COMB SAGE TEA IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT

IT'S GRANDMOTHER'S RECIPE TO KEEP HER LOCKS DARK, GLOS-SY, THICK

The old time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youth-Services at Merrill on the third ful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular, because nebody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abunadnee which is so attractive; besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.
