VERA CRUZ, May 18 .- Victoriana Huerta will quit the presidency of Mexico provided the United States will make a loan of $100,000,000 to Mexico, lease Magdalena Bay as a naval base for $00,000,000, and bar Carranes from the presidency.

Reliable Mexico City information states that Huerta forwarded these instructions to his envoys at Ningara

Huerta also wants some voice in the naming of his successor.

It is understood that Huerta's plans contemplate the expenditure of the $400,000,000 in the upbuilding of the nation. This is to be done under the supervision of a commission composed of two Americans, two Mexicans and a representative each from England. France and Germany
