IF YOU WANT TO ADVERTISE YOUR COUNTY NOW IS THE TIME TO SEND YOUR PRIZE PRODUCTS TO HEADQUARTERS

The following communication from C. C. Chapman, Oregon State Immigration agent, is addressed to those who are desirous of making exhibit of their prize products, and the information contained is valuable to all concerned.

Exhibit material to be used in Eastern land shows, traveling exhibit cars, railway ticket office windows, etc., may be shipped at any time to this office. Railroad companies will handle these shipments free of cost if labeled with the tags we are sending for this purpose.

"Exhibit material to be used in Eastern land shows, traveling exhibit cars, railway ticket office windows, etc., may be shipped at any time to this office. Railroad companies will handle these shipments free of cost if labeled with the tags we are sending for this purpose.

"Packing must be done with great care, as many choice specimens frequently reach here rendered valueless on account of damage received most largely due to careless packing.

"We shall be glad to forward other detailed information of this character upon request.

"Request more tags if necessary, and kindly send choice specimens forward immediately. All possible credit will be given in each case to the grower and community."

WANTS TO BE IN OTHER DISTRICT

PETITION IS PREPARED, ASKING THE BOUNDARY BOARD TO CHANGE THE BOUNDARY OF ROUND LAKE

C. C. Hunt, who resides a few miles from town on the West Side, was in the county seat Monday afternoon, conferring with County School Superintendent Peterson, regarding a petition to the district boundary board, asking that the boundary of Round Lake district be changed to take in two more sections of land toward Orindale.

The addition of these two sections to the Round Lake district would make it possible for the Hunt children to attend the second school in the Round Lake district, being built a short distance from their home. The new building will be completed in time for the opening of school.

Are They Vacationing?

Vernon T. Moteschenbacher and Austin Hayden have departed for the wilds of Cherry Creek, where they will spend several days. And there are some unkind enough to say that it is the fear of being drafted into the European war that has driven Moteschenbacher away from town at this time of the year, unless it is the fact that the forests are said to be full of "deers."
