

To Men Who Love Their Wives

A SPECIAL INVITATION

DO YOU REMEMBER HOW CAREFUL YOU WERE OF YOUR PERSONAL APPEARANCE IN THOSE GLORIOUS DAYS WHEN YOU WERE COURTING THE MISSUS?

—HOW YOU PAID HER THE DELIGHTFUL COMPLIMENT OF ALWAYS LOOKING YOUR BEST WHEN YOU CAME INTO HER PRESENCE?

You wouldn't think of taking her out then if you had on a seedy, out-of-date suit. You wanted her to be able to show the world that "her man" was strictly up to the minute—a genuine live wire, for whom only the best tailoring was good enough.

You're just as good a man today as you were then—and the Missus is every bit as entitled to the respect you used to pay her. It isn't fair, boys, just because the Little Woman at Home has Mrs. before her name to drop all those little attentions and homages of the courting days. If you want her to keep young—don't slouch around looking like a premature grandpa. Show her that you are still a Live One by keeping up with the styles.

What's that? The Missus says "Ish-ka-Bibble" so long as she gets her own Easter Bonnet and Harem Skirt? Tut, tut, fellows—Can that ancient calumny. It isn't true. She's as proud of your looks as she ever was.

Just try sprucing up this Spring in a real rejuvenating Royal Tailored-to-order Spring Suit.

She'll be proud of you—Have your Easter Suit Royal Tailored—Let us have your order now—today. Come in and select one of those snappy, sprightly woollens from the half thousand foreign and domestic gems the Royal Tailors have on display—at Southern Oregon's Largest, Livest Men's Store—

Friday evening the high school faculty and Seniors will be entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Faught.

At a meeting this afternoon the Seniors, Juniors and Sophomores raised a sum sufficient to pay the indebtedness occasioned by the Freshman reception.

The final prize luncheon will not be given until after Easter. This will be the deciding affair between Miss Lucille Waldron and Miss Helen Zumpfe.

The Seniors taking part in the annual class play are letter perfect in the first act, and fairly familiar with the second and third acts. They will hold a rehearsal tonight in the auditorium, under the direction of Miss Applegate.

Manager Hales has arranged a game with Merrill, to be played a week from next Saturday. He is now trying to get the Asbland high baseball team to come over for a game. Some of the sweet co-eds hope Shinn will be on the team.

"To Sing, or not to Sing" is the question with Louis McClure.

"Bill" Hurn has ordered a dozen Wright & Ditson tennis balls, which he will present to the high school tennis club.

LOTS OF SUCKERS RUN IN STREAMS

INDIANS FIND THE LOST RIVER MULLET A DESIRABLE SPECIES —OTHER NEWS FROM THE RESERVATION

(Herald Special Service) KLAMATH AGENCY, March 26.—Suckers are now running by hundreds and minnows by the thousands in the Williamson River. The suckers are the Lost River variety, also known as the mullet, Williamson River being stocked with them through Captain O. C. Applegate. This variety is popular with the Indians as a food fish, and Captain Applegate will be asked to plant more.

Edwin Wilson went to Klamath Marsh a few days ago to attend to his stock.

Garfield Jack, a well known Indian, made a visit to Klamath Falls and returned to his ranch on the big Klamath Marsh this week.

Clayton Kirk has returned from Kirk, where he took the remains of Mrs. Stanley Pedro for burial.

The Canadian Forestry Association, which recently met in Ottawa, has selected Halifax, Nova Scotia, for its next annual meeting place.

Today's news today in The Herald.

Mascot of Athletics' Training Camp

Connie Mack has a mascot the like of whom has never before been seen in baseball, and his players, in training in Florida for the coming season, think if he is carried about with them over the circuit this year he may be the cause of landing the pennant and the world's championship for the club. This is Emory Litmas, a wealthy man of Philadelphia, who thinks he will be able to play baseball if he can gain speed. At this time he weighs only 450 pounds, and it is melting off so fast that he has hopes.

When the Athletics hid themselves to the warmer climate of Florida for their training, Mr. Litmas went with them. Connie Mack could not lend him a suit which would fit, so he had to have one made by a tailor. In the photograph he is shown taking his turn at the bat. After being permitted to knock out a two-bagger by a kind pitcher Litmas went on his way to first. He says it is necessary for him to knock a two-bagger to make first, and even then it must be a long one.

LAST NIGHT'S BILL PLEASSED

CLAMAN PLAYERS BRING OUT BOTH COMEDY AND PATHOS IN LINE—MCCUTCHEON'S NOVEL IS BILL TONIGHT

The Claman gave a splendid performance of "When We Were Twenty-One" at the opera house last night. The entire company covered themselves with glory in this most interesting of plays. Mr. Howland gave a masterly performance of Richard Carewe, a man who thinks himself too old to marry at 40, and Miss Miller was exceptionally clever as the young girl who makes him see that love can make us all young.

Miss Williamson was responsible for many laughs as the elderly lady

For several seasons Mr. Litmas has followed the team to the training camp and has faithfully gone through the routine of hard work. In the past he has failed to make the weight Connie Mack requires for his players. This year he may continue with the team as a mascot, because for that position there is no weight limit.

with a penchant for reading other people's letters, and Mr. Seiden and Mr. Raymond were two jolly chaps who hated to grow old.

Harry Lancaster made the "Imp" a lovable fellow, in spite of his desire to be considered a sport. "The Firefly" was played with great charm by Miss Dorothy Mitchell.

"Beverly of Graustark" is the bill for tonight, and judging by the sale of reserved seats, the house will be packed. This play is one requiring special wardrobe and scenery, all of which the Claman Players carry with them.

The preparation of Chinese egg products for export is understood to have been begun a number of years ago by a Chinese firm no longer in existence, which established ten or more factories in China. There are now about twenty factories engaged in this industry, chiefly in the vicinity of Hankow, Chinkland and Nanking. The export, however, is largely through the port of Shanghai.

It may be mentioned that the Western method of vaccination for smallpox was introduced into Afghanistan about twelve years ago by Miss Lillian Hamilton, who up to 1903 held an appointment at Kabul for three years as medical adviser to the Amir's harem. Since vaccination was thus introduced conditions as regards smallpox have not been nearly so bad as before.
