

BOTH FIGHTERS ARE CONFIDENT

ODDS ARE TEN TO FOUR ON THE BIG CINDER—BOTH MEN DO ONLY LIGHT WORK TODAY AT QUARTERS

United Press Service

PARIS, June 26.—Confidence that he will win tomorrow night's battle for the world's heavyweight championship is expressed by each of the principals.

"The fight will end quick when I get a chance to land a right on that big skunk's jaw," said Moran. "I am in fine shape, and know I'll win."

"Nervous—I should say not, said Johnson. "Moran is a nice young fellow, and a pretty good fighter, but he has no chance. If I've lost my punch I don't know it. I know I'll win."

Both men indulged in light work and shadow boxing today.

The odds here are 10 to 4 in favor of Johnson.

NEW THEATER IS VISITED BY 700

MANY ARE UNABLE TO GET INSIDE ORPHEUS AFTER WAITING IN LINE FOR MORE THAN ONE HOUR

One of the biggest crowds ever assembled at an opening in Klamath Falls swarmed toward the new Orpheus theater, which Tindall & Starling opened to the public last night. There were two shows, and more than 700 attended.

Besides these, there were many who were unable to get in the show house. A big crowd was gathered outside all evening, waiting for the first performance to end.

The Orpheus is designed especially for picture shows, although there is a stage for vaudeville acts. The seats are all arranged on an incline, to better the view, and the indirect illumination system is used.

In addition to four good reels of pictures, Michael Zarich, xylophone expert, gave solos, and he also played with the Orpheus orchestra, a splendid six piece orchestra.

ENDEAVORERS TO FORM CO. UNION

MEETING OF SUNDAY SCHOOL SOCIETY DELEGATES WILL BE HELD TOMORROW AT MT. LAKE—OTHER NEWS.

(Herald Special Service)

The Christian Endeavorers of the county will meet at the Mt. Lake church Saturday, to form a county union. Delegates from Klamath Falls, Merrill, Bonanza and other local societies will be present.

After the picnic dinner there will be a program of music and talks on the various phases of endeavor work. Everyone interested is invited to come and enjoy the day.

On account of the illness of Miss Stenens the Ladies Aid of the Mt. Lake church will not meet at her home. As was announced, unless further notice is given, there will be an afternoon session next Wednesday at the church.

Miss Julia MacReynolds is visiting her sister, Mrs. Alec Cheyne.

The heavy frosts did a great deal of damage to the alfalfa and grain. The gardens are in bad shape. However, where the irrigating was being done, the crops were not affected materially.

Mrs. Charles Stenens is in town where she has gone for medical treatment. She is reported very ill.

PRIVATE ROOMS WILL BE LISTED

RODEO COMMITTEE ASKS FOR A LIST OF AVAILABLE ROOMS IN PRIVATE HOMES FOR HOUSING THE GUESTS

Have you any vacant rooms in your house?

If so, kindly telephone or otherwise notify the Rodeo headquarters. Tell the number of rooms, location of your home, price of rooms, etc.

The crowd to attend the Rodeo this year will be larger than ever before, and although Klamath Falls has better hotel facilities than any other small city in Oregon, the visitors will more than fill the hotels. To see that all are cared for, the listing of private rooms has been decided upon.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 26.—Indications now are that Villa will take Mexico City within a month. Experts think that the backbone of the Huerta defense has been broken. The veterans of his army have been crushed, and now only the untrained levies are left to defend the capital.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., June 26. Ambassador Naon expects the constitutional delegates tomorrow.

It is expected that the delegates of Carranza, flushed with the victories of their armies, will attempt to dictate terms, while the Huerta delegates will stand pat for a neutral provisional president.

Some secretly fear that Huerta will attempt to force American intervention.

It has been learned that the protocol whereby America agrees not to require a salute to the flag for the Tampico incident was signed practically without discussion.

ACROBATIC ACT ON STAR BILL

ODELL AND HART PLEASE AUDIENCE IN OPENING SHOW—WILL DO SLACK WIRE STUNTS DURING RODEO

In Odell and Hart, who opened at the Star theater last night, Manager John V. Houston has booked two clever entertainers for his show house. The two are clever in acrobatic work, and keep things lively with a fusillade of bright comedy. They give some song and dance numbers in addition.

The team will remain here during Rodeo week. As an additional feature, Manager Houston has arranged for a slack wire exhibition every afternoon during the Rodeo. A high wire will be stretched across the street from the theater, and will be used by the performers.

Be Fair

A month or two ago considerable unfavorable comment was made concerning the so called "strength of the electricity" being delivered in the city of Klamath Falls.

The Council invested in a voltmeter and put it on the lighting circuit.

There has been a conspicuous absence of any report of the findings of this instrument.

We think it might be interesting to the customers of electricity to know what the Council found.

They found that the instrument has not shown a registration of less than 110 volts.
