DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teaspoon full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus driving a cold from the system.
Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB BACKACHE AND LUMBAGO RIGHT OUT

Rub Pain and Stiffness away with a small bottle of old honest St. Jacobs Oil
When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a 25 cent bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right into the pain or ache, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.
Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the ache and pain right out of your back and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.
Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica and lame back misery so promptly!

Gotham Beats Woolliest West

Old Hold-up Days Not in It With the Gangster War

Pitched Battles With Police and Private Settlements of Scores Are Common Occurrences

By CARLTON TRN EYCK (Written for the United Press)

NEW YORK, March 17—This town happens to be New York, the metropolis of the Western Hemisphere, the second largest city in the world, supposedly a center of art, learning, society, culture and wealth, but one would have a hard time convincing Alkali Ike, Piate Pete, Cheyenne Charlie and others of the frontier gentry that a recital of the nightly doings in this man's town were the chronicles of civilization.
The other night a big black touring car dashed at breakneck speed down Eighth avenue among the 130's. In it were two young girls, an dthey stood up in the swaying car, yelling for help.
"For God's sake, rescue us," a passer-by heard one of the girls say. A policeman on "peg post" heard the screams, and stood in the middle of the street, signaling with his white gauntleted hand for the chauffeur to stop. The wig-wag of the policeman's hand usually stops automobiles. But it did not stop this one. The chauffeur swerved his on-rushing car in an endeavor to run down the minion of the law. His murderous onslaught was so nearly effective that the policeman was hurled into an iron pillar and seriously hurt, but he managed to fire a shot at the fleeing automobile in a vain effort to puncture a tire.
Another policeman a block away heard the shot, and planted himself in the street to intercept the piratical black automobile with its passengers. The chauffeur tried to run him down too, but the policeman leaped aside and managed to get a foothold on the footboard of the racing car. A sharp swerve that all but sent the flying vehicle into the curb, shook off the policeman and sent him sprawling. He managed to fire two shots at the car, but missed.
Commandeering a taxicab, the second policeman set off in pursuit of the black automobile, firing six or eight shots at its tires. Other policemen, hearing the hubbub, turned out and tried to head off the automobile. The car, though, distanced all pursuers, dodged all bullets, and disappeared into the night. All this happened in the heart of New York's residential district before 9 o'clock at night. The unidentified girls, doubtless white slave victims, were completely swallowed up.
The gunmen of New York are no less picturesque in their carrying-on. "Dopey Benny" Fein, head of the East Side band of brigands, shot a policeman. He was arrested and put on trial before a jury of unidentified men.
To induce citizens to serve on the gangster jury, it was necessary to assure them their names would never be known to the friends of the defendant.
So wide has spread the terror of the gunmen that men refused to qualify for the jury until reassured that their names would never be known to any but the deputy sheriffs who drew and summoned them.
"Dopey Benny" did not know the name of one of his "peers" who found him guilty and sent him to Sing Sing for twenty-one years on the double charge of assault and of violating the Sullivan law which prohibits citizens from having deadly weapons in their possession.
Immediately on learning of "Dopey Benny's" conviction, his gangsters set about their campaign of reprisal. A rival gunman was shot to death the very same night in a Bowery saloon known as "The Tub of Blood." The place was invaded while three women
