In honor of Dr. Clifton Hodge and William Hayward of the University of Oregon, the Eighth Grade domestic science class served a luncheon at the Central school building last Friday afternoon. The luncheon consisted of four courses, as follows:

Hamburg Steak

Potatoes in Half Shell

Hot Biscuits Crabapple Jelly

Cabbage and Pimento Salad

Wafers

Pineapple Sherbert Chocolate Cake

Coffee

After-Luncheon Mints

A pretty decorative system was used, the color scheme being red, and this was carried out very effectively with the use of red flowers. The dinner was splendidly served and prepared perfectly, and the girls and their instructor, Miss Clara Elmer, were highly complimented by Dr. Hodge, Mr. Hayward and the other guests. County School Superintendent Fred Peterson, City School Superintendent R. H. Dunbar, W. E. Faught, principal of the high school, and Elmer I. Applegate, the new member of the board of education.

Those "dear old golden rule days" are to be recalled to the minds of local people at the White Pelican hotel Wednesday night, for then will be held a session of "district skule," with the grown-ups, garbed in kid clothes, enrolled as pupils. There is a great scurrying around for costumes, and the affair promises to be one of the most novel and enjoyable entertainments given here. Following is the form of the gloriously printed "invite" being sent out:

"White Pelican School Dist. No. 91929. Prof. Lickum will open the Midwinter term of District Skule on Wednesday night, Feb. 4th, promptly at 9 o'clock p. m. No scholar enrolled who is over 13 years of age, so wear knee pants or short dresses. Every girl expected to bring lunch basket for two, and boys bring fruit and candy in their pockets. Naughty boys in long trousers will be expelled. Temporary quarters for the Little Red Skule House to be at the White Pelican Hotel for this night only. Your name was secured from the Skule Clerk, so you must report. Mrs. E. B. Hall, Dist. Clerk.

The fund being raised by the Women's Civic League for furnishing the rest room at the Chamber of Commerce headquarters for the benefit of women from out of town, will receive a big boost this evening, when the women of the league will serve a chicken supper. The supper will be served cafeteria style, and there will be a large assortment of food at moderate prices. The affair will be held at the former location of the Bradley Harness company, from 5 until 8 o'clock. As this is a most worthy cause, many Klamath Falls families have forewarned cooking supper this evening, and instead, will take their evening repast at the temporary cafeteria.

Mr. and Mrs. Loy Hilyard entertained at 500 at their home on Jefferson street Thursday night, in honor of her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Farmer, who are here from Idaho, paying a visit. The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Mundy, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Curry A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Garrick, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Shipley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mashburn, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Farmer, Henry Farmer and Oscar L. Carter. High score was made by Sid Evans, and Percy Evans won the consolation award. At the conclusion of play, delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Miss Verda Coxad was hostess to a number of friends at an enjoyable party Thursday night, her guests being Miss Elizabeth Houston, Miss Ella Dews, Miss Madge Dixon, Forrest Piel, Kenneth Stewart, Ralph Hurn and Leland Haines. Five hundred was played during the earlier part of the evening, Kenneth Stewart receiving high, and Ralph Hurn the booby prize. Following the awarding of the prizes, songs, music and other diversions were indulged in, and late in the evening sumptuous refreshments were served.

The birthday of Ted Shipley was the occasion for a birthday party, given Friday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Shipley, on Oak street. Many games were played during the evening, and later refreshments were served. Those present were Nellie Matt, Dorothy Sanderson, Frieda Blehn, Leona Card, Lucile Beckley, Joyce Mundy, Cecil Clendenning, Leroy Glenger, Lynn Skillington, Calvin Peyton, Dee Moody, Walter Walker and Ted Shipley.

Mrs. O. W. Robertson was hostess to the Leisure Hour Club Wednesday afternoon, there being present Mrs. A. R. Campbell, Mrs. Thos. Hampton, Mrs. E. B. Hall, Miss Harris, Mrs. C. C. Hogue, Mrs. George Hurn, Mrs. Maxwell M. Long, Mrs. Charles Mel-drum, Mrs. Henry Newham, Mrs. O. W. Robertson, Mrs. Charles I. Robertson, Mrs. R. E. Smith, Mrs. Fred Schallack, Mrs. Bert E. Withrow, Mrs. Whitlock, Mrs. William Masten and Mrs. Frank Vannice. Mrs. Henry Newham won the card honors for the occasion, and during the afternoon dainty refreshments were served.

Miss Lola Wilson entertained a number of friends in a delightful manner Friday evening at her home on Pine street. A number of novel games were enjoyed, and refreshments were served by the hostess. Miss Wilson's guests were Mabel and Beatrice Williams, Miss Ethel Haw-hurst, Jennie Icenbice, Miss Mary McComb, Miss Boss Mulkey, Miss Florence Boggs, Mrs. H. S. Wilson, Miss Lisa Wilson, Miss Verda Jardine, Miss Lottie Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. A. McBalby, John Hawthurst, Estel Wirtz, Rex and Roy La Prairie, Oliver Applegate, Clyde and Wade Short, Emmett Shields, Ivan and Cal Icen-bice.

Schemes for the construction of a 3,000 mile railway through Central Africa, at a cost roughly estimated at $50,000,000, have been revived by the termination of the war between Italy and Turkey.

Bernalillo county, New Mexico, has a superintendent of schools who not only insist on improved rural school houses, but designs them himself and personally superintends their erection.

Marseilles annually exports about $10,000,000 worth of cocoanut butter, the business having been developed since 1897. Most of it goes to England, Holland and Scandinavia.

Advancing prices of horses and mules from the United States have led Guadeloupe to purchase many animals from South America. The South American mules are smaller.

In a new muffler for desk tele-phones the sound waves and air expelled from the user's lungs pass through a non-vibrating spiral coil of aluminum, which prevents a person standing near from hearing the conversation.
