President Wilson Orders Six Troops of Cavalry From Wyoming Garrison to Go in and Settle Strike—At the Same Time He Asks the Strikers and Others to Lay Down Their Arms

United Press Service WASHINGTON, D. C., April 28.—Following a lengthy conference with Secretary of War Garrison, President Wilson today ordered six troops of cavalry stationed at Fort Russell to proceed at once to the Colorado strike zone and restore order.

Simultaneously the president telegraphed to Colorado for immediate publication a proclamation calling upon everybody to lay down their arms and repair to their homes.

In effect, the proclamation is the reading of the riot act by the federal government. The cavalry is sent to enforce it.

United Press Service TRINIDAD, Colo., April 28.—Armed clashes between the militiamen and mine guards with the striking coal miners have been reported from a half dozen Colorado towns. Seven mine guards were killed in a battle late yesterday, in which the strikers captured the McNally mine near Walsenburg.

Soon to Turn Water On

Ditches Are Being Cleaned for Irrigation Season

Employees of the reclamation service are engaged in cleaning out the various canals and ditches, preparatory to the beginning of the irrigation season. Thursday evening the water will be turned into the main canal, so the following day it will be available for irrigating the farms under the project. This year a total of 34,150 acres will be irrigated by Uncle Sam. Of this, 27,000 acres are in the first unit. For the first time the lands under the second unit, or Poe Valley unit, will be watered this year. There are about 6,500 acres under this unit, and water is to be furnished under the place by the militia was uncalled for. The people are terror stricken. The battle which started last night at the Hecla mine near Louisville is progressing today, but the telephone wires have been cut, and it is impossible to obtain details. It is known, however, that 200 miners attacked the stockade which was being guarded by Sheriff Butler and a force of mine guards. The train crews coming from there say that the streets of Louisville are being swept by a heavy fire. Fighting is also progressing at the Vulcan mine at Lafayette, and at the Marshall Gosham mines.

United Press Service SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—The California state railroad commission was expected to pass soon on an application of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal railway to increase the bonded indebtedness of the concern from approximately $20,000,000, the present authorized debt, to $35,000,000. If the commission approves the proposed bond issue, the corporation will retire all its underlying obligations. The new bonds will be known as "first and refunding 35-year 5 per cent gold bonds," and will be secured by deed of trust, mortgage of all or such portion of the property as may be necessary.

PIRATES ATTACK BRITISH STATION AND SLAY MANY

CHIEF OFFICER MISSING AFTER THE FIGHT

At Least Two Hundred Were Killed or Drowned During the Battle, Say the Reports From Asiatic Waters. Mongolian Pirates Outnumbered Officers, and They Attacked and Destroyed the Station.

United Press Service HONGKONG, April 28.—Two hundred native passengers were slain or drowned in a fight which followed an attack on a British steamship station near Macao.

The pirates attacked and burned the station, overpowering the officers who fought vainly to protect the native passengers housed in the station. After the battle was over it was discovered that Chief Officer Evans was missing. The other officers and about 150 natives escaped. The pirates, who made a furious attack on the station, outnumbered the station officers many times, and rush the place from so many points that it was impossible to stand them off.

CLAIMS WIRELESS KILLS THE BIRDS

HUMANE OFFICER APPEALS TO GOVERNMENT FOR THE PROTECTION OF PELICANS ENDANGERED BY WIRELESS STATION

United Press Service SAN DIEGO, Calif., April 28.—Humane Officer Muters today sent a formal appeal to the government to make its big wireless station at Point Loma stop killing pelicans.

Pelicans used to be thick in San Diego harbor. Now there are only a few of them. Muters is sure the powerful radio waves which the station sends out do the mischief. He says he has seen scores of birds suddenly stricken in mid air fall dead into the water. The waves might be toned down, he thinks, so as to do less damage.

TURN WATER INTO ANKENY DITCH ON FIRST OF MONTH

GOVERNMENT CREW IS CLEANING WATERWAY

Several Tentative Abatement Plans Have Been Suggested, Among Them The Furnishing of City Water to the Owners of Water Rights Under the Ankeny Ditch, But Nothing Definite Has Been Done.

Friday morning water will be turned into the Ankeny ditch, the waterway through the city which for years has been a menace to the health of Klamath Falls, and for the abatement of which there have been suggested a myriad of plans. Workmen are engaged in cleaning out the ditch.

There have been several schemes advanced during the past year for the closing of the ditch, but so far none of them have accomplished anything. In the meantime the irrigation season is with us again, and the reclamation service is obliged to furnish irrigation to those holding water rights under this ditch.

"We are still negotiating for the closing of the ditch, and don't intend to let up on the fight until it is conclusively shown that it is hopeless," said Project Manager J. G. Camp of the reclamation service today. "Pending that time, though, we must furnish water to those entitled to it."

The latest solution offered for the closing of the ditch is the closing of the canal and the furnishing of city water to those using water from the ditch. Those in favor of this plan say that the cost would be very slight, as the city water mains are already on the property affected.

SAY PUBLICITY AT PRESENT MAY SPOIL THE PLAN

BOTH MEXICANS AND AMERICANS CHEER FUNSTON

Transports Laden With Troops Go to Inner Harbor—Aeroplane Circles the Bay—Mediators Said to Be Watching the Smaller Factional Chiefs in Mexico as Possible Leaders of the Masses

United Press Service WASHINGTON, D. C., April 28.—"We can only say that we are hopeful. Publicity at this time might spoil all," say the mediators.

"The sky seems to be clearing. In the meantime we are getting our people to safety," said Secretary Bryan. This is the situation at present. Each side has agreed to accept mediation, and the mediators are awaiting proposals.

Following this comes the reconciling of questions that are apparently irreconcilable. If a strong man is developed in Mexico, mediation may succeed. It is admitted that Huerta, Villa and Carranza are to be eliminated, yet none can command the support of the people unless he has been partisan.

For this reason the mediators are watching the lesser factional leaders in the hopes that one of them may succeed.

It is learned that America is to be magnanimous, but Wilson insists on the elimination of Huerta, and the guarantee of an actual constitutional government. It is hardly probable that he will press demands of indemnity for the death of the marines at Vera Cruz.

The mediators expect that Huerta will eliminate himself. If he refuses

Will Change the Streets

Names Suggested by Matthews Go Before Council

The changing of names of Klamath Falls streets was the text of a resolution introduced at last night's meeting of the council by Councilman Matthews. It was tabled for further consideration.

The object of the resolution is to prevent a repetition of names in different parts of the city, and the continuing of streets under the one name, instead of making frequent changes and jogs from their straight route. The changes recommended follow:

Nichols addition—Canal street to Washington street; Bush street to Jefferson street; Franklin street to Grant street; Washington street to Lincoln street; Jefferson street to McKinley street; Teddy street to Roosevelt street.

Mills addition—Front street to Owens street.

Buena Vista addition—Alameda street to Brown street; Shaasta street to Front street; Park street to Hawkins street.

Fairview addition—White avenue to Oregon avenue; Ingo street to Fulton street; Fulton from Upham street to Doty street; San Juan and Arch street to Donald street; Mitchell street to Mt. Whitney street.
