One Room School Is Advocated in the East

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 28.—The one room school building was highly commended here today by speakers at the opening sessions of the Fourth Wisconsin Country Life conference, which will continue through Friday.

Commissioners of education, inspectors, superintendents and directors of country schools from three states, and prominent educational specialists from the country at large were among those scheduled to discuss the work each is doing for the boys and girls of the country.

In discussing the one-room school speakers pointed out that in such a structure pupils are afforded vastly better lighting and ventilating facilities than can possibly be given them in school buildings which do not permit of exposure on all four sides.

Secretary of State John S. Donald of Mt. Horeb is president and C. J. Galpin of Madison is secretary of the conference.

SAGE TEA PUTS LIFE AND COLOR IN HAIR

IT'S GRANDMOTHER'S RECIPE TO RESTORE COLOR, GLOSS AND THICKNESS

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.
