Grand Duke of Russia Banished for the Love of an American?

The Grand Duke, who is young, is believed to have fallen in love with Princess Belosselsky, a beautiful American, who has been a great favorite at the Court of St. Petersburg.
She was Miss Susan Whittier, daughter of the late General Whittier of Boston. There has been no hint that the grand duke's affection was reciprocated. He has simply been persistent, and the report that the czar had picked him out as the husband for one of his own daughters, becomes interesting considering these developments. The grand duke has gone to Cairo. He must remain there or somewhere else away from the court for four months.

Fireproof Clothes
Are Latest Novelty

United Press Service
HIBBING, Minn., April 8.—Martha Panlan, shoemaker and inventor of a fireproof suit and helmet, is today considering accepting an offer from a moving picture concern to give a demonstration of his invention which has been successfully tried out a number of times.
If Panlan accepts the offer of the moving picture company, he will wear his outfit into a real blaze and probably will be made the hero of a thriller woven around his invention.
The suit is for the use of firemen carrying the nozzle of a fire hose.
The suit is for the use of firemen
two layers of asbestos and canvas, between which water is circulated by means of a tube which connects with the nozzle of the hose. The outlets for the water are at the hands.
Another tube connected with the nozzle, operates a fan which circulates air through the helmet.

Thousands Live Underground.
During a debate on high rents in the Italian chamber of deputies, De-puto Colajanni, the noted socialist, stated that the misery in Rome is frightful. With only 750,000 population Rome has as many outcasts as London. It is estimated that 100,000 have no homes and that 60,000 live in underground and windowless hovels. Heavy taxes have stopped building in Rome.
Belgar Queen to Visit United States.
Accompanied by an extensive suite, Queen Eleonora of Bulgaria will visit the United States next May. It is hoped by the trip she will be able to counteract antagonism to Bulgaria growing out of the Balkan war and that she will also be able to study social and economical problems.
Brookhaven, L. I., asserts that it is the richest township in the world. In its three banks farmers have $16,- 000,000 on deposit. The per capita wealth of the residents, counting men, women and children, is $1500.
