American Women at Stockholm Convention

United Press Service
STOCKHOLM, June 10.—Women's proper place in life, in relation to the family, the church, the community, the nation and the world, will be thoroughly discussed at the fifth conference of the International Young Women's Christian Association, which opened for a week's session here today under the presidency of the Hon. Mrs. Montagu Waldengrave, of England.

It is the greatest world gathering of this organization since its foundation, twenty-two centuries being represented by 250 voting delegates and 200 visiting delegates.

Finland has sent the largest delegation, numbering 101, and Great Britain is next with sixty.

The delegates numbering twenty-three from the United States are headed by Miss Mabel Cratty, of New York, general secretary of the National Board of Young Women's Christian Associations in America, who will make one of the principal addresses of the conference on "The Christian Ideal for Women."

Other American delegates who are scheduled for speeches are Miss Louise Holquist, of New York, one of the national secretaries, and Miss A. M. Reynolds, also of New York, a member of the national board.

Among the leading foreign delegates are Froken Sohlberg, a member of the Finnish Parliament and a recognized authority on educational work, who will discuss "Women in National Life," Froken Anna Roos, president of the Swedish Young Women's Christian Association, a distinguished authoress and leader in the Scandinavian temperance movement.

Others will be Miles, Savary and Bruneton, of France, who jointly founded the "Cercle d'Amicitia," and Miss Una Saunders, general secretary of the Canadian council of the Young Women's Christian Association.

May Embarrass Royalty

When Colonel Roosevelt visits Madrid to witness the marriage of his son Kermit to Miss Willard, daughter of Ambassador Willard, he will cause the royal court much annoyance. He was the most-talked-of American officer during and immediately after the Spanish-American war, and the court will avoid giving him any more official recognition than possible.

The State Federation of Labor is interesting itself to have Oregon material used on the new state university buildings.

WOMAN CONGRESS IS HARD AT WORK

BIENNIAL SESSION WILL START TONIGHT WHEN MISS JANE ADDAMS MAKES THE FIRST OF THE LIST OF SET ADDRESSES

United Press Service

CHICAGO, June 10.—With Miss Jane Addams, noted social worker, speaking on "Women's Clubs and Public Policies," the twelfth biennial conference of the Federation of Women's Clubs is to be started formally tonight. Most of today was absorbed in gathering up the loose ends of the arrangements for the federation's sessions, which really gets down to business tomorrow.

The first business on the docket for Thursday is the reports of the various chairmen of special committees.

On Friday Mrs. Ella Plagg, superintendent of the Chicago public schools, will address the assembly on "Education in a Democracy." Most of the day is to be given over to educational topics, Mrs. O. Shepard Barnum of Alhambra, Calif., vocational training, social hygiene, political science and peace also will be discussed.

Helen Vardick Boswell of New York is to have charge of the general subject "Preparation for Citizenship." At the Friday evening session the Rev. Jenkin Lloyd Jones will speak on "Woman's Supreme Task—the Bringing of Peace."

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt will tell about "The World's Progress of Women."

Saturday is to be given over to art and literature, with visits to various libraries and art galleries.

In 1880 there were 104,565 Chinese in the United States. In 1910 they numbered 71,153. The Japanese, on the other hand, have increased. In 1890 there were 148 Japanese here, and in 1910 no fewer than 72,157.

Through one-day motor car service from Drain via Scottsburg to Coon Bay has been established.

Seaside has a quarter million dollar improvement started.

Brilliant Pageant to Be Held by Americans

LONDON, June 10.—Anglo-American society will take possession of the Royal Albert Hall tonight, for what is confidently predicted will be the most magnificent ball ever held in that famous building.

Having been arranged in connection with the celebration of the centenary of Anglo-American peace, the profits from all the ball will be devoted to carrying out the program drawn up by the Peace Centenary Committee.

The Duke and Duchess of Teck, Prince and Princess of Connaught and Mrs. Walter H. Page, wife of the United States ambassador, head the committee, which includes six duchesses, half a dozen marchionesses, twenty-five countesses and dozens of titled and untitled American and British society leaders.

In order to cover Anglo-American early history thoroughly, the costumes worn tonight will range from the days of Columbus to 1914, and many wonderful effects, which are being jealously guarded up to the last moment by the wearers and designers, will be seen.

The great organ has been disguised beyond recognition by being the framework for a replica of one of the caravels which flew Columbus's flag and from this ancient transport will descend Columbus and his companion adventurers to witness the various processions illustrating the development of America.

As much as $1,900 has been offered in vain for boxes, by late comers, while ordinary tickets were snapped up long ago at fancy prices.
