LOCAL DOCTORS GIVEN CONTRACT

HAMILTON AND MORROW HAVE CONTRACT FOR CARE OF MEN ON ALASKAN RAILROAD—SELL OUT EQUIPMENT

Drs. R. R. Hamilton and E. V. Morrow have just secured the contract from the government for the care of the 5,000 or more men to be employed on the federal railroad construction in Alaska. Upon receipt of word to that effect from Dr. Morrow Tuesday, Dr. Hamilton disposed of the firm's fixtures, apparatus, etc., to Drs. Cathey and Johnson, who are here from Portland, seeking to locate, and who are high in their profession.

Dr. Morrow, who has been in the north for several weeks, will return in a short time, to assist Dr. Hamilton in winding up the firm's business. They expect to go into Seward in July, and will at once erect a hospital there, in order to properly care for the injured.

At Florence, Italy, the Federation of Tuscan Women has organized an association of "Parents of Pupils of the Public Schools." The association will demand useful reforms. Italian parents often interfere with the schools and uphold their children against the teachers. This has always been a drawback.

WILLIS GIVEN A SECOND VERDICT

LOCAL FURNITURE CONCERN IS AGAIN GIVEN A JUDGMENT AGAINST FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY

For the second time a Lake county jury in the circuit court has awarded the Willis Furniture company a judgment against the Horticultural Fire Relief Association. This time, the jury was out fifteen minutes.

This action is the result of a fire which destroyed the Lakeview store of the company. Following it the insurance concern accused Willis Sr. of perjury, and he was tried and acquitted.

The furniture concern then brought suit for the insurance, and were awarded the verdict. An appeal was taken to the supreme court, which remanded the case for retrial, which was just held.

Announcement is made in London of the engagement of Lady Scott, widow of Captain Robert E. Scott, Arctic explorer, to Sir James R. Barrie, the playwright. Captain Scott perished in a South Pole expedition. Barrie's first wife was Miss Marie Ansell, the actress, from whom he was divorced in 1910.

General Villa's Cavalrymen in Action

This photograph shows General Pancho Villa, the constitutionalist field leader, and his cavalry. With supply trains, etc., the troops are now on their way to Queretaro, the northern key to Mexico City. It is expected that the federal troops will make one more stand against the rebels there before retreating to the defense of Mexico City itself against the invasion by the northerners.

SAY WITNESS TOLD UNTRUTH ON STAND

AL CARRINGTON, WHO TESTIFIED IN BEEBE VS. HOYT TRIAL NOW COMING HERE IN CHARGE OF THE SHERIFF

Charged with perjury during his testimony in the trial of the Beebe vs. Hoyt litigation, Al Carrington was arrested at Woodland, Calif., and is being brought here by Sheriff C. C. Low. The complaining witness is James Werlow, who operates a sawmill on Bryant mountain.

The alleged perjury is said to have occurred in Carrington's testimony over some lands close to Bryant mountain and in Poe Valley, the hearing being heard before Charles F. Stone as referee.

H. BANTA BOUND TO GRAND JURY

WIFE TESTIFIES, ACCUSING HUSBAND OF REVOLVING PRACTICE—BANTA WAIVES PRELIMINARY HEARING

Harry Banta, the Pine Flat rancher held on a sodomy charge, preferred by his wife, was today bound over to the grand jury. His bond was placed at $1,500.

Mrs. Banta, a little woman with four children, all under 5 years, testified as to the unnatural crime of her husband. She stated that the oldest child awoke when he heard her cries, and thinking its mother was being killed, it cried until Banta struck it. Banta waived the hearing.

With her four little children, Mrs. Banta is practically destitute.

BARRISTERS VS. NEWSPAPER MEN

DEFT HAS BEEN HURLED, AND GAME WILL IN ALL PROBABILITY BE PLAYED A WEEK FROM SUNDAY.

Lawyers vs. Newsmongers.

This will be the mainline program at Modoc Park Sunday, June 7th, if the talk made today by members of both professions carries any real weight. The methods used by newspaper men in chronicling court occurrences have not always been approved by the attorneys, and on the other hand the scribes have at times felt that they were getting a little the worst of it from the lawyers—so with these old grudges to be settled, there ought to be pep galore injected into the game.

For the past two years the attorneys—or some of them, anyhow—have given out the impression that their mail is flooded eternally with letters from Messrs. McGillicuddy, McGraw, Callahan, Evers, Chance, et al, urging them to accept five figure checks for a few months' play on the big circuit. While this may have scared out the medical men, it has failed utterly to put the fear of the law into the hearts of the journalistic contingent, and they have asked a game.

There are some men in both professions who have played fast ball in the past, and the general impression is that the score will be much less than those run up in billiard tournaments. In case there is a regular game Sunday, the inter-profession combat may be staged as a preliminary.

GUNMEN FIRE ON RED CROSS

HIRED THUGS OF MINE COMPANIES SHOW LESS PRINCIPLE THAN IS EXPECTED OF THE MOST DEGRADED

NEW YORK, May 27.—Mrs. Pearl Jolly, Red Cross nurse, and leader of the fight for protection of the women and children of Colorado's stricken mining district, and Mrs. Mary Thomas, one of the survivors of the Ludlow massacre, appeared today before the Federal Industrial Relations Commission.

In her testimony Mrs. Jolly emphatically denied that the miners were heavily armed. She also testified that she was frequently fired upon by the hired gunmen of the mining companies while wearing the Red Cross uniform, and was once wounded.

GETS MORE GOOD BIRD LIFE FILM

EDUCATIONAL FILM COMPANY CAMERA MEN GET HERONS FROM THE TIME THEY BEGIN BREAKING THE SHELL

"During the last couple of days we have secured another thousand feet of bird life film," said Managing Director E. A. Salisbury of the Educational Film company, this morning, after his return from work in the Lower Klamath Lake bird preserve.

"One of the pictures we secured shows the hatching out of the blue heron from the time the little fellow begins to stir in his shell until he fully emerges from it. Mr. Hutt secured in this one of the best nature pictures that has ever been secured."

The members of the party and Game Warden J. J. Furber will go to the Clear Lake preserve tomorrow to take pictures of the pelicans, cormorants and other birds nesting there, after which they will resume their work on Lower Klamath Lake.

To Canyon City.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Cosad, Miss Verda Cosad and Miss Lois Myers left this morning in the Cosad auto for Canyon City, where the Cosads will visit friends. Miss Myers will go on to Portland. She has been connected with the local schools for the past three terms, but this year declined the position tendered her by the board.

BULLMOOSE TALK IS KEPT SECRET

PROGRESSIVE LEADERS REFUSE TO DIVULGE THEIR CONVERSATION TOPICS AT LAST NIGHT'S LONG SESSION

Special Times Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 27.—What was discussed at the meeting of Colonel Roosevelt and other progressive leaders last night has not been fully revealed, although some of the progressive admit that the questions of the progressive presidential candidate nor the amalgamation of the party with the old line republicans was not among the topics of conversation.

It is said that Roosevelt approved the efforts of the progressive leaders during his absence, and complimented the legislative program.

Representative Kelly of Pennsylvania admitted that Senator Clapp made an exhaustive report to the bull moose leader, and it is also said that he referred to himself and Senator Poindexter as being the only progressives in the senate.

Murdock also made a detailed report to Roosevelt.

Shepherd Piano Depot delivered a very fine Behring grand piano Tuesday to Miss Ruby Van Brimmer at Merrill. This, with other sales made Monday afternoon, totaled $1,400 business for the day.
