AND STOP AT
KLAMATH FALLS

IS IT TO BE DROPPED?

It has only been a few weeks since a meeting was held in Medford with delegates from Klamath, Josephine and Jackson counties to boost natural attractions of Southern Oregon. As a meeting it was a great success. Flowery speeches were made telling of the great scenic wonders. But what good are such meetings unless some concerted action is taken afterwards?

If Crater Lake and other local scenic attractions were located in California, more than 100,000 people would visit there every year. Some action should be taken immediately to advertise these attractions, which will have its effect next year, as well as this.

The railroads have granted rates of one and one-third fare to Crater Lake and return in Idaho, Washington, Oregon and California. The Southern Pacific is doing good advertising for Southern Oregon. But some supplemental advertising of scenic attractions is also needed, one that will reach the general public.

The following plan is suggested as the most effective as well as the cheapest, to advertise in the Sunday issues in the newspapers having the largest circulation in Spokane, Tacoma, Seattle, Sacramento, San Francisco and Los Angeles. Special rates can be had for three months' advertising. Such advertising should begin by May 31 and continue to September 1. Approximately it would cost $350, or about $120 per month. Many of the business men have already signified their willingness to help with a few dollars' subscription for the three months' season.—Medford Mail-Tribune.

NOTICE

As I must arrange for the settlement of all accounts due me before leaving the city, I will make it an object to those who will save me the expense of calling on them with a collector, by settling their accounts at once.

Grandma Never Let
Her Hair Turn Gray

KEPT HER LOCKS DARK, THICK, GLOSSY, WITH SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so easily. Preparing this mixture at home, though, is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, and look years younger.

Pope Pius X. Is 79
Years of Age Today

United Press Service

ROME, June 2.—Pope Pius X was 79 years old today. From early yesterday until late today a veritable flood of congratulatory letters and telegrams from all over the civilized world poured into the Vatican.

Many hundreds came from missonaries and other representatives of the Catholic church who are in the wilds of countries uncivilized.

The good wishes to the pope came from all classes of people. The name of every ruler and head of every nation was among the list of messages.

But perhaps the messages most highly prized and those which more dearly touched the heart of the pontiff were those from his relatives and the lowly friends he had made as Gluseppe Sarzo, a poor boy, when he lived at Riese, Italy.

Scores of visitors, including high church dignitaries, called at the Vatican today to pay their respects.

Many cardinals who attended the recent consistory, at which thirteen new cardinals were awarded the red hat, the insignia of their high office, were among the visitors.

Bond Delay Not to Be Endured Longer

Believing that the bond house of R. M. Grant & Co. is resorting to dilatory tactics in paying the city for the $50,000 city hall bond issue, in order to get further time for selling the bonds, the city council last night gave the company until Saturday in which to accept the issue and forward the money, or return the bonds and the transcript of proceedings.

A wire will be sent to the bond house stating that if the money is not paid by that day the city treasurer has been instructed to withdraw the bonds.

In view of the delay the council voted to extend the city hall construction contract with Cofer Brothers another week.

POWELL GIVEN
BAR LICENSE

COCHRAN'S APPLICATION IS TURNED DOWN UPON MOTION OF DOTY—POWELL FORMERLY CONDUCTED A SALOON HERE

The Central saloon is to be conducted by Z. C. (Doc.) Powell, the city council last night granting him a license. Powell formerly conducted "The Smoke."

The petition of Dan Cochran for a license to conduct this bar, which was laid over at last week's meeting, was read again. Upon Doty's motion, seconded by Townsend, this was refused.

Matthews moved the issuance of a license to Powell, and this passed.

A new law is being initiated to prohibit anyone working over six days out of the seven. It is in charge of a committee of churches and labor unions.

CANT HOOK USED TO END QUARREL

SHIPPINGTON RESIDENT IS AR-RESTED UPON COMPLAINT OF J. H. ANGOVE, CHARGED WITH ASSAULT WITH WEAPON

Charged with striking J. H. Angove with a cant hook, John Bonnam was arrested Monday at Shippington. This morning he gave a bond for $250, with H. J. Lockwood and W. A. Leonard as sureties, for his appearance in the justice court on charge of assault with a dangerous weapon.

The trouble between the two men occurred Monday at Shippington.
Angove's face is badly bruised as a result of the new use found for the cant hook.

The Eugene creamery has been sold to the farmers' creamery association, and they propose to double the capacity of the plant.

NOSTRILS AND HEAD STOPPED UP FROM COLD? TRY MY CATARRH BALM

Instantly Clears Air Passages; You Breathe Freely, Nasty Discharge Stops; Head Colds and Dull Headache Vanish

Try "Ely's Cream Balm." Get a small bottle anyway. Just to try it—Apply a little in the Nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning, the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will disappear.
End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing.
Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.
