Long, Mrs. Anna Leach, Miss Eliza Stilts and Miss Harris. After Mr. and Mrs. Melhase had recovered from the complete surprise, tables were arranged and 500 was played until a late hour, when the guests spread the luncheon they had brought with them, after partaking of which they departed, wishing Mr. Melhase many happy returns of the day.

The Non-Belgravia Whist Club will be entertained this evening by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cofer. Members of the club are Mr. and Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. English, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Whitlock, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cofer, Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Daggett, Mr. and Mrs. Orb Campbell.

The final party of the season will be given by the Klatawa Club Friday evening at the White Pelican hotel. During the winter this organization of well known young men has given four dances, all of which were great successes, and were largely attended. This is the third season of Klatawa Club hops, and they have come to fill a prominent place on the social calendar of Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Fred Schallock was hostess at Friday's session of the Friday Pelican Club, held at the White Pelican hotel. Card honors went to Mrs. Charles Meldrum. During the afternoon a luncheon was served to the club members, who are Mrs. J. C. Brockenbrough, Mrs. F. B. English, Mrs. Herbert Gale, Mrs. Mary A. Jackson, Mrs. E. B. Hall, Mrs. Thomas Hampton, Mrs. Charles Meldrum, Mrs. Fred H. Mills, Mrs. Fred Schallock, and Mrs. Earl Whitlock.

The newest card club for Klamath Falls is the "Entre Nous Club," which came into being at a gathering of whist devotees Tuesday evening, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hogue. Members of the club are Dr. and Mrs. Maxwell M. Long, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Worden, Mrs. Jennie Hurn, Miss Jennie Harris, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hogue and Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg. Meetings will be held on the evenings of the first and third Tuesdays of each month at the homes of the members.

Miss Susie Holmes of Ashland is the guest of Mrs. Selden K. Ogle. In honor of her house guest, Mrs. Ogle entertained a number of friends on Friday afternoon, the afternoon being devoted to needlework.

Another club to be organized this week was the "U & I Club," composed of Miss Claudia Spink, Miss Mabelle Leavitt, Miss Margaret Worden, Miss Pearl Leavitt, Miss Hortense Hogue, Miss Clara Calkins, Miss Marjorie Delzell, John Houston, Clarence Montgomery, Earl Everett, Ernel Stearns, Graham Kiehl, on Delzell and Howard Winnard. Meetings will be held the first Friday of each month at the homes of the members. The organization was effected Thursday night, when the members met at the home of Miss Worden.

Patriotism was rampant at Friday's meeting of the Women's Library Club, and to this organization goes the honor of being the first in Klamath Falls to hold a joint Lincoln-Washington observance, which is being advocated all over the United States. The club hall was decorated in patriotic hues, and there were upwards of thirty women in attendance. Miss Eola Hawkins read the Declaration of Independence, an interesting poem on Lincoln was given by Mrs. Charles Stewart. Miss Louise Benson rendered "My Own United States," and the ladies' orchestra, led by Mrs. Selts, gave several instrumental selections. The club is considering the taking up of parent-teacher work, and other branches, in addition to the library work.

At the last regular meeting of Prosperity Rebekah Lodge the following were named as the banquet committee for March: Mrs. Henrietta Melhase (chairman), Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Emmitt, Mrs. Belle Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Hardenbrook, Mrs. Lydia Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Guthridge, Mrs. Townsend, Mrs. Stella Mang, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCoy, Mrs. Heien Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Carey Ramsby, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Piel.

The Happy Hour Club held its regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Guy Walters, and the usual "happy hour" was enjoyed by all. Members of this joyful club meet for the sole purpose of having a good time, and they certainly have it. All cares, trials and tribulations are left on the outside with the overshoes, umbrellas and other useless impediments, and you couldn't find a groan or a grunt with a searchlight. Those present at the meeting were Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. O. D. Mathews, Mrs. H. J. Winters, Mrs. Steinmetz, Mrs. R. J. Sheets, Mrs. Geo. Blehn, Mrs. W. H. Weedon, Mrs. Claud Davis, Mrs. K. D. North, Mrs. Will Houston, Mrs. W. P. Johnson, Mrs. R. A. Emmitt, Mrs. S. T. Summers, Mrs. Oscar Brenneman. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. The next gathering of this club will be at the home of Mrs. W. H. Weedon.

The pupils of the Riverside school celebrated Washington's birthday by rendering a very interesting and appropriate program in the assembly room on Friday morning, as follows: "Star Spangled Banner" School "There Are Many Flags in Maryland" Second Grade Song and Flag Drill First Grade Washington Exercise Second Grade "Flag Song" Fourth Grade "Washington's Birthday" Wilford Henry "Mt. Vernon Bells" Fifth Grade Dialogue Fourth Grade "Washington Song"—Boys of First, Second and Third Grades "Washington Song"—Girls of First, Second and Third Grades "George Washington Truthful Club" Four Boys Flag Drill Third Grade "Scouts of Uncle Sam"—First, Second and Third Grades "America" School Friends of Mrs. W. P. Johnson gave her a pleasant surprise on Wednesday afternoon, celebrating the anniversary of her birth. That the surprise might be complete in every respect, the friends gathered on the day preceding the anniversary of her natal day, thereby giving the little lady no time at all to prepare for such a contingency. Judging from reports of the affair, it was a most complete surprise, indeed. Those present were Mrs. Anna O'Farrell, Mrs. Nate Otterbein, Mrs. George Blehn, Mrs. K. A. Emmitt, Mrs. Guy Walters, Mrs. W. H. Weedon, Mrs. W. G. Wilson, Mrs. H. J. Winters, Mrs. W. H. North, Mrs. Ray Atherton, Mrs. R. J. Sheets, Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. S. T. Summers and Mrs. K. D. North.
