Society

Notice and items for the Social Department will receive attention if left at The Herald office or telephoned to Main 88 by Friday afternoon or before 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

Two points were brought forcibly to the minds of Klamath Falls men Wednesday night, as a result of the "suffragette" dance at the White Pelican Hotel. The first of these was that women can dance with each other and have a rattling good time. The second was that it is not for the men alone that the fair sex don their most gorgeous, chic, captivating, or, in other words, their best raiment.

This was all brought forcibly home to the men when they were denied admission to the hotel. E. B. Hall and Will H. Bennett, fetchingly arrayed in tiny white caps and aprons, attended the door, and they smilingly allowed the men folk to get as far as the entrance to the lobby with their ladies before they interferred. Then their smiles vanished and after a stern "whazurskirt?" mere man was unceremoniously hustled from the hall and informed that they could call about 11 o'clock for their ladies, and if they wanted to see what was going on they would have to content themselves with peering through the dining room windows—which many of them did. There were over a hundred women present and to the strains of music rendered by a ladies' orchestra they tripped the light fantastic and enjoyed themselves hugely (which is more than immensely). Some men were determined to attend the party, though, and they arrayed themselves in garments of the feminine persuasion. In this attire they were admitted and allowed to participate in the evening's jollity. Sam Evans, as a reincarnation of "Cleopatra," was gorgeous and had the men all going, while Messrs. Wilson, Ayres, Moore, Zim Baldwin, Lyle, Morrow, Smith, Tindall and Mehahey were also real fetching in dresses. Learning of this, some of the women decided that the suffrage idea could be carried out in full, so they arrayed themselves in the shirts, ties, vests and coats of men's full dress suits, wearing dark skirts. This costume was as natty as it was original. At eleven o'clock the men who had remained outside the pale were allowed to enter the hotel and from then until the morning hours dancing continued. Coffee and sandwiches were served by Hall & Bennett, who stuck to their aprons and caps. For genuine fun and for all sorts of novel features, the suffragette dance Wednesday night was one of the biggest successes ever held in Klamath county and it will be talked of for days to come. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hall have received all sorts of congratulations on their latest success in the entertainment line.

Mrs. C. I. Robertson was hostess to the Tuesday Bridge Club last Tuesday afternoon. Auction bridge was the diversion of the afternoon, at the close of which a dainty repast was served. Mrs. Robertson's guests were: Mrs. Thomas Hampton, Mrs. Harry Benson, Mrs. Earl Whitlock, Mrs. Fred Schallock, Mrs. O. W. Robertson, Mrs. Bert Withrow, Mrs. Carey Ramsby and Mrs. Charles Meldrum.

The Happy Hour Club entertained their husbands Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Munday, Seventh and Oak streets. Five hundred was played, first prize being awarded to S. E. Farmer and the consolation prize to G. V. Walters. Refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Sam Summers, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Emmitt, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Biehn, Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Weedon, Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Walters, Mr. and Mrs. K. D. North, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Shipley, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Winters, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. J. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. G. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Heldrich, Mr. and Mrs. Loy Hillyard, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Mundy and Mr. H. Farmer.

The silver tea given Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. H. Dunbar by the Christian Women's Board of Missions proved to be a very successful affair, both from a financial and social standpoint. In attendance were the following: Mrs. O. C. Applegate, Mrs. G. A. Wirtz, Mrs. George A. Hayden, Mrs. Fred T. Sanderson, Mrs. Perry Kanatzer, Mrs. W. E. Seehorn, Mrs. A. Baintor, Mrs.

Money

Is the easiest made when saved, and saving is especially easy when foresight is used—for instance, in buying groceries, anticipate your wants ahead and buy your supplies in quantities at practically wholesale—eliminate the soliciting nuisance, the hap-hazard way of buying from hand-to-mouth. It is just as easy for your grocery man to deliver a box of soap, a case of fruit or vegetables, 50 or 100 pounds of sugar, rice, beans, dry fruit, etc., as it is the small purchases of many articles gotten so often—and the bigger way you'll find such a good investment that once tried will be followed up with the result that a pleasing balance will be in your favor at the end of the year. Come in, bring a list; no harm if you don't buy—just the same we'll be glad to show you how and why we can about equally share profits with you to our mutual advantage.
