

CITY TO ASSIST IN ADVERTISING KLAMATH FALLS

MONEY WILL BE GIVEN THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

In View of the Necessity of Giving Wide Publicity to This Rich Region Prior to the Panama-Pacific Exposition...

The first gun in the publicity campaign to be waged by the Klamath county in keeping before the public...

A motion by Councilman Savidge that the city donate $200 to the chamber of commerce was adopted.

On this committee Mayor Nicholas named Councilmen Matthews, Savidge and Townsend.

Walton also stated that the chamber of commerce expects an appropriation from the county.

"Klamath county is going to fall down hard unless an attractive exhibit is arranged for the fair," said Councilman Rogers.

"We ought to make a start right now toward booklets," said Savidge.

"The chamber of Commerce is composed of men the city can be proud of," said Savidge.

YOLO CITIZENS OBJECT TO ARMY WISHED ON THEM

UNEMPLOYED ACCUSED OF POST OFFICE LOOTING

With Leaders in Jail, Unemployed Armies Are Reorganizing—Complaints Are Coming From Some Companies That They Are Not Being Fed as Well as Other Portions of the Army—Situation Peculiar

United Press Service. YOLOMIS, Calif., March 10.—Thirty men, believed to be members of the scattered unemployed army, early today dynamited the postoffice safe, and escaped with $700 in coin and stamps.

United Press Service. SACRAMENTO, March 10.—Pinned between an ocean of overflow water on one side and an army of 300 civilian officers with guns and clubs, and fire engines, the army of the unemployed is held at bay this afternoon in Yolo county.

Yolo people are indignant at the embargo being maintained to prevent re-invasion of Sacramento.

In the meantime, Sacramentoans are feeding scant rations to the men. The situation is not critical until the Yoloites decide what they will do.

Fear is expressed that if the men starve they will become desperate, and attack homes in Broderick.

The latest report is that the Thorne faction or I. W. W.'s, which deserted "General" Kelly's ranks, is anxious to amalgamate with it again.

Reorganization by subaltern officers is probable today as a result of the jailing of the leaders, who will not be released until the army leaves this section.

The men are protesting that some companies have enough to eat, while men in the other companies receive only a fourth of a loaf of bread and a little coffee.

Four or five hundred men are scattered through the countryside. They are causing terror to the housewives by their demands for food.

Want Underwood or Stahlman as Manager

By W. L. Dahl

With the assurance of Klamath Falls' baseball team in the Northern California-Southern Oregon league, the great question of a manager for the team is one that must be settled in the very near future.

There are two men—and probably more—in Klamath Falls who can take hold of the proposition and make it a financial success. These two are C. H. Underwood and Al Stahlman.

Both are experienced ball players and both know every dip, curve and angle in the great national game. If either can be induced to take charge
