The following account of the Klamath County Institute of the Women's Christian Temperance Union held on Tuesday, at Grace M. E. church, has been communicated:

The W. C. T. U. Institute was held in Grace M. E. church Tuesday, June 9th. Mrs. Grigsby, county president, presided, J. B. Mason was musical director and Miss French pianist. The meeting opened with devotional exercises. Report of county convention held in Merrill, Miss Carleton. Mrs. F. E. Boyd, local president, gave a report of the year's work. It began the year in debt and now have funds on hand.

Piano solo, Miss French. "Recollections of Edith Hall Hooker," late president of Oregon W. C. T. U. Mrs. Hooker, in spite of frail health, conquered many difficulties. She was ordained minister in the Baptist church, and devoted her life to preaching the Gospel of Christ and W. C. T. U. work, influencing many to a better life. Miss Carleton asked that all give Mrs. Henrietta Brown, now state president, their loyal support.

J. B. Mason read an address made by Dr. R. C. Coffey. It stated that he had not for fifteen years given a drop of intoxicating liquor to any patient. "In Memory of Lillian M. N. Stevens," late national W. C. T. U. president. Mrs. Stevens, Maine's illustrious daughter, commenced her strenuous public life at the age of 54. She was Frances Willard's chosen successor, and devoted her life to the cause of temperance and prohibition. In her death the white ribbon army has lost a great leader.

"Medal Contests." Mrs. Rose Harbold. The medal contest work is the boy scout movement by which soldiers are prepared for the prohibition army. The contest teaches from A. B. C. to scientific prohibition, and helps to develop good public speakers.

Noontide prayer, led by Mrs. J. B. Mason. A delicious dinner was served at noon to forty-five persons. Mr. Upp made an interesting talk at noon on the plane of "Oregon Dry Club."

"What the W. C. T. U. should do" Rev. E. C. Richards. It was shown by the Illinois vote that women voted 34 per cent wet and 64 per cent dry. Men voted 69 per cent wet and 49 per cent dry. The indifferent or stay-at-home vote in Oregon, 1910, was 122,000. The W. C. T. U. would do well to work with the indifferent vote.

Superintendent Fred Peterson showed that at least $150,000 must be spent in the saloons of Klamath Falls in a year. The schools cost $25,000. Six times as much spent in saloons as to educate the children of Klamath Falls in the elementary schools. Yet some people think we must have saloons for the $10,000 license, employment to a few men, and trade brought to town. $3.50 on $1.00 would pay the license.

Mr. Yaden. "Effects of Whiskey on the Indians. Adulteration of Whiskey." There have been four Indian murders recently, the result of drinking. Whiskey has a demoralizing effect on the race. The pure Kentucky whiskey is adulterated.

"Sabbath Observance." Rev. J. S. Stubblefield. God commanded that man should keep the Sabbath for man's good. History shows there has been a lower standard of morals when the Sabbath has not been observed.

Solo by Miss Benson. A report of committee on resolutions of sympathy to Rev. and Mrs. Harlan.

The institute closed with W. C. T. U. benediction. We thank each one who assisted our President, Mrs. Grigsby, in making the institute a success.

Mrs. Levi McDonald and little daughter Joanna, returned to their Bonanza home today, after a pleasant two weeks spent in visiting relatives and friends.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. S. E. Martin entertained a few of her friends at her suburban home in Merrill. Mrs. Martin lives in Klamath Falls, and the trip was made in autos. The party was an informal one, and the machines were driven by Mrs. S. E. Martin, Mrs. Fred Schallock and Mrs. Chas. Martin. Bridge and croquet were played until the middle of the afternoon, when lunch was served on the lawn, and after partaking of the delicacies the ladies went on a sight-seeing tour through the valley. Among other places visited was the Adams ranch. Those in the party were the Mesdames Chas. J. and S. E. Martin, Miss Obenchain, C. J. Robertson, Fred Goeller, R. H. Anderson, R. E. Smith, John Parker, Fred Schallock, Bert Withrow, Lyle Mills, Earl Whitlock, Carl Cofer, Thos. Hampton, C. M. Ramsby and Erma Hosley.—Merrill Record.

Marking the close of a highly successful and instructive season's work, the Klamath Literary Club held its annual picnic Wednesday afternoon at Sandy Beach, on Upper Klamath Lake, which proved to be a highly enjoyable affair. The refreshments were all that could be desired in the way of a picnic luncheon, and Mrs. Camp and Mrs. Richards, in charge of the arrangements for "eats," were

Values His Punch at a Million Many Believe That Big Blonde Will Slip It Across

By HAL SHERIDAN (Written for the United Press)

NEW YORK, June 13.—One million big iron dollars—that is the value Frank Moran, the Pittsburg "white hope" places on a knockout punch in his coming bout with Jack Johnson in Paris. It is altogether probable that Moran's pretty blonde coiffure will be slightly mussed before he puts over that coveted sleep wallop, as the big will receive $5,000. In addition to this, both fighters will split the revenue from the moving picture privileges.

The bout is scheduled to go 20 rounds. Whether it will last that long depends altogether on "ze wallop." Time only will tell whether sickle Dame Fortune favors Moran or Johnson. Choice of referee now has dwindled down to seven men. They are Billy Roche, Charlie White, Ed Smith, Jim Griffin, Eugene Corri, Franz Reichel and Amiel Maitrot.

At the conclusion of a five weeks' vaudeville tour, Moran will leave for Paris, and will train for the fight at Maison Lafitte, another suburb.

SIKAN PLAYING PUZZLES REDS

INDIANS SAY KLAMATH FALLS CAN'T DO IT AGAIN—OTHER NEWS NOTES FROM THE RESERVATION

(Herald Special Service) KLAMATH AGENCY, June 13.—Surely there must have been something wrong, or the Sikan Indians would have made even a few runs off the Klamath Falls team, and would have kept the Klamath Falls team from running the tallies up to 20. That's a slaughter. There surely must have been something wrong, and we don't believe Klamath Falls can do it again.

George Isaacs was a Thursday visitor in Klamath Falls. Clayton Kirk made a trip to Klamath Marsh on government business.

It was pretty chilly last week and the first of this week, but it did not affect the grain. The grain is still growing, fine and fast, and we are looking for a big crop this year.

T. J. Jackson, John Lee Ball, Clayton Kirk and Dr. A. A. Soule made a quick trip to the Warm Springs reservation in the latter's auto recently, visiting the towns along the road. They say it was a cold ride, yet they enjoyed the trip very much.

Link River Beal was buried Sunday afternoon. He died at Klamath Falls. There were many friends attending the funeral, which was one of the largest held on the reservation.

The bad weather Sunday kept the baseball teams from playing their scheduled games.
