near McMinnville from Shipley and Scarff.

The double transaction was finished in short order, less than two days being taken up in the consummation of both.

Thursday Mr. Shipley and Mr. Scarff were taken into the Bly country by R. E. Smith, and shown 1,500 acres of land, which they are considering buying for other parties near McMinnville.

This morning the Klamath county investors left for their former home, to make arrangements for bringing their families here.

The fourth or military section will march in reverse order to the bridge over Link River just as soon as the formation can be completed, as early as 9:30, if possible, perform there the prescribed rites to the nation's defenders who have died at sea, and its return will be the signal for the general march to the cemetery. Marshal W. A. Delzell will be in charge of the fourth section.

The military band will play as it chooses during the formation on Main street and on the march; play a dirge on the arrival at the cemetery; play an appropriate number during the return formation, and on arrival on Main street at place of first formation play a piece which will be the signal for the conclusion of the parade. The usual picnic dinner in the park from 12 to 2:30 will be served.

Commencing at 2:30 in the afternoon the following program will be rendered in the court house square, the band playing a selection to announce its beginning.

BIG BALL GAME CARD SUNDAY

SICAN INDIANS AND LOCAL TEAM WILL HAVE A CLOSE CONTEST,
ACCORDING TO ALL AVAILABLE DOPE

The baseball game Sunday afternoon at Modoc Park between the Sican Indians and the Klamath Falls team will undoubtedly be a better game in every respect than the exhibition staged a week ago.

The Sican boys have been constantly practicing since early in April, using the same line-up on every occasion, and are well up on team work. Reports from places where they have played this year leaves no room for doubt as to their having a good team.

The Klamath Falls team has been practicing regularly, and will surprise some of the local fans who are under the impression that our boys got away lucky in their recent games. Arnold will be taken on as a hurler for the rest of the season, his place in right field going to Harry Thrasher. Thrasher will also keep in training as a catcher, so that he can don the big mitt should anything happen to Ambrose.

Thrasher will add strength to the team in a batting way, as he is a demon with the willow.

The boys are all getting their eye on the pill, and not many amateur teams have anything on 'em when it comes to stick work.

TO FILM BIRDS AT CLEAR LAKE

NOTED ORNITHOLOGIST WILL ACCOMPANY THE EDUCATIONAL FILM MAKERS ON THEIR TRIP TOMORROW

To secure films of the pelicans, the glossy ibis, blue necked stilt and other birds nesting at Clear Lake, Director Salisbury and Camera Man Hunt of the Educational Film company, and Warden J. J. Furber leave tomorrow for that section. They will spend several weeks there, and in addition to carrying a big load of supplies in their big auto-truck, the party has its motor boat on an especially constructed truck, which is pulled by the auto.

William L. Finley, former state game warden, and one of the West's foremost ornithologists, will be in this evening from Portland, with some attaches of the biological survey. They will go to Clear Lake with the picture men and remain a week. Several years ago Finley made a study of Lower Klamath Lake bird life, and his lectures and pictures had a big influence in creating of sentiment against the slaughter of birds for their plumage.

Here From Bly.
Tom Garrett, a prominent rancher from the Bly country, is in the city today attending to business affairs. It is rumored that Tom will return to Bly in a new automobile.
