NEWS NOTES OF MALIN DOINGS

SOCIAL EVENING ENJOYED—THE SINGING SCHOOL IS PROGRESSING—PRIMARY TEACHER BADLY NEEDED

(Herald Special Service)
MALIN, Jan. 13.—On account of the school directors at Malin not being able to secure a primary teacher, Miss Marovick, the principal, will teach both rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunt, who live on the Keno road, visited their son, O. E. Hunt, Christmas week.

Emma and Charley Honik, Ross Krupka, Helen Zumpfe and Anton Polivka, who have been visiting their parents, have returned to Klamath Falls to enter high school.

H. E. Wilson and family visited at C. M. Kirkpatrick's Sunday, January 4th.

On Saturday night following New Year, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Pickett gave a social at their home. Those present tripped the light fantastic toe until the wee hours. A good time was reported by all present.

George Strowbridge and wife, who were recently married at the Falls, are visiting Mr. Strowbridge's father at this place.

Roy Richardson, from Dodd's Hollow, was hunting a stray colt in this vicinity a few days ago.

Walter Turner and wife from near Midland, visited the families of C. M. Kirkpatrick and H. E. Wilson last week.

The singing school at Malin, under the management of the principal of schools, is progressing nicely.

Wreckage Worked by New Jersey Storm

High waves washed over the New Jersey coast from Sandy Hook to Cape May during the storm which raged on the Atlantic recently. The oil tank steamship Oklahoma was lost and thirty of her crew drowned.

But most of the damage was done to the homes of the millionaires along the coast and to large hotels there. The Hotel Octagon at Sea Bright was completely destroyed. One residence not far from it was wrecked. The damage has been estimated at several million dollars.

This part of the Jersey coast is really a peninsula, bounded on one side by the ocean and for some distance down by the Shrewsbury river. The land is not more than ten feet above high water in many places. An ordinary high tide does not reach the level of the streets of the towns along the coast. Many New York and Philadelphia millionaires have built magnificent summer homes along the stretch of low beach for many miles. Some are protected by breakwaters, but these succumbed to the high waves and strong wind of the storm. Now a movement is on foot to build a breakwater along the whole Jersey coast thus unprotected against the storms. An appeal may be made to congress for an appropriation.

Women Jurors to Sue for Their Fees, etc.

United Press Service
REDWOOD CITY, Cal., Jan. 13.—Indications are that the courts will have to decide the validity of the claims filed by the eleven women members of the last San Mateo county grand jury for $3 daily each during their term of service, and mileage covering their trips to and fro from the county seat.

That they will win their case was the general opinion of lawyers here, but for some reason Auditor W. H. Underhill has declined to turn over their fees, interposing various technical objections as often as their bills were presented. The women's version is that Underhill was angered because they compelled him to make changes in his office management, which cost him considerable money and more trouble.

The women on the San Mateo county grand jury, said Expert Accountant L. Q. Haven, who for years has seen service with grand juries here and elsewhere throughout California, "have made it the best requisitorial body I have ever seen. They are absolutely fair, and fearless, knowing no politics and caring nothing for private interests except to give everyone justice."

"They have made a most thorough investigation of everything that needed investigating, and have swept the county affairs clean."

A Good Drive.

A very successful rabbit drive took place last Monday south of town, near the old Thad Jones place. Quite a number of people attended, and about 300 rabbits were killed. Another drive was being planned, but will have to be postponed on account of the heavy downpour of rain which began last night.—Alturas New Era.

Money

Is the easiest made when saved, and saving is especially easy when foresight is used—for instance, in buying groceries, anticipate your wants ahead and buy your supplies in quantities at practically wholesale—eliminate the soliciting nuisance, the hap-hazard way of buying from hand-to-mouth. It is just as easy for your grocery man to deliver a box of soap, a case of fruit or vegetables, 50 or 100 pounds of sugar, rice, beans, dry fruit, etc., as it is the small purchases of many articles gotten so often—and the bigger way you'll find such a good investment that once tried will be followed up with the result that a pleasing balance will be in your favor at the end of the year.

Come in, bring a list; no harm if you don't buy—just the same we'll be glad to show you how and why we can about equally share profits with you to our mutual advantage.
