Miss Jessie Telford, Miss Nellie Cogswell, Miss Greta McMillan, Miss Vera Houston, Miss C. K. Selts, Mrs. Albert M. Worden, Mrs. Warren E. Faught and Mrs. L. L. Truax.

Misses Lillian and Josephine Van Riper, who are attending the California State Normal School at San Jose, are expected home Wednesday, to spend the summer months.

Miss Florence Bowen, who has been visiting relatives in California for the past week, is expected home this evening.

Members of the Mills Embroidery Club and friends spent an enjoyable afternoon Wednesday as the guests of Mrs. E. B. Greeley, Mrs. H. S. Phillips and Mrs. R. L. Alexander. The party motored to the John Koontz ranch, the autos being furnished and driven by Mrs. L. A. Will, E. C. Greeley, F. R. Call and E. L. Elliott. Mrs. Koontz was taken completely by surprise when the party swooped down on her, and this added much to the enjoyment of the afternoon, spent in needle work, conversation, etc. At a late hour in the afternoon a dainty luncheon was served. The return trip was made without mishap by three of the cars, and the only inconvenience suffered by the party was a puncture, necessitating a delay while the passengers stood in the middle of the road. But "it's all in a lifetime," was the philosophical way that Mrs. Will viewed the trouble. Those attending were Mrs. R. R. Wakeman, Mrs. Grace Massey and daughter Vestal of Oregon City, Mrs. J. R. Lentz, Mrs. A. C. Lewis, Mrs. George Bell, Mrs. Charles W. Thomas, Mrs. Frank Hamilton, Mrs. Mel Miller, Mrs. G. P. Sherman, Mrs. Frank Applegate, Mrs. E. C. Greeley, Mrs. F. R. Call, Mrs. L. A. Will, Mrs. E. E. Kirkendall, Mrs. Ben S. Owens, Mrs. A. W. Westfall, Mrs. Ida Koontz, Mrs. H. S. Phillips, Mrs. R. L. Alexander, Master Jamie Greeley, Herbert Phillips, Elroy Call, Francis Call, Wanda Kirkendall, Nellie B. Howard, Jean Phillips and Dorothy Greeley.

Miss Carrie Foster and Miss Rose Reed, who have been attending the Rose Festival in Portland, returned last night. Before going to Portland, Miss Foster spent some time in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hoagland, who have been spending the week as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nate Otterbein, will leave tomorrow to continue their Eastern Oregon trip. On their trip Mr. and Mrs. Hoagland will visit Mr. and Mrs. Major Fine, east of Paisley. Mrs. Fine is a sister of Mr. Hoagland.

Thomas Hampton is expected home tomorrow from Butte Falls, where he motored a week ago to attend to business matters. He was accompanied as far as Medford by Will Bennett, now treasurer of the State Bankers' Association.

Mrs. Gus A. Krause was hostess to the Leisure Hour Club Wednesday afternoon. The prizes were awarded to Long and Mrs. Masten, and after the awards were made light refreshments were served. The club members are Mrs. A. R. Campbell, Mrs. Thomas Hampton, Mrs. E. B. Hall, Miss Harris, Mrs. C. C. Hogue, Mrs. G. A. Krause, Mrs. Maxwell M. Long, Mrs. Charles Meldrum, Mrs. Henry Newnam, Mrs. O. W. Robertson, Mrs. Charles L. Robertson, Mrs. Fred Schallack, Mrs. Bert E. Withrow, Mrs. Whitlock, Mrs. William Masten, Mrs. Oscar E. Wiley, Mrs. Fred Melhase.

Captain and Mrs. Ivan D. Applegate came in Friday from the Lava Beds, accompanied by their son Morey Applegate of San Blas, Mexico, and daughter, Mrs. Emil Piel of Ashland, who have been visiting them. With Miss Rosa Krupka of Malin, they will spend several days here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley O. Smith.

The Saturday Club will meet this evening with Miss Margaret Worden, corner Fourth and High streets. The program in part will be as follows:

Piano—Alla Turka, from Sonata No. 9—Mozart—Miss Margaret Worden
Fifth Nocturne—Leybach—Miss Jennie Applegate.
Vocal—Hold There My Hand, Dear Lord—Briggs—Miss Katherine Williams.
Danny Deever—Damsch—Mr. Harold Kinnear.

Happy Days—Strelitzki—Miss Elizabeth Houston.
Selection from "A Persian Garden"—Lehan—Miss Louise Benson.

Mr. E. R. Reames has returned from a sojourn in Portland. Her daughter, Mrs. Frank Jennings, is here from Honolulu, to spend the summer. Mrs. Jennings spent her girlhood in Klamath Falls, and has many friends here.

Friday night the Splash Club, which meets at the Natatorium, varied the program with a water concert. After the swim the party motored to the Keller cafe for a midnight supper. At the tables were Hazel Barnes, Marjorie Weeks, Pearl Wheeler, Dorothy Weeks, Dr. Wheeler, Cecil Weeks, Lawrence Mehaffey and Warren Duhl.

Quite a crowd of young people have chartered the motorboat Spray for a cruise of Upper Klamath Lake and a picnic at some scenic point tomorrow. This will be the initial appearance of Mr. and Mrs. Louis G. Van Bellen and Mr. and Mrs. Edmund W. Gowen Jr. in the role of chaperones.

SAYS GERMANY IS THRIFTY NATION

RETURNED AMERICAN BANKER SEES WHERE AMERICA CAN LEARN A BIG LESSON FROM THE TEUTONS

United Press Service
BERLIN, June 20.—"America can learn much from Europe, especially from Germany, in the matter of thrift and economy," said Simon W. Straus, the Chicago banker and president of the American Society for Thrift.

Mr. Straus has about completed a tour of France, Italy, Austria and Germany, during which he has made a thorough study of European thrift, and will make a report to his society and to the United States government of the results of his observations and investigations.

"My investigations in Germany have impressed me with the need for extending the activities of the American Society for Thrift, and making it international," said Mr. Straus to the United Press. "We have become prodigal in America, and I am here to learn ways of thrift, but I find that the German nation is more thrifty than the German individual."

"Thrift is an anomaly. In America we have taken up the systematic education of the people to greater individual thrift, knowing that without that our municipal, state and national affairs will not be run on thrift lines. "One of the purposes of our society was to learn from inquiry in foreign countries, and I have observed and learned much which I hope may be nationally useful in America."

"The physical condition of the men, the longer and more specialized school system and the co-operative buying and selling, are aspects of German thrift which will repay our study. A definite and systematic effort must be made in America to teach the benefits of our household garden, as well as how to make one, and in doing this learn handicraft which otherwise city boys do not learn."

"The urban population must get back to the land, and this is the best and quickest way to bring about the change."

ADDISON AND NYLANDER CHOSE—BOYS' CLUB BEING ORGANIZED—SUNDAY SCHOOL ORGANIZED AT MIDLAND

(Herald Special Service)
MT. LAKE, June 20.—Rev. Avery, pastor of the Mt. Lake church, has organized a boys' club. They meet next Saturday afternoon at the ball ground and all boys are invited to join.

There will be preaching services at the Mt. Lake church each Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Sabbath school at 10 and Christian Endeavor at 7:30 in the evening.

A "hard times" dance was given at the home of Walter Wright last Saturday evening. There was a large crowd and many appropriate costumes.

Measrs. Dawson, Stewart, Henry and Shriver, with their families, went on a fishing trip to Buck Island this week.

The Mt. Lake school district held its annual business meeting at the school house Monday afternoon. Mr. Addison was re-elected school trustee and Mr. Nylander was elected clerk. The new school building is well started.

Rev. Avery went to Midland Sunday where he organized a Sunday school

Society Girl Is After Wild Game in North

United Press Service
SAN FRANCISCO, June 20.—Tiring of the continual round of social activities in Alameda, Oakland and San Francisco, Miss Pauline Painter, Alameda society girl, today is en route for Alaska, where she will hunt big game for three months.

She will stalk the caribou and mountain sheep in his native Klondike.

At Seattle Miss Painter will be joined by several relatives, including Mrs. Webster Norcross, a society leader of that city. Then the party will travel by steamer to Sitka, where they will hit the trail overland to Dawson City.

En route they will seek big game in the Upper Ramparts, a famous hunting region.

Miss Painter is one of the most popular belles of the San Francisco Bay region. To her friends she is affectionately known as "Toddy" Painter.

"I have always loved the great outdoors," said Miss Painter before sailing, "and this trip has been planned to carry us into the heart of Alaska's wilderness. We expect to be gone three months, and feel certain we will return with many trophies."
