

GRAIN AND HAY ARE BEING CUT

MT. LAKE FARMERS REPORT A GOOD CROP—LECTURE SUNDAY NIGHT—OTHER NEWS NOTES OF THE THRIVING COMMUNITY

(Herald Special Service)

MT. LAKE, Aug. 20.—Most of the farmers are busy either cutting their grain or hay. The crops are good this year. The June frost did little damage in some sections.

The evening service at the Mt. Lake church next Sunday will be in the nature of a lecture by Mr. Avery. It will be illustrated by stereopticon views. There will be special music.

Mrs. Lewis and daughter, Irene, are recovering from their injuries received in a recent runaway in Klamath falls.

Mr. West received a registered pig he sent away for. This is the second one he has purchased, and he is gaining quite a reputation for his thoroughbred stock.

Every Car Up to Standard

If your friend with a Winton Six were to offer you his car as it stands for exactly half what he paid for it, you would no doubt think it a bargain well worth considering, and yet we are able to make you even a better proposition from the stock of "used" cars now listed at "undervalue" prices.

Every car on the list, many of them being fine self-starting six-cylinder Wintons, has been thoroughly overhauled by Winton experts in the Winton shops and brought up to the Winton standard.

Ask yourself this question before making a decision—Isn't it better to buy a high-grade "used" car of established reputation and proved ability than to spend the same amount for a new car of cheaper construction, especially when you know that a short season's use will put it into the "second-hand" class?

FIGHTING NATIONS OF EUROPE HAVE AMERICA'S POWDER SECRET

HUDSON MAXIM

BRIG. GEN. WM. CROZIER

The secret of the American government's "twenty-four hour smokeless powder" has been betrayed.
The United States has lost forever this tremendous advantage it would have had in war.

The incident is expected to give impetus to the Clayton bill, being pushed by the Army League, which would broaden the recent law making it a felony to disclose government secrets.

The usual smokeless powder is slow of manufacture. It requires from four to six months and if manufactured in shorter time may explode spontaneously, destroying the dreadnaught carrying it. Any enemy who used up his powder would be at the mercy of the nation whose powder remained.

Hudson Maxim, the American scientist, in the realm of explosives, discovered a powder which could be used within twenty-four hours.

He carried his secret to the government's powdermakers, the du Ponts. In a deserted wing of the factory Maxim mixed the wonderful stuff with his own hands. It was not twenty-four hours later, exploding, terrifically and with but a trace of smoke.

The directors of the company saw the value of the invention—a monopoly of the sale of powder to every nation. But the discovery was so important any nation possessing it exclusively would have so great advantage in war that the suggestion was made that the secret be turned over to the American government.

Patriotism warred with pursu-ings in that directors' meeting.
Patriotism won. Vice-President Buckner of the DuPont company went personally to Washington and imparted the exclusive secret to the United States Ordnance Dept., Gen.
Crozier and Admiral Mason.

The mixture was not patented at all. At the factory it was arranged that no single employee would know the ingredients or proportions.
Further experiments removed even the trace of smoke. Several confidential experts of the government were assigned to supervise the tests, and in some way a chemist not of their number, eminent, but too engrossed in science to appreciate practical things, in his enthusiasm for the chemical discovery prepared a scientific paper describing it. He read this paper before a meeting of scientists in Washington. No indication of secrecy seemed to make any impression on him—that was all.
The administration awoke to the catastrophe when a scientific publication printed this address. It was too late then. The cables had taken the formula to a dozen foreign capitals.
