highly complimented. In athletics, Arthur D. Hay was a bright and shining light, as he won the married women's race from Mrs. Stubblefield, and also tied for first honors in the attorney's race with Bert C. Thomas. Entered as an Episcopal clergyman, Mr. Hay ran in the minister's race, in which Hay, Rev. Stubblefield and Rev. Richards hit the tape simultaneously. After the refreshments and the races, an election of officers was held, and the following were chosen: President, C. P. Stewart; vice president, J. G. Camp; secretary-treasurer, Miss Eola Hawkins; members of executive committee, Mrs. J. S. Stubblefield and Dr. Fred Westerfeld. In attendance were Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Lawyer-Printer Game in the Morning

Straw Vote Shows That Early Hour Is Favored

Much Interest Is Being Worked Up, and Scores May Be Kept Within Two Figures per Team

It has been settled—not by the umpire, but majority rule, that the much mooted baseball game between type, and then imprinting them on paper, is to be played tomorrow forenoon.

A ballot circulated among those interested, shows that the majority favors a forenoon game. Accordingly, the ropes will be cut at 10 o'clock and the battle will wage at Modoc Park.

Just how the teams will line up will not be settled until tomorrow morning. It is believed that both lineups will be shifted every inning, in order to give all a chance at starring. There are some real ball players in both camps, and the game promises to be fairly interesting to outsiders.

There seems to be real jealousy between Editors Smith and Evans as to their twirling ability. Evans wants Smith to catch and let him pitch, and Smith makes just the opposite offer to Evans. The ten-point aggregation is thinking of changing every inning. Willey will don the big mitt for the attorneys, and Elliott, Hay and Kent will try throwing. Judge Noland will be used as a pinch hitter. As near as can be figured out the representatives of the art preservative will line up as follows: Smith and Piel catchers, Evans and ular swim. The diving was done in the deepest part on the tank in a successful effort to recover two parts of a bracelet. The temperature of the water was just right Friday night, and everyone seemed to be having a dandy time. Quite a gathering of on-lookers watched the antics of the splashers from the side lines and the bleachers. In the water were Mrs. Mary A. Jackson, Miss Hazel Barnes, Miss Elsie Low, Miss Josie Low, Miss Pearl Wheeler, Miss Mary Schubert, Miss Alice Duncan, Miss Billie Leon-

The third of its series of dances will be given this evening in Moose hall by the Shirtwaist Club. These dances have proved to be highly enjoyable, and there is always a good attendance. Excellent music is furnished.

Salvation Army in a Great Procession

United Press Service LONDON, June 13.—A graphic and picturesque demonstration of the world-wide scope of the Salvation Army was given the people of London this afternoon.

With their national flags and organization banners flying, and to the music of sixty bands, the 2,100 foreign delegates to the decennial international congress of the army, representing fifty-eight different countries, accompanied by some 8,000 Salvationists from the British Isles, many of whom had made the journey to London especially for today's demonstration, paraded from the Thames embankment to Hyde Park, where a tremendous audience had gathered to hear speeches by General Booth and other high officers delivered from a dozen platforms.

At the head of the procession in the guise of captives marched two huge hollow gods of Java, each navigated from the inside by a native convert, the hideousness of the idol's features being accentuated by their rolling eyeballs and wagging tongues manipulated by their bearers.

Among the most picturesque contingents in line were groups of Zulus and Kafirs from South Africa, reformed devil-dancers, Dom girls, and representatives of various nations and tribes of India, Ceylon, the Dutch East Indies, China, Japan, India and South America, all attired in native dress.

The delegates from Holland, Switzerland, Denmark, Finland, Sweden, Norway, Italy, Belgium and Germany also wore the distinctive costumes of the country. Native airs were played en route by bands in their own tongues from many of the countries four bands, was led by Commissioner Eva Booth. Interspersed throughout the procession were a number of floats depicting native conditions in heathen countries and illustrating various phases of Salvation Army work.

Election Monday. Property owners in School District No. 1 will hold their annual election Monday, June 15. At this time the question of free text books in the schools will be submitted to the voters.
