In the Klamath Club a matrimonial agency or an organization of well known young fellows whose dancing parties at the White Pelican are among the big affairs of the year? This question is being asked by many, on account of the serious inroads D. Cupid and the girls are making in the club's membership. The tremendous slaughter of Germans in front of the Belgian fortifications are small in proportion to the percentage of loss suffered by the Klamath, for out of the fifteen exponents of single blessedness who composed the club last winter, four have already made the vows and bestowed the wedding rings.

Nor is this the end of it. Wednesday, the flinging of wedding balls will have lured away on their heart-free bachelors of last fall, for "on the best day of all" at Medford, Harry Goeller and Miss Maude Rippey, two young people who are popular in Klamath Falls social circles will be united. After an auto trip of several weeks through the state, the couple will return to Klamath Falls to reside. Mr. Goeller is associated with his father in the firm of J. F. Goeller & Son, and has proven to be a business man of ability. The bride-to-be has taught in the Klamath Falls public schools for three years past, during which time she has made a wide circle of friends.

That the Klamath will suffer a still further loss is all too apparent. Though they try to sing "No Wedding Bells for Me" in a half hearted way, and rail at the matrimonial life when they are in the presence of some of their unattached brethren, there are four Klamath at least who are asking their married friends regarding the cost of housekeeping, rent, and too vehemently denying any intention of walking the plank hand in hand with some fair Klamath damsel.

Seated under a table fairly groaning with good things to eat, which was spread on the splendid lawn, a few friends of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd M. White were guests at a highly enjoyable dinner party at the White home on Pine street Monday night. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Claude Coseboom, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund M. Gowen Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. Sinnott, Mrs. Don Dale, Miss Kathryn Sinnott, Miss Hazel Fitch, Dr. Warren Hunt, Garrett Van Ripper and Russell and Elbert White. The lawn was illuminated in a pretty manner, and if laughter and jollity is conducive to good digestion, none of the party had cause to worry about the assimilation of the repast. After the dinner, a musical program was rendered until late in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Humphrey and children left Thursday in their car for a tour of Northern Oregon. They will visit Portland, Seaside and other points, and will be gone about six weeks.

Friends of Miss Ruth Avery, Miss Elsie Orem and Miss Maysel Sanderson spent a highly enjoyable evening as their guests at an informal party given at the Avery home on Tenth street Wednesday night. The evening was spent in playing cards and in dancing, the ball room being the spacious lawn illuminated with tastefully arranged Japanese lanterns. Late in the evening, a dainty collation was served. The guests were: Misses Lillian and Josephine Van Ripper, Miss Betty Bell, Miss Dorothy Weeks, Miss Pearl Bolvin, Miss Marjorie Weeks, Miss Marjorie McClure.

Miss Nina Noel, Miss Mary Schubert, Miss Greta McMillan, Miss Vera Houston, Mrs. F. M. Sanderson, Mrs. H. Orem, Mr. and Mrs. Claude B. Coon, Fred Dunbar, Vernon Motschenbacher, Cecil Weeks, Clarence Motschenbacher, Andrew M. Collier, Lawrence Mehaffey, Harold Kinnear, W. P. Johnson, W. M. Duncan, Mr. Weber, Thomas Rathbone and Harry Anglin.

In honor of Mrs. H. H. Johnson, mother of William P. Johnson, Mrs. Robert A. Emmitt was hostess to a number of ladies Thursday afternoon at her home on Walnut street. The afternoon was spent in needle work and social chat, and a dainty luncheon was served. In attendance were Mesdames Will Weedon, K. D. North, W. H. North, John H. Hamilton, Guy Walters, Will Wilson, Bob Taylor, John M. Johnson, Wm. P. Johnson, Ralph J. Sheets, Elizabeth Bice, L. O. Mills, W. F. Arant, Nate Otterbein, Chas. Martin, Ida M. Pink, S. E. Seeds, S. T. Sommers, George Biehn.

Mrs. Nate Otterbein and Mrs. J. Fred Goeller leave tomorrow morning for Medford to attend the Goeller-Rippey nuptials there Wednesday. Mrs. Otterbein is an aunt of the bride and Mrs. Goeller is the groom's mother.

Latest Photograph of Wilhelm II., Europe's "War Lord"

This is the latest photograph of Kaiser Wilhelm, the "war lord," who is believed to have counseled Emperor Franz Joseph in his attack on Serbia, which is bringing on a general European war. For many years the kaiser has talked war, only to remain the greatest peacemaker of Europe.

All that time he has been preparing his army and building a German fleet. Military experts declare that the German army organization is now the most perfect ever known on such a large scale. Some of them think the kaiser has come to the conclusion that the hour for action has struck.

LOCAL ART TO BE ON DISPLAY SOON

WOMEN'S CLUB AND ART CLUB ARRANGE TO HAVE AN EXHIBIT AT THE LIBRARY BUILDING NEXT WEEK

A new exhibit of Klamath county products is to be given next week at the library building. This will not be the mammoth tuber or the golden grain, but a display of artistic productions of Klamath county people.

The Women's Club and the Art Club have arranged a display of local painting, drawing and china decoration in the library club rooms, which will be on display Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, both in the afternoon and evening.

We have had many exhibitions of Klamath county potatoes and livestock, but never before have the fine arts been given this attention. The committee in charge has found an unusual amount of truly artistic productions and are glad to be able to give all a chance to enjoy them. The exhibit is to be free. Nothing is asked but appreciation.

SELL ICE CREAM TO GET LIBRARY

LOCAL BOY SCOUTS ARE HOLDING A SOCIAL AT THE McDONALD BUILDING THIS AFTERNOON AND EVENING

The local Boy Scouts believe that their hall would be much more inviting if they had a library. Accordingly, they are giving an ice cream sale today in the McDonald building, and will use the money earned by dispensing this, in securing books, etc. The Boy Scouts have a hall here, where they meet every Friday.

WOMAN THROWN OUT OF BUGGY

WIFE OF RANCHER IN MERRILL COUNTRY IS INJURED WHEN ANIMAL BEGINS KICKING IN DESCENDING HILL

A lack of sufficient holdbacks caused the buggy driven by Mrs. W. W. Lewis, wife of a rancher in the Merrill district, to press against the horse, as the vehicle was descending Third street to Main street late this afternoon. As a result, the horse began kicking, upsetting the buggy and throwing Mrs. Lewis out. The woman was immediately taken charge of by Drs. Wright and Hunt. The extent of her injuries is not yet known.

ANOTHER RECOUNT IS ASKED BY MEN

Men nominees for office of justice of the supreme court. It was agreed some time ago that today the question would be settled by drawing lots, or some other method. The new stipulation puts this off for the time being, anyhow.
