Eastern and Western Invasions in the Big Leagues May Upset Some Standings--Federal Players More Than Lambaste the Ball

By HAL SHERIDAN

NEW YORK, May 21—By the time we are ankle, knee or waist deep in June there may be several things which have gone unanswered in May that may be beginning to show signs of solution. The National League teams are more or less up to their necks in their first Western invasion, while the American League forces of the West are trailing over the sodden fields of the East.

Up to and including this point West has met West and East, East, but when the inter-sectional clashes stampede along a real size-up of the situation begins to shape itself into a sort of form that permits the dopesters to use up yards of paper in figuring, and then find in October that their figures were worth just about as much as the paper they scribbled on.

Insofar as National League matters are concerned, Manager McGraw expects to return to the Polo Grounds in June looking much better, penantly speaking, than he did when he started his Western trip. When McGraw hit Pittsburg, the Pirates had won fifteen games and lost 4, which indicates considerable ball playing.

Clark's crew, however, had been toasting with the late lamented Chicago Cubs, St. Louis and Cincinnati. McGraw had had the scrapping Phillips, Wilbur Robinson's Brooklyn Dodgers and Boston to argue with. Now the tables have been switched. If they keep the bit in their teeth and continue their dash over the prostrate forms of the Eastern teams during this session as they did over the Western half of the circuit, it will be a long, hard chase before they are caught.

McGraw has Matthewson, Tesreau and Demaree, the "Big Four," lined for this Western tour, and expects to deliver. He figures on the Pirates getting on the receiving end of several hard, solid wallops before they are through with the Eastern bunch.

It is, so far as any one is able to figure out, largely a matter of Clark's pitchers continuing to come through. McQuillen, the come-back, has borne the brunt of the pastime of standing opposing batsmen on their heads so far. Lorking in the background Clarke has Bob Harmon, too, who has shown but little during the early period. When the sun begins to boil down, however, and Harmon loosens up, he should be a big help.

Harmon has been guilty of pitching some rattling games, and with the support the Pirates assure a boxman, to say nothing of some effective sticking on the side, the ex-Cardinals may yet come along with Mowry and Kenoy, and live down the fact that he played in St. Louis.

With Detroit still setting the pace for the American League as this switch in the line of battle occurred, Jennings also faced a stiffer fight to keep to the fore. Instead of the St. Louis Browns, White Sox and Cleveland Naps, the Tigers have had nothing to worry about except the wild and untamed Yanks of Frank Chance, Walter Johnson, Boohling, the Boston Braves and a team in Philadelphia, known as the Athletics.

That's all they have had to fear during their first Eastern trip in the tunnel to keep in the lead. If Walter Johnson doesn't kill some of the batters, maybe the Mackians artillery will also spare a fielder or two, and Jennings will get back to Detroit and the West in the same spot, with the other teams holding the balance in the percentage column.

When Connie Mack decides to land marines, however, occupy first place and declare martial law, it will take sniping from the entire league to dislodge him. If Jennings is able to jump in and cop the customs house during the firing, then it may be another story, but that is on ahead, and why swim a river when the troops will soon be along with pontoon bridges.

Those Feds are the sluggish sluggers in captivity. Organized baseball magnates say it looks like they have great batting only because the pitching is so poor, but whatever the reason may be, they have sure done some slugging.

In 125 games the Fed teams have driven out 48 home runs, and enough doubles and three-baggers for 458 extra bases. They nalled out a total of 1,121 base hits.

The National League in 126 games drove out 299 hits, good for 317 extra bases, and including 24 home run swats.

The American League trails in this swatting comparison, having driven out only 1,064 hits in 140 games. For this stretch Ban Johnson's outfit slammed for 110 extra bases, including 12 home runs in the collection of knocks.

Summons
Equity No. 577
In the circuit court of the state of Oregon, for the county of Klamath.

Richard Melhase, Plaintiff,

R. C. Spink (also known as Robert C. Spink), A. L. Spink (also known as Alice L. Spink), and M. L. Mayers, Trustee; and P. Lowengart, M. Seller and Sanford Lowengart, Defendants.

To M. L. Mayers, Trustee, Defendant above named:

In the name of the state of Oregon, you are hereby required to answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled action, on or before the 6th day of June, 1914, that being the day of the last publication of this summons, and the last day within which you are required to answer, as fixed by the order of publication of this summons.

If you fail to appear and answer, plaintiff will take judgment and decree against you as prayed in his complaint.

This suit is brought to foreclose the mortgage given by the defendants, R. C. Spink (also known as Robert C. Spink) and A. L. Spink (also known as Alice L. Spink), to Richard Melhase, plaintiff, on April 23, 1911, to secure the payment of the two promissory notes of said defendants, dated on said April 23, 1911, for sixteen hundred and sixty-six and sixty-seven one-hundredths dollars, each, due one and two years after said date, respectively, with interest at 8 per cent per annum from date, and providing for reasonable attorney's fees, and upon the following described real estate in Klamath county, Oregon, to-wit:

Beginning at the south-westerly corner of lot two (2) in block eighteen (18) in the city of Klamath Falls, Oregon, formerly Linkville, thence northerly along the line of lots two (2) and seven (7), two hundred forty (240) feet to Pine street; thence easterly along the southerly line of Pine street twenty-five (25) feet; thence southerly and parallel to the westerly line of lots two (2) and seven (7) two hundred forty (240) feet to the northerly line of Main street; thence westerly along the northerly line of Main street twenty-five (25) feet to the place of beginning, in the city of Klamath Falls, formerly Linkville, Oregon, above described premises fronting and abutting on Main street 25 feet and Pine street 25 feet.

And to have declared junior, inferior and subsequent to plaintiff's said mortgage the mortgage made, executed and delivered to you by said defendants, Robert C. and Alice L. Spink, on April 29, 1913, upon the same premises as those covered by plaintiff's mortgage as above set forth, and to have your mortgage lien and all right, title and interest which you, or any of said defendants, may have in the mortgaged premises barred and foreclosed, except the right to redeem as provided by law. No personal judgment is demanded against you in said complaint.

This summons is published once a week, for six consecutive weeks, in the Evening Herald, a daily newspaper of general circulation, printed and published in the city of Klamath Falls, Klamath county, Oregon, by order of Honorable Henry L. Benson, judge of the circuit court of the state of Oregon, for the county of Klamath, and dated April 24, 1914, the first publication of this summons being made on the 25th day of April, 1914.
