DRINK HOT TEA
FOR A BAD COOLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Tee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teaspoon full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus driving a cold from the system.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB BACKACHE AND LUMBAGO RIGHT OUT

Rub Pain and Stiffness away with a small bottle of old honest St. Jacobs Oil

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a 25 cent bottle of old, honest "St.
Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right into the pain or ache, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.
Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the ache and pain right out of your back and ends the misery.
It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.
Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica and lame back misery so promptly!

Mrs. Benjamin Harrison and Daughter Going to Europe

Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, widow of the Indiana statesman who was president from 1888 to 1892, and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Harrison, will spend the summer in Europe, sailing April 29th. Though their home is in Indianapolis, Mrs. Harrison spent the winter in New York, to be near her daughter, who was in school in Connecticut. For several days the two have been visiting Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. Kühn in Washington, and they have been entertained extensively.

ONLY HALF THE
VOTERS BOOKED

REGISTRATION FOR THE PRIMAR-IES AND GENERAL ELECTION IS SMALLER THAN IT WAS LAST ELECTION

Although the county has an estimated voting strength of between four and five thousand, nearly 50 per cent of this number have yet to register. This means that they are not eligible to ballot at the primaries next month unless they locate to the county clerk's office.

Registration to date is 2,153. In 1913 the total registration was 2,441, and at that time the women were not eligible to vote.

The registration to date is divided as follows by precincts:

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Editor Herald:

I was reading in your paper for Thursday last that Robert Pettus, who has been in jail for some time awaiting the action of the grand jury, charged with stealing two horses, was brought before the prosecuting attorney and by him ordered released after he had promised to leave the state, never to return.

After reading that the following questions bobbed up in my mind:

If the prosecuting attorney believed Pettus guilty, why did he turn him loose?

If not, then why did he banish him from the state?

What do we keep court and grand juries for if the district attorney can take cases out of their hands and dispose of them as he sees fit?

Why do we maintain legislatures to frame laws, if these laws can be set aside by prosecuting attorneys?

I have no doubt that many more of your readers are pondering over some such questions after reading that piece of news, and I hope the prosecuting attorney will enlighten us all by answering those questions and stating authority for his action.

Parisian Fashions
to Demand Taffeta

We are to have a taffeta season, not the stiff taffeta of our grandmother's days however, but a pliable taffeta that lends itself beautifully to the ruffles, tunics and draperies of the present day modes.

The one-piece costume and jacket suit so nearly resemble each other this season that it is often hard to distinguish them, due largely to the fact that many of the jackets with their kimona sleeves are made similar to bodies in front, and in back give the appearance of being part of the tunic skirt.

The costume in the sketch is one of the advance models, made of dark blue taffeta, with trimmings of black flowered moire. The skirt proper is extremely narrow, the opening in front being filled in with plaited chiffon.
The waist line is high, and the jacket is finished with a black moire gridle to correspond with the revers and Medici collar.
