Six Million at Issue
in Strange Old Claims

United Press Service
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 26.— Six million dollars is at issue in twenty-six claims now being considered here by an international tribunal on arbitration. The commission, tucked away in an obscure building, is slowly grinding away at its work.
Many of the claims are hoary with antiquity and replete with interest.
Most important is that made by Great Britain in behalf of the Cayuga Indians, resident in Canada. It is claimed that the ancestors of these aborigines were prior to the war of 1812 deprived of their rights which they had in a perpetual annuity of $2,300, which the state of New York agreed to pay for lands ceded to it by the Cayuga nation.
The petitions held that since 1809 only American Cayugas have been paid the annuity. The amount claimed with interest amounts to nearly $1,000,000.
Among the American claims there is one by the heirs of William Webster, who, they claim, purchased land in New Zealand from native chiefs about 70 years ago. Great Britain grabbed the property. It amounts to $170,000.
A similar amount is involved in a like claim by one Studer, for concessions given him by the Sultan of Jahore, and which he was later deprived of.
The United States is represented in claims for the seizure by Canadian officials of American fishing vessels, and Great Britain in a counter claim for vessels seized in Behring Sea by the United States.
Great Britain is also pressing claims for cutting of the oceanic cables at Cienfuegos, Cuba, in 1898, and in Manila Bay during the Spanish American war.
The tribunal to pass on the claims includes Hon. Fromageot of France, Hon. Chandler P. Anderson, formerly councillor of the American department of State; Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, chief justice of Canada.

Claude E. Maxwell, known as "Doc" and "Max" to nearly every resident of Klamath Falls, has severed his connection with the Star Drug company, to accept the position of circulation manager of the Evening Herald. Mr. Maxwell today assumed charge of the subscription end of the publication.
Maxwell has been dealing with the public in Klamath Falls for several years past, and he needs no card of introduction to the public.
The lumbermen of Maine in 1900 originated in this country the use of mountain lookout towers with telephone connections for the prompt location and suppression of forest fires.
A California firm is selling escalypus most of the California grown escalypus trees do not make good timber, uses for other products of the tree are being sought.

IF HAIR IS TURNING
GRAY, USE SAGE TEA

HERE'S GRANDMOTHER'S RECIPE TO DARKEN AND BEAUTIFY FADED HAIR.
That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur.
Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just an application or two of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.
Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use.
This can always be depended upon to bring the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.
Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.
