

Why It's Called "Beaver State"

Oregon Development News in the Line of Industries, Payrolls, Etc., Prepared in Terse Form by the late Bureau of Industries and Statistics, and Published in the Interest of Herald Readers.

SALEM, Feb. 22.—During the past week the supreme court decided against Labor Commissioner Hoff in his contention that the eight-hour law for public works applied to all public employment, such as police, firemen, state employes, etc.

The case of Frank Stettler, paper box manufacturer at Portland, against the Public Welfare Commission, was argued before the highest court here, and in either case will be appealed to the Supreme court of the United States.

A representative of Going & Harvey of Marshfield has been spending two weeks at Portland buying merchandise direct from the manufacturers, to eliminate middlemen's profits and reduce the high cost of living.

The Oregon Woodware Manufacturing company has an order for fifty car loads of butter tubs from the Swift Packing company.

The Made-in-Oregon movement received substantial encouragement when 1,500,000 brick were used in the Northwestern Bank building at Portland, 500,000 being the cream pressed fare brick.

Prairie City has a new flouring mill operated by electricity grinding thirty barrels a day, besides feed.

Amity people voted down a city water works proposition recently, but the matter is to be brought up in a more practical way.

Central Point is considering a water system with a pump system forcing 400 gallons per minute through the mains.

W. L. Chappell of Oakville will establish an up-to-date creamery at Medford.

The board of education is planning to add a first class gymnasium and swimming tank to the Marshfield high school.

The Farmers Manufacturing and Supply company of Haddon are taking steps to establish a cheese factory.

A fifty room annex to the St. Francis hotel at Albany is being completed.

The Eugene Fruit Growers Association is extending contracts for larger storage of vegetables for the rainy season.

Springfield planing mills are enlarging the box manufacturing department to employ about twenty more hands.

Pythian Lodge of Aurora is to erect a two-story brick block, 190x100, to cost $15,000.

Tidewater mill at Florence has been reconstructed, and is preparing to saw $100,000 worth of logs this spring.

St. Helens Crosscutting company is filling large orders of treated piling and ties for Manila and India.

A $20,000 central heating plant has been installed by the First National bank of Dallas.

Plans for a $20,000 high school for the Fulton Park district, Portland, are to be ready by the middle of March.

The German Turnverein of Portland is completing a big club house and gymnasium at a cost of about $80,000.

Growers in the vicinity of Sherwood received more than $150,000 for their hops recently.

A new cannery erected at Salem by Hunt Brothers of San Francisco, will give employment to 250 persons during the season.

In their big fight for a pure water supply Pendleton people will next vote on a $10,000 bond issue.

Work has begun on the first section of the Pacific highway from Medford to Central Point—concrete, with a granitoid surface.

HOGS STILL HOLD OWN IN MARKETS

Big Shipments Received at the Union Stockyards, But Despite This, the Price Advanced 10 Cents in First Two Days—Butcher Cattle Short

United Press Service

PORTLAND, Feb. 23.—Saturday closed a big week on this market, particularly the first half.

Offerings of butcher cattle, cows, heifers, etc., were extremely short of trade needs compared with steer consignments. The best quality of grain fed bullocks sold at $7.50 to $8, and cows at $6.25 and $7. Bull trade was slow, but calves ruled firm.

After Monday receipts were not as heavy as expected.

Hogs were the real sensation of the period, as they opened up on Monday at $8.65 and got to $8.75 by Wednesday, in the face of a deluge. The bulge was not a spasm, either, as it maintained a firm front right up to the close of the week.

Buying of swine was spirited and competition among the killers to get stock of any weight so long as it had a smooth finish produced a real live market.

Lamb transactions carried off the honors in the sheep house. Several lots of medium grade ewes went over the scales, and a bunch of yearlings at $6 comprised the bulk of mutton sales.

The best grain lambs sold at $6.75, the first shorn stock of the season arriving this week.

Summary—Cattle market steady to firm, hogs strong, sheep and lambs steady to firm, with an upward tendency.

Newest "Bakst Minaret"

The above is a copy of the "Bakst Minaret" costume seen in the play, "The Minaret," at the Theater Renaissance, Paris, introduced in this country by Miss Helen Bond of New York city.

It consists of trousers and bodice made of a Persian flowered satin, with minaret skirt of a dull blue chiffon, which is edged by a band of gold fringe, while the bodice has shoulder straps and trimmings of the same.

A turban of the Persian blue chiffon is worn, caught in front by a serpent's head, and held to the head by two or three strings of gold beads, which hang below the chin.

To complete the costume and emphasize its oriental air, a pair of pointed Persian slippers are worn, made of a tarnished gold and silver material.

"T'WAS EVER THUS"

Mrs. Kicker—"Did you ever see such rotten electric service as we have in Klamath Falls? Why, I have the awfullest time with my ironing—just beats anything I ever saw."

Mrs. Wise—"Why, I haven't found it so. In fact, I find the service here fully as good as in the large cities."

Mrs. Kicker—"Well, I consider it abnormal. I just can't get my iron to heat up right."

Mrs. Wise—"Have you told the company about it? They would be glad to fix any trouble."

Mrs. Kicker—"Er-em—, n-o; don't say anything to the company. You see, I'm using a second-hand iron that I got real cheap, and—er—, they might think that had something to do with it. Besides, they don't know I have an iron."

Mrs. Wise (smiling knowingly)—"Oh, yes; (to herself) "I thought it must be something like that."

Summons

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Klamath County.
Emma R. Grigsby, Plaintiff, vs.
Frank Irish, Defendant.

To Frank Irish, the above named defendant:

In the name of the state of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before Saturday, the 7th day of March, 1914, that being the last day of the time prescribed in the order for publication of this summons, and if you fail so to appear and answer, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint, to wit: For a judgment against the said defendant, Frank Irish, for the sum of $500, together with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from January 8, 1912, and for the further sum of $57.08 paid out for taxes on said premises, with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from December 13, 1913, and for the further sum of $100 at attorney's fees for instituting this suit, and for the costs and disbursements herein; that the said sum of $57.08, with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from December 13, 1913, be declared to be an additional lien on said premises in favor of plaintiff and against defendant; that the usual decree be made for the sale of the lands and premises described in plaintiff's mortgage; that is to say: West half of northwest quarter of section thirty-five, and the east half of the southeast quarter of section nineteen, and the east half of the northeast quarter of section thirty, all in township thirty-eight south, range ten east of Willamette meridian, in Oregon.

That the said sale be made by the sheriff of Klamath county, Oregon, in manner provided by law. That the proceeds of said sale be applied in the payment of said judgment, interest, costs and attorney's fees and all accruing costs. That plaintiff have execution against the defendant for any balance that may remain due the plaintiff after applying all the proceeds of said sale as above provided. That the defendant and all persons claiming under him subsequent to the execution of plaintiff's said mortgage upon said lands and premises, either as purchasers, incumbrancers or otherwise may be barred and foreclosed of all right, claim or equity of redemption in and to said lands and premises and every part thereof. That plaintiff have such other and further relief as to the court may seem just and equitable.

This summons is served by publication thereof in the Evening Herald, a daily newspaper of general circulation published in Klamath county, Oregon, by order of Honorable Henry L. Benson, judge of the above entitled court, made, dated and filed in said suit at Klamath Falls, Oregon, on the 24th day of January, 1914, which said order requires that summons in said suit be published once a week for a period of six consecutive weeks, from the 24th day of January, 1914, the date of the first publication of summons prescribed in said order.

ROLLO GROESBECK,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

NOSE AND HEAD STOPPED UP FROM COLD OR CATARRH OPEN AT ONCE

My Cleansing, Healing Balm Instantly Clears Nose, Head and Throat—Stops Nasty Catarrhal Discharges. Dull Headache Goes.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm."

Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the Nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will disappear.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear. (Paid Advertisement)
