Lots of Baseball in Klamath This Summer

This season promises to be the banner season for baseball in Southern Oregon, and Klamath Falls will be right in the lead from the break-away. The feeling of dissatisfaction and resentment that kept some of the best players off the diamond last season seems to have disappeared altogether, and many good men who refused to put on uniforms last season will be among the first out for practice this year.

"Red" Brown, Jess Siemens, Hardbrook and Foster will do the hurling; Harry Ruit has promised to get in shape early to don the big mitt, and will take his turn with Mischenbacher, Thrasher and Gus Knease on the receiving end. Don Hale on first, Claude Maxwell at second, Messer at short and Arnold at third is an infield like a brick wall; take an outfield composed of Harry Baum, Paul Noel and Vernon Houston, add them up, and you have a flag winning team.

Guy Merrill brings word from Merrill that his burg will put in a good team in the field. R. W. Brooks says that Hildebrand will be in the run-the pennant.

The Pelican Bay Lumber company started late last season, but will be among the first in shape this season, with many new players in the line-up. Joe Hall, a former star with St. Louis, is getting the Chilcoquin team in readiness for a successful season; Swan Lake and Lakeview will each have a team this season, so it looks as though the national sport will be in great favor again this season.

BASKETBALL GAME SATURDAY NIGHT

HIGH SCHOOL WILL TAKE TOWN TEAM ON FOR TWO GAMES BEFORE STARTING ON THEIR TOUR

Preparatory to starting on its tour through Yreka, and towns as far north as Roseburg, the Klamath County High School basketball team will play two games with the Klamath Falls team. The first will take place Saturday night at Houston's opera house.

Both teams are practicing hard to get into shape.

The high school team leaves Monday, February 2, for their trip. On the Saturday preceding the boys will play a game with an outside high school team here. Several teams are anxious to come in for that date, among them Yreka, Ashland, Medford and Roseburg.

Five Big League Stars Jump to Federal League--More May Go

Already five big league stars have jumped to the Federal League from the American and National leagues—and this is still the season of winter baseball. What will happen by the time the spring training begins cannot be foretold.

Joe Tinker, under contract to Cincinnati or Brooklyn—which cannot now be determined—has signed to become manager of the Chicago Club of the Federals. There he will come into direct competition with Murphy's Cubs of the National and Comiskey's White Sox of the American League.

Mordcael Brown, once the greatest pitcher in the country, and at this time under contract to the Cincinnati club of the National League, having been signed there when Tinker was manager of the Reds, has taken charge of the St. Louis club of the Federal League.

Otto Knabe, the great second baseman of the Philadelphia National League club, has gone to Baltimore as manager of the new Federal League club. He will not compete with any big league club there, but the International League has a club in Baltimore, and it is a very important part of organized baseball.

King Cole, the once brilliant pitcher of the Chicago Cubs, has just announced that he has signed with Tinker's Chicago Federals. Cole comes from the American Association, but he had been signed by Frank Chance, manager of the New York American League club, for the coming season. He had shown, in his work of 1913, with the Milwaukee club of the American Association, that he was back at his best form when with the Cubs. Chance counted much on his aid for the 1914 season in New York, so the loss to him will be greater than other clubs will have in the loss of Tinker, Brown and Knabe.

Catcher Killifer of the Philadelphia National League club is one of the best catchers in the country. He did most of the catching last year, despite the fact that Red Doolin, the manager, is something of a catcher himself. But Doolin found a man whom he could trust in his place behind the bat.

Other important players, if not stars, have also been signed by clubs of the Federal League. Among them are Ad Brennan of the Philadelphia club—the man who won fame by knocking out Manager McGraw of the Giants last year on the field in Philadelphia—Jimmy Sheppard, the famous outfielder Stovall, formerly manager of the Browns of St. Louis; Reals Becker, once of the New York Giants; Packard of Cincinnati; McKechnie, once second baseman for Pittsburgh and also for the New York Americans; Barbeau, once third baseman for Pittsburgh, and Schlafly, long in the International League.

One thing is holding back many big league players from accepting offers of Federal League club managers—the question of money. Will the Federal League last through the season and thus be able to pay salaries? If its managers could assure players of their money they would likely get many more stars of the big leagues.
