Bodies of Seventeen Dead of the Mexican War Brought Home on Montana

The Montana, escorted by the dreadnought Wyoming and the Mayflower, brought to the United States the bodies of the seventeen dead of the Mexican war. These marines and jacksies were killed in the first assault on Vera Cruz under Captain Bash of Admiral Fletcher's fleet. They arrived at New York Sunday, May 10, New York turned out by the hundreds of thousands to honor them when the bodies were removed from the ship.

Two Courses: Huerta Quits or Is Ousted

By BERNARD RUCKER
(Written for the United Press)
VERA CRUZ, May 4.—(By mail)— With the occupation of Vera Cruz complete and the town turned over to Brigadier General Funston, one of two alternatives confronts American forces there. Either Huerta will agree to get out and the troops will supervise a constitutional national election that will choose a president of Mexico satisfactory to the administration at Washington, or the American army will proceed to Mexico City and force Huerta out, putting in his place some man acceptable to president Wilson.

The elimination of Huerta and whatever is the real object of the second taking of Vera Cruz and whatever happens, this port will be held indefinitely by the United States, as the base of such operations as may be necessary to bring the Republic of Mexico into a state that can be approved by the Washington government.
That is why no part of the navy proceeded to Tampico when the conquest of Vera Cruz was completed. It had been supposed that the United States intended to blockade all Mexican ports and eliminate Huerta by cutting off his supplies and revenue.
But Huerta is to be eliminated by a much quicker process. Either he will agree to get out at once and mediate through Argentine, Brazil

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood, and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy.
When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.
Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.
Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure, and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia water drink.

MOTORCYCLISTS
ORGANIZE CLUB

TWENTY-FIVE JOIN AT THE
FIRST MEETING—SCHEDULING OF TRIPS AND PROMOTING OF
SPORT, OBJECTS

The owners of motorcycles in Klamath Falls and vicinity met at the Eschler Motor Cycle shop Saturday night, and organized the Klamath Falls Motorcycle Club.

The officers are A. E. Hoyt, president, L. E. Becker vice president, G.
H. Ashley secretary and treasurer, C.
J. Coon captain, Chester Linckebach first lieutenant and J. P. Gibson second lieutenant.

The object of the organization is to promote the sport of motorcycling, make schedules for pleasure trips over the country, and look after the interests of the owners of motorcycles generally.

Twenty-five members were enrolled at the meeting. Steps were taken to affiliate with the National Federation of American Motorcyclists, membership in which protects one against theft of machine.

After organizing the members were taken to Coon's Electrical store and treated to a buffet luncheon. The members are enthusiastic over the new club, and have pledged themselves to accompany the baseball team on all its trips over the country.
