OLD-TIME COLD CURE
DRINK HOT TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Brewer Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teaspoon full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking up a cold.
Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB RHEUMATISM FROM STIFF, ACHING JOINTS

Rub Serranus from joints and muscles with a small trial bottle of old St. Jacobs Oil

Stop "doing" Rheumatism.
It's pain only; not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil" right on the "tender spot," and by the time you say Jack Robinson—out comes the rheumatic pain. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless rheumatism cure which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache, neuralgia.
Limber up! Get a 25-cent bottle of old-time, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" from any drug store, and in a moment you'll be free from pains, aches and stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheumatism away.

Major League Baseball Season Starts Today

Some American League Leaders

Top—Jake Stahl, Boston; Clark terrill, Washington; Connie Mack, Philadelphia; Hughie Jennings, Detroit.

Swinging away from the winter's snow
And the slanting rays of the sun, We're entering now the land of delight,
The land of the hit and run.

A fresh smile comes to the old world's face,
The days of our longing are done,
As we walk in the fields of wallowing night,
The fields of the hit and run.

There base hits sing their sweetest lays,
There meshes of errors are spun;
In this land we're entering from the night,
The land of the hit and run.

By HAL SHERIDAN
(Written for the United Press)

NEW YORK, April 14.—The coronation of King Swat was the chief business before the country today.

Although an annual ceremony, the same old thrill was on hand when in eight different cities the baseball season was formally opened and the National and American League teams were sent away in the pennant races.

In the American League the world's champion Athletics opened their first battle of the year with Frank Chance's rejuvenated Yankees in New York. The Cleveland Naps clashed with the White Sox at Chicago, the St. Louis Browns and Detroit Tigers opened in Detroit, and Clark Griffith led his Washington team against the Red Sox in Boston.

The National League swung into its race with the Giants at Philadelphia, the Chicago Cubs hurling themselves upon the Reds at Cincinnati, Pittsburg at St. Louis and Boston and Brooklyn clashing at Ebbets Field across the bridge.

The cracking of the baseball lid comes after one of the wildest sessions of the Winter League in history, during which a club president was unhorsed, three new managers installed in the National League, and both factions of organized baseball shaken to their foundations by the onrushing Federals, who staged their first game of the season yesterday.

Although the training season was marked by the injury of players on several teams, every manager pronounced himself fit and ready for the fray today. Everything points to the same ultimate result in the pennant races as that of last year—a sweep through the American League by the Athletics, the winning of another National League pennant by McGraw, and the climax in the struggle for the world's title between these two great machines.

The great Mack forces present the same front as last year, with the youngsters better seasoned and therefore more to be relied upon. McGraw goes into the fray with practically his same force, but if anything strengthened.
By the acquisition of Bescher he has added speed to his outfield, and in Mathewson, Marquard, Tesreau and Demaree he presents the same first line of pitching power with several youngsters in reserve.
One of the teams expected to attract great attention during the National League race is the Boston Braves. After showing vast improvement last year, Boston is further strengthened for this season by John-

Trio of National League Managers
