Roman Meal
THE OLDEST AND
THE NEWEST OF
BREAKFAST FOODS

The Oldest, because it was the Principal diet of the Romans in the days when Rome ruled the World.

The Newest, because of a recent discovery of an Appetizing addition that in no way detracts from health-giving properties of the original.

NOW it is delicious to the palate and amazingly nourishing to the body.

TWO LEAVE FOR FROZEN NORTH

FRANK SARGENT AND MARTIN LAVENIK ARE FIRST KLAMATHITES TO START FOR ALASKA IN ADVANCE OF RAILROAD

The first lap on their journey to Alaska was begun Sunday morning, when Frank Sargent and Martin Lavenik, accompanied by Miss Lulu Sargent, left Klamath Falls in Judge W. S.
Worden's car, bound for San Francisco.
Miss Sargent and Mrs. Worden will return here in the car after Mrs.
Worden completes her stay in California.

Sargent and Lavenik will go by boat from San Francisco to Seattle, and will there outfit themselves for the trip to Juneau, Alaska, where Mr.
Sargent, who has been in that part of the country before, has a valuable mining claim. Both young men are well known in this city, and their many friends confidently expect them to "make a killing" in the gold fields of the far North.

Just as they were leaving Sunday morning they asked the Herald to extend goodbys to the friends they could not see, and to assure them they would return in a year or so laden with gold nuggets.

Old Fashioned Girl Newly Fashioned

The old-fashioned girl was so fashionable in her day that every season some of the modes come back to fashion. This season she is at her best in a three-cornered hat of yd old soldierly days, pomponed and tilted to a slant that would have sent her to the ducking stool some centuries back. The quaint little long-shouldered jacket and the flower-brocaded silk may have found their inspiration among the lavender and rose leaves of great grandmother's attic trunk.

The flare and the frill and the fullness of the taffeta and the brocade give the widened hip line that fashion insists on today. Plain and flowered crepe would make a very pretty summer suit in this design.
