTERESTS OF JACK HERSHBERGER IN THE CONCERN

Saturday night at 12 o'clock, J. W. Lindquist took possession of the Rex cafe, having completed a deal earlier in the day for the purchase of this popular restaurant from J. R. Hershberger.

Mr. Lindquist, though a young man, is quite an experienced caterer, having been engaged in this line for several years.

Before going into the catering business, Mr. Lindquist learned the many details of furnishing appetizing food to a hungry public while holding the position of chief steward on the Oriental and Occidental Steamship line.

Mr. Hershberger will remain in the cafe until the new owner gets a full grip on the reins, then he will spend a week or two on his ranch before leaving for California.

OPIE READ IS TO BE HERE THE 26TH

AMERICA'S FOREMOST NOVELIST WILL ENTERTAIN KLAMATH PEOPLE WITH QUIET STORIES AND ANECDOTES

Opie Read, who has written more marketed books than any other American author, the man who is most sought and highest paid by current periodicals, the creator of that famous millions laugh and cry, was voted the appear in Klamath Falls January 26th. He will give one of his lectures that night at Houston's opera house.

Opie Read

Two years ago Read appeared in lecture, and the evening's entertainment given by the man who has made millions laugh and cry, was voted the biggest event of that winter. Since then, Manager John Houston has been after another engagement.

Houston has just succeeded in securing Read to lecture on that date. It was accomplished, however, only after voluminous correspondence with the Redpath-Slayton Lyceum bureau.

METHODIST MEN TO GIVE BANQUET

INVITATIONS WILL BE ISSUED, AND EACH MAN WILL BE ASKED TO BRING A YOUNG MAN WITH HIM

A men's banquet will be given Monday evening in the dining room of Grace M. E. church by the men of the church. Invitations for this will be issued soon.

The affair is known as a Father-Son banquet. Each guest is asked to bring with him his son, or some other young man.

Hon. H. L. Benson will be toastmaster. The other talks will be as follows: Welcome . . . . . George J. Walton "The Church as an Asset to the City" . . . . . J. W. Bryant "The Business Man's Church" . . . . . Herbert D. Gale "The Young Man and the Church" . . . . . J. G. Camp "The Progressive Sunday School" . . . . . F. M. Upp "The Bible Class" . . . . . C. E. Widdoes "The Mission of the League" . . . . . E. M. Chilcote "The Outlook" . . . . . Rev. E. C. Richards

Undergoes Operation.

Claude Maxwell, who is connected with the Star Drug company, underwent an operation Saturday for the removal of his tonsils. Though still somewhat ill from the effects of the other, he is up and around again, wearing the cherubic smile that has made him famous.

Back From Eugene.

Circuit Court Clerk George Chastain returned Saturday from Eugene, where he went in charge of his brother, who went to have his eyes treated.

VILLA'S TROOPS MARCH TOWARD MEXICAN CAPITAL

ONLY THREE HUNDRED WILL REMAIN AT OJINAGA

Rebel Leader's Forces Will Be Rested, Re-Outfitted and Given Fresh Mounts at Chihuahua—There They Will Be Joined by Other Revolutionary Bands, Says Villa, and the Capital Will Soon Be in Their Grip

United Press Service

PRESIDIO, Texas, Jan. 12.—General Pancho Villa, at the head of 1,500 rebel troops, started today for Mexico City. They will march overland to Falomir, where they entrain for Chihuahua, the rebel capital.

According to Villa, there his army will rest for a few days, and will be joined by a mobilization of other revolutionary troops. They will all be issued entire new outfits, and receive new horses.

With this larger force Villa will start for Torreon. From there the troops will be disposed in battle formation.

Troops are to leave here daily as reinforcements until the garrison is reduced to 300.

Sir James Whitney, Premier, Is Sick

Sir James Whitney, the premier of Ontario, is very ill in New York city. For several weeks he has been in the Hotel Manhattan, where he is being attended by Dr. Herman M. Briggs and Dr. R. A. Pyne Sr. Dr. Pyne is a member of the premier's cabinet, being the minister of education.

When Sir James first came to New York he was suffering from a nervous breakdown. Dr. Pyne thought a long rest would restore him. But he did not improve, and several days ago the patient's weakness affected the heart. The symptom was considered serious, whereupon Dr. Briggs was called into consultation.

A rancher has applied for the rental of 320 acres on the Pike National forest, Colorado, to be used in connection with other private land, for raising elk as a commercial venture.

The government has just sold 42,000 cords of cedar wood for shingles from the Washington National forest. The shingles manufactured from this wood, laid six inches to the weather, would cover 2 1/4 square miles of roof.

Raoul Madero, Younger Brother of Murdered President, With Villa

Raoul Madero, younger brother of Madero family, several members of which escaped to New York city.

But Raoul Madero remained in his native country. He has been with Villa since the taking of Jaures, across the Rio Grande from El Paso, Texas. It is possible that much of the success of Villa, the ex-bandit, has been due to young Madero.

HOPYARD RIOT IS BEFORE TRIBUNAL

FOUR MEN FACE TRIAL FOR MURDERAL CLASH NEAR WHEATLAND LAST FALL

United Press Service MARYSVILLE, Calif., Jan. 12.—The joint trial of Richard Ford, Herman Suhr, William Beck and Harry Ragan, charged with the murder of District Attorney E. T. Maxwell and Deputy Sheriff Eugene Reardon, during the riots at the Wheatland hop ranch began today, and the impaneling of the jury is proceeding this afternoon.

The trial is invested with national importance from the fact that the federal commission of industrial relations had special representatives present.

In the riot two unidentified laborers were killed and several wounded.

WEST'S SUPPORT TO CHAMBERLAIN

THE GOVERNOR FLATLY DENIES THAT HE WILL BE A CANDIDATE FOR THE UNITED STATES SENATE

United Press Service SALEM, Jan. 12.—Governor Oswald West today declared that he will not be a candidate for United States senator.

The governor said he was loyal to Senator Chamberlain, and expected to give him his support.

The state university lands in Arizona are to be lumbered under a co-operative agreement between the government and the state land commission. Arizona is the first state in the Southwest, and one of the few in the country, to cut its timbered lands on forestry principles.

WILL DEBATE IN THIS CITY FRIDAY

KLAMATH HIGH AND ASHLAND HIGH DEBATING TEAMS WILL MEET FOR DISTRICT CHAMPIONSHIP

To decide which institution will represent the Southern Oregon district in the final debates of the Oregon High School Debating League, the debating teams of Ashland high school and Klamath county high school will meet in Klamath Falls Friday evening. The debate will be held at Houston's opera house.

The question is: "Resolved: That the policy embodied in the California anti-alien land bill should be adopted in Oregon."

Klamath county high has the negative side of the argument. The local school will be represented by Forrest Piel, William Hagelstein and Miss Fren Wood.

Business Man Back.

George W. Bradley, who has been in Portland attending to business interests, is home again. He has taken charge of the removal of his store to the Stewart building.

WEST PROVIDES A MEAL AND PLACES FOR UNEMPLOYED

FORTY JOBS GIVEN ON STATE PROPERTY

Army of the Unemployed Routed Out of Camp in Church Basement and Sent to Restaurant for Meals by Executive—Men at Work Clearing Lands Are to Receive $1.50 for Eight Hours Work.

United Press Service

SALEM, Jan. 12.—Ninety-eight unemployed men, who marched from Portland to Salem to demand work from Governor Oswald West, received the surprise of their lives this morning when West bought their breakfasts for them and provided forty of them with jobs.

The army last night camped in the basement of the First Congregational church, across the street from West's residence. At 7 o'clock this morning West crossed the street, routed the men out, and sent them to a restaurant for breakfast.

When the men returned to the church wagons were waiting, and forty were taken to the various state institutions. Here they were put to work doing farm work, clearing brush, etc. These men will be given $1.50 a day for eight hours' work. They will be charged $4 a week for board.

TRAVELING MEN CAN'T SELL GOODS

RAILROAD COMMISSION FORBIDS THE SALE OF SAMPLES BY DRUMMERS, MAKING IT CRIMINAL OFFENSE

SALEM, Jan. 12.—According to a ruling laid down by the state railroad commission the custom of some traveling salesmen of selling their samples instead of returning them to the firm which they represent constitutes a discrimination against the merchants of the locality where they are sold, and is a criminal offense.

The ruling was made at the request of Joseph Simon of Portland.

The sale of the samples constitutes a discrimination, because on the samples more favorable transportation rates are given by the railroad company than is given on regular shipments of merchandise.

The ruling is in conformity with a similar decision rendered by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Mothers' Meeting.

A mothers' meeting will be held at 219 High street tomorrow afternoon, under the auspices of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. Mrs. Kninear will be the principal speaker.

Post cards with a folding flap at one end for mailing small flat articles have been patented by a Washington man.

Move For a Dry Town

Those Interested Will Meet at M.E. Church Tonight

That the saloon question is to play an important role in the coming municipal election is evidenced by the attention that is being given this question. The Women's Christian Temperance Union has planned to have the closing of saloons put up to the voters, and others are taking this up, too. This evening there will be a meeting at Grace M. E. church, to consider the laying of snares for entrapping the Demon Rum. At this meeting those present will discuss plans for a campaign at the city election in May. Those seeking the closing of saloons in Klamath Falls feel sure that they will place the sale of liquor under the ban. The women's vote is being counted upon by this faction. It will not be all smooth sailing for the prohs, though, say others. It is argued that the saloons in Klamath Falls are very few, and that they are always conducted in an orderly manner.

"Sixferquarter" Is Dead

Portland's Carfare Ordinance Declared Invalid

United Press Service PORTLAND, Jan. 12.—The ordinance recently passed by the city commission ordering the local traction companies to sell six car rides for 25 cents, has been declared void in a verbal decision by Federal Judge Bean. The ruling was made upon the city's motion to dismiss the injunction proceedings instituted by the Portland Railway, Light and Power company, to restrain the enforcement of the ordinance. Judge Bean held that the ordinance conflicted with the powers of the State Railroad Commission, which had jurisdiction over public utility corporations.