MAY RUN SPECIAL TO GAME AT WEED

IF ENOUGH OF THE FANS SHOW
A WILLINGNESS, A SPECIAL
COACH AND RATE WILL BE GIV-EN BY THE RAILROAD

Many fans and fannettes are planning on making the trip to Weed next Sunday, when the classy Klamath Falls baseball team goes over to teach the Weed boys a few points about the national pastime. It is likely enough will go to justify Mr. Bailey the agent here, in sending a special coach for the occasion.

If those planning on going would notify Mr. Bailey or Manager Duhl before Wednesday night, it would give the agent time to order a car for the excursion. The round trip fare will be $4.66, and the fans would have an opportunity to witness the class of ball the local boys are capable of playing when pitted against a real team.

Besides, it would be a big boost for the return excursion coming here from Weed on the 3-4-5 of July.

The city of Tacoma, Wash., has entered into a co-operative agreement with the forest service for the protection of the source of its water supply, the watershed of the Green River, which lies within the Ranier national forest. The two agencies working together will protect this stream from the results of forest destruction by fire or by other agencies.

Ramsby at Hatchery.

Beauty Among the Peace Mediators

E. Rabasa, one of General Huerta's daughters. Each of these young women, is a beautiful type of the Mexican at the best. They have added much interest to the gathering at the Clifton hotel.

Edna Ferber, writing a new Jock McChesney advertising story in the June American Magazine, represents Jock as making the following comment:

"These days it isn't so much what you've got in you that counts as what you can bring out. I know the young man's slogan used to be 'Work and wait,' or something pretty like that. But these days they've boiled it down to one word—'Produce'!"

Students of the Oregon Agricultural College are working at the forest nursery on the Siuslaw forest. The arrangement is said to be mutually satisfactory since the students gain experience in forest nursery practice, and their assistance lowers the cost of nursery work.

Manufacturers have found that red alder from the Pacific Coast is a suitable material for clothespins. Alder makes a white, smooth, springy pin. As a result of this fact, a clothespin factory, said to be the first on the Pacific Coast, may be established at Portland.

homes that had been assigned them.

There was no formality in the reception given the Klamath Falls people, but the genuine cordiality with which they were met made every member of the party feel at home. The hospitality of Lakeview was accepted in the spirit in which it was so evident that it was offered, and it would have been impossible to crowd more pleasure into twenty hours than the party spent there.

A general reception was given in the evening at the club rooms. At 8:30 all gathered in the big dancing hall, where talks were made by Exalted Ruler J. J. Parker and Past Exalted Ruler E. B. Hall and Chas. J. Ferguson. The Lakeview club has about fifty members, the larger portion belonging to Klamath Falls Lodge, while the others are members of Ashland, Reno and other lodges scattered all over the United States.

While many of the party went around town Saturday afternoon greeting old friends, others took advantage of the visit to make a trip down through the valley as far as New Pine Creek.

Only one accident marred the pleasure of the trip. About fifteen miles out of Bly on the trip over, Dr. Rambo's car struck a rock in the road and was thrown against a tree, breaking the front axle. Another car was sent out from Lakeview after the party and brought them in.

The members of the Klamath Falls party who made the trip were: Austin White and car, Chas. Mashburn, H. M. Ackley; Fred Houston and car, O. W. Robertson; O. M. Hector and W. O. Smith; Leslie Rogers and car, J. E. Dodge; E. B. Hall and Chas. Ferguson; Chas. J. Martin and car, J. J. Parker; C. H. Underwood, F. R. Olds and A. P. Salfsky; W. W. Baldwin and car, A. E. Kent; Will H. Bennett and P. B. Shibley; Harry Stilts and car, Mrs. Stilts; Chester Avery and Mrs. Avery; George Chastain and car, Chas. P. De Lap; Virgil De Lap and Carl Young; Erma Hosley and car, A. G. Lewis; Don Lytle and Mr. Wilson; R. E. Hunsaker and car, Alex Davis; Bert E. Withrow and W. W. Smith; Dr. Rambo and car, W. H. Shaw; Chas. Graves and Harold Peese; Dr. Cathay and car, M. J. McDonough and Tom Watters.
