

Are You Saving J. N. Green Trading Stamps?

"A penny saved is a penny gained," but J. N. Green Stamps saved is many, many dollars gained.

GOLDEN RULE THE PEOPLE'S STORE

Economy in this or any other day and age of the world is not to be scorned, yet there are people who refuse to "bother" (?) with J. N. Stamps. It's a wonder they don't say, "Keep the change"—it would be just as sensible—just as reasonable.

J. N. Stamps are given here with every purchase. It is your discount for CASH payments, as much so in our estimation as the following terms on a wholesale bill: "Ten per cent on receipt or net cash thirty days."

What would you think of a merchant that would take the good-old-time thirty days on an invoice of this kind? Not up-to-date—of course not. Then be up-to-date and ask for J. N. Stamps every place you trade—if not given to you, trade where they do give them.

You will find the stores that do give these stamps the BEST value-giving stores in every town or city.

The 5th Street Store of Los Angeles, Prager's of San Francisco, Olds-Wortman & King of Portland, The Golden Rule of Klamath Falls and thousands of other up-to-date stores throughout the United States are featuring J. N. Stamps.

The J. N. Premium Parlor located in first balcony of this store offers you more than a hundred reasons why you should ask for J. N. Green Trading Stamps.

that you won't find a choice selection here to choose from, and in no instance will you find the price more than at other stores---usually less.

We're anxious to show you the new merchandise and explain our plan of merchandising for cash.

Young Prince of Wales Will Be a Millionaire

United Press Service

LONDON, June 16.—The Prince of Wales will be 20 years old on Tuesday, June 23, and a year later he will become the richest heir apparent in Europe, with the possible exception of the czar's son—and he is still unengaged. When he reaches his majority and comes into full control of the revenues from real estate and invested funds which are now being administered in trust for him, young Edward will have an annual income of more than $1,000,000. A large part of this will be from the Duchy of Cornwall, which was settled upon him at the time of his father's accession. Under the thrifty administration of Lord Revelstoke the rental of this estate has increased since Prince Edward's death from 100,000 a year to $180,000, and the accumulated revenues that will be turned over to his royal highness next year will be in the neighborhood of $2,500,000. In addition to this, most of the annual allowance of $250,000 granted the prince when George took the throne (to be increased to $350,000 when he reaches his majority) has been saved and carefully invested.

Frugal Queen Mary has seen to it that young Wales should spend not a cent more than sufficient to maintain his position with the proper dignity.

There are many undergraduates at Oxford whose expenditures far exceed that of the heir to the throne. The limit set by Queen Mary is said to have been $10,000 a year.

The prince will also come into a large personal legacy left him by King Edward, when he is 21. His total income will be about a third more than that of King George when he was heir apparent.

being especially gifted for handling the school's finances for the best possible results. At the time he first became a member of the board, the school enrollment here was less than 100, and school was taught in the frame building on Tenth street, between Main and Pine. Since then the enrollment has passed the 1,000 mark, and in addition to the two splendid brick and stone buildings, there are schools also at Shippington and Mills addition.

Benson Says the Loser Will Work for Winner

RETURNED JURIST SAYS A RE-COUNT IS A NECESSITY, IN VIEW OF THE MANY ERRORS
BEING FOUND IN THE PRIMARY RETURNS THROUGHOUT THE STATE

"It has been over a month since the primary elections, and the see-sawing between Justice McNary and I for the fourth republican nomination has caused the two of us much loss of sleep. There is only one way to settle this, and that is by the recount of re-check, and this is to be done by the state officials," said Circuit Judge Benson last night, returning from a sojourn in Salem.

Judge Benson resumed court here today. He shows the effect of the long suspense to which he and McNary have been subjected, and which is not settled as yet.

"There have evidently been many errors in the counting of the votes in the state, and the race which has been hanging on a month without being settled, can only be decided by a recount or re-check. Mr. McNary is as much disturbed as I am over the constant switching of positions, owing to the discovery of an extra vote for one or the other in some county.

"We both feel that the matter should be officially settled, and whichever man wins, he will have the assurance of the entire support of the other."

GARRETT LEAVES FOR ANNAPOLIS

LOCAL BOY WILL TAKE THE EN-TRANCE EXAMINATION AT THE NAVAL ACADEMY AS SOON AS HE REACHES THERE

In the pink of condition, and with every reason to believe he would become a midshipman in the United States Naval Academy, W. Stirling Garrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Garrett of this city, left this morning for Annapolis, Md. There he will take the physical examination for entrance into the academy.

Garrett was named as an alternate candidate for admission in the examination held for Congressman Sinnott's appointment this winter. His principal passed the examination, but Garrett made such a remarkable showing that Sinnott secured another appointment to Annapolis for him.

In Garrett's departure Klamath county high school loses a youth who was noted for both scholastic and athletic ability. Great things are expected of him in the naval academy.

"Slats" Back in Town.

Percy (Slats) Brennenman arrived in the city last night from Seattle and other points in Washington, where he has resided for the past two years. Mr. Brennenman resided in Shippington for many months, having been employed in the box factory. For some time "Slats" was a contributor to the Evening Herald and the Morning Express, and his "Shippington Splinters" were full of witticisms.
