

Free Tolls Repeal Is Again a Live Issue

PHILIPPINES AND JAPS ARE MIXED INTO TOLLS FUSS

THESE ARE THE "DELICATE" QUESTIONS

In Conference With Congressman Jones Regarding the Latter's Filipino Independence Bill, President Tells Him There Are Several Neutralization Treaties to Be Made Before the Bill Is Introduced.

United Press Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 2.—There are indications that the "delicate foreign questions" whereto President Wilson alluded in his special message to congress, asking the repeal of the free tolls clause in the Panama canal bill referred partly to the Philippine policy of the administration.

This became known today, following a conference between President Wilson and Congressman William A. Jones of Virginia, who is to introduce the Filipino independence bill.

Wilson made it plain that before the Philippine independence measure is introduced, America must obtain the neutralization of the islands with the other world powers, including Japan.

Presidential Bees Buzz

Already, Several Men Talked From Three Parties

United Press Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 3.—Washington is beginning to speculate seriously over 1916 presidential possibilities. Incoming political bees from Indiana, New York, Idaho, Wisconsin, Iowa and Kansas are beginning to arouse the capital, which for weeks past has been honeycombed with possibilities of war.

That President Wilson, his health permitting, will be urged by many Democratic party leaders to accept a second nomination is conceded. That Colonel Roosevelt, fresh from his conquest in South America, will get his hat in the ring is considered a good bet. That former President

JUDD MAY COME TO THE RODEO

HOPE EXPERT MAY BE SIGNED FOR EXHIBITION WORK—MANY OTHER COWBOYS ARE WRITING TO ACORD

Johnny Judd, expert roper, who was an attraction at the first Elks' Rodeo, and who has done exhibition work at all of the big frontier shows and for vaudeville and motion picture companies, may be here again at the coming Rodeo. Art Acord is in correspondence with Judd, who is now in Wyoming, and his coming to do exhibition work depends largely upon whether he gets a contract at the Stockton show.

Judd, in addition to being a roper of the first order, is also a clever horseman. He made some brilliant rides here, and had worked himself into the finals, only to be thrown by "White Pelican." If that broncho could be found it is believed that this would be incentive enough to bring Judd here, as he wants to try it again, and prove he can ride "Pelican."

In case Judd does not come, it is possible that Pete Jones, now in Southern California, will be secured. Lee Caldwell of Pendleton is also looking for an engagement, and last, but not least, our own "Skeeter Bill" Robbins, now in California, is there and over when it comes to making the whirling lasso take on education.

Acord is receiving letters from cowboys in all parts of the West, who are interested in the coming show. It looks as though the riders, bulldoggers, etc., here for the big three days will be the pick of the country.

Huerta Announces Retirement

This Is Effective When the Country Is Peaceful

Mediators Say Matter Is Now Up to Carranza

United Press Service

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., June 2.—Huerta's representatives today announced to the mediation commission that Huerta is ready to retire when the country is politically pacified.

It is believed that this means that America must bring pressure to bear to cause Carranza to agree to an armistice, which will permit the holding of an election, and the reorganization of the Mexican government.

It was learned that by "pacified," Huerta means when peace is restored, the organized revolt ended, and the armies left the field.

The Huerta delegates state that Huerta will not step down and leave the matter to settlement by disorganized bands.

United Press Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 3.—Officials now believe that the question of peace again in Mexico is up to Carranza.

They think that the statement by Huerta has paved the way to a solution of the perplexing Mexican situation.

The administration is bringing pressure on the constitutionalists to accept the proposals of the mediators. The junta here is much excited, admitting that the recognition of Carranza by the mediators is the most favorable aspect.

United Press Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 3.—"There is no crisis in the mediation conference," President Wilson told callers today. He admits, though, that he feels prospects of further drawbacks at Niagara Falls, though they will not be serious.

"Mediation is progressing satisfactorily," said Bryan.

"There is still considerable media-about the Ypiranga, which started for Havana last night.

"We know that the Huerta family left Mexico City on a special train a week ago Saturday," said one. "We know also that Huerta left Wednesday. Both of these trains were guarded with soldiers."

These men stuck to their stories, despite the news dispatches indicating the presence of Huerta in the capital after Wednesday.

before going to the basement to end his life. Nothing in his manner when last seen indicated that he considered such a step.

So far as known, the affairs of the bank are in a satisfactory condition, and Luchsinger is rated as a millionaire.

TOLLS QUESTION UP TO SENATORS' VOTE THIS WEEK

NO OTHER BUSINESS CAN INTERFERE

Expected That Night Sessions Will Be Held to Rush Through the Measure. Set Speeches Closed Today—Simmons and Vardaman Take Opposite Views of This Question, the Latter Calling It "Un-American."

United Press Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 3.—The set speeches on the tolls repeal bill in the senate were closed today. F. M. Simmons of North Carolina, who acts as the mouthpiece of President Wilson on this measure, made his talk this morning.

James K. Vardaman, of Mississippi, took the opposite side, and bitterly assailed the bill, calling it "un-American," and claiming that it was nothing but a kow-tow to Britain and the British politicians.

At the conclusion of the speeches the pressure for a vote on the measure began, and Senator O'Gorman announced that the senate would not allow any other business to be taken up until a final vote was had.

Unless the vote is reached this week or early next week, it is possible that the senate will hold night sessions until the matter is settled.

Leaders in the senate are hoping the vote will be taken on Saturday.

United Press Service

TARRYTOWN, N. J., June 3.—Scores of armed constables are preparing to meet the expected Industrialist invasion in such a way that the peace and dignity of the town will not be disturbed. The roads leading into the city are being carefully guarded and watched. Fountain Square, the town's forum, has just been covered with fresh asphalt, and the president of the village has issued his ultimatum.

"There will be no free speech meeting," he said, "nor a meeting of any other kind in Fountain Square. If and such attempt is made, we will break it up, with clubs, if necessary."

Saxton on the Way Here

Incarcerated Man Has a Big Suit (for Damages)

That the thoughts of the seven months he was obliged to spend behind the bars of the Klamath county jail for nothing will always rankle deep in the heart of Eugene Saxton, is evidenced by the following letter received by the Herald:

"Eugene Saxton drove into Malin May 25, travelling over much of the same country he went over last year.

"He will later journey to Klamath Falls, to meet Fred Morley and other Klamath grafter who handed Saxton such a beautiful package last year.

"Saxton will be very ably assisted by three of the best attorneys on the Pacific Coast."

Saxton was arrested last July in Mineral, Idaho, by Fred Morley, charged with the forgeries of which the federal district court in Portland recently found Frank Caska of Malin guilty. He was held in the county jail for seven months before the matter was taken up before a grand jury, when he was exonerated and turned loose.

Since he has been released, Saxton, through District Attorney Fred W. Hooper of Siskiyou county, has commenced a damage suit against the First Trust and Savings bank, alleging malicious prosecution.
