PERSONAL FORTUNE AND NEW HIGHWAY ERA
FRUITS OF A POOR YOUNG MAN'S BIG IDEA

Personal fortune for the inventor and a new paving era are the fruits of a lifetime devoted by Frank R.
Dunn of Coos Bay, O., to the perfection of a simple little process of shaping paving brick so that projections keep a uniform interstice for the grout filler and so engage it that the pavement becomes a perfect monolith.

Through Dunn's invention, finely ground shale or clay is mixed with water into a stiff mud, which is forced through a die forming a continuous column. The column in traveling over the cutter plates is sliced into brick by common plane wire, guided by slots in the steel plates.

In 1910 two and a half million of these wire-cutting bricks were produced. The 1914 output will exceed 100,000,000. The entire output of plants now equipped for the new process exceeds a half billion and more will be all of the new type.
Dunn's story is the typical struggle of a poor boy with a big idea. He

Some Sidelights From Vera Cruz

Interesting Little Tales of Incidents and Conditions at the Mexican Port Where the American Flag Is Waving

By WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

VERA CRUZ, May 28.—W. W.

Canada, the American consul at Vera Cruz, whom Representative Mondell bitterly attacked in Congress on April

27th for sending alarming reports about the situation of Americans in Mexico, is an Indiana politician.

During his sixteen year stay in Vera

Cruz he has absorbed something of the Mexican idea of officialdom and he has for many years been something of a ruler in the American colony in the city. There was never any gentleness about his rule, either; whenever he had any thing to say to Americans he sent the information out in the form of orders.

"All Americans must positively leave Vera Cruz at once—W. W. Canada," was a notice which he posted up about the streets of the city recently when he thought that the city might soon be crowded by refugees.

"Anybody who criticises President

Huerta in this office will be immediately removed," is another sign he once posted in the consulate.

When he was criticised for this on the grounds that it was a sign which might be seen in the office of any Mexican official, he changed the sign to include criticism of President Wilson.

"Mondell went after Bryan harder than he went after me," said Consul Canada, after he had read an American paper containing a report of Mondell's criticism. "You know somebody's always been after me, all my life.

"I was elected a judge in my own town three days before I was 21 years old and I've held political jobs ever since then. Somebody's always been trying to get me, but I've always had little majorities in my favor. You know, back in Indiana, when I was a boy, I discovered that you always find the most clubs under the trees that have the best fruit, and a lot of clubs have been thrown at me."

About the first words the bootblacks of Vera Cruz learned from Americans were swear words. It is the custom of the little fellows to interrupt the conversations of plaza diners by offering their services or wares and not to depart until the diners order them to go, with the word, "Vamoos."

When the soldiers came the pestilential little chaps very soon picked up the phrase, "Get the hell out of here," and, within a few days, when a customer tried to tell them, in recent phrases, that they were not wanted, the boys, in departing, would say, "Get the hell out of here!" evidently thinking it meant "goodbye."

"All right" was the phrase they picked up next.

"Maryland, My Maryland," of all the tunes which the American military bands played in the plaza, soon became the most popular among Mexicans. Mexico has its song crazes, just as the United States has, and, at the time of the American invasion,

Vera Cruz, Mexico City and other Mexican metropolises were mad about two new pieces, "Marietta" and "Beraphina."

In Vera Cruz, however, "Maryland, My Maryland" soon took the place in popularity of the other two hits.

Small boys whistled it; it was played on pianos in private houses and Mexican orchestra leaders borrowed copies of it from the American band-men to reproduce with pen and ink for their players.

It is no uncommon sight now to see half a dozen orchestra men gathered around a pen and ink copy of "Maryland, My Maryland," all playing from the same sheet, and all playing well, to the delight of their hearers.

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG,
DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use the Old-Time Sage Tea and Sulphur and Nobody Will Know

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young!
Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly.
You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.
