

"Justrite" Corsets

EVERY woman who wears a G-D Justrite feels "well-dressed" and is in love with her "Justrite." Only by wearing one yourself, can you know how greatly it improves your appearance. You can have a G-D Justrite, too, for the cost of an ordinary corset.

G-D Justrite corsets have beautiful back and front lines. They are skillfully designed and scientifically correct. They are made of soft, firm materials, with flexible and supple boning. They will not rip or tear nor rust and are sold to you with this guarantee.

It's good form to wear G-D Justrite corsets

Miss Louise Benson and Miss Marguerite Williams have planned a delightful little farewell luncheon for Miss Marjorie Sellers, to be given at the White Pelican hotel Saturday noon. The guests are the Misses Marjorie Sellers, Lottie Williams, Ruth Saucerman, Irma Cole, Bessie Applegate, Ione Stelman, Waive Jacobs, Vera Cosad, Elizabeth Houston, Louise Benson, Katherine Williams and Marguerite Williams.

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ira White, who soon leave for California to spend the winter, local Shriners and their ladies tendered them a surprise party at their home Wednesday night. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Willett, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Delsell, Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Truax, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Balle, Mrs. M. L. Sargent, Miss Louise Sargent, Miss Willie Leonard, Miss Estell Blair and Dr. Will A. Leonard. The start was made from in front of the Star Drug store, and it was there that Dr. Truax and Leonard ran afoul of the law, by innocently stealing a baby buggy, which they thought belonged to Mr. and Mrs. Delsell. After this mistake was discovered, and the buggy returned, Dr. Truax was tried by a Kangaroo court on this charge. He was acquitted, however, as the prosecuting witness, Dr. Leonard, had to admit that he helped in the theft. With card games and pranks the evening was a merry one, and a dainty luncheon was served.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the enjoyable Merrill district fair was the dance, given last night at the Merrill opera house, to defray the expenses of the day's festivities. There were as least seventy-five couples present, including many Klamath Falls people. Some of these Klamath Falls people made the trip last night, especially to attend the dance. The Tyntmoe orchestra, augmented by some Klamath Falls musicians, rendered excellent music, and every number was enjoyed to the utmost. The best of order maintained, and every Merrill person acted as a self-appointed floor manager, insuring the visitors all the dances they wanted. It was 3 o'clock before the final number was finished, and the tired, though happy throng dispersed.

Highly enjoyable was the Wednesday meeting of the Art Needle Work Club, held at the home of Mrs. R. H. Dunbar. At this meeting, in addition to needlework and conversation, an informal program was held, and especially interesting were the vocal numbers given by Miss Britton of San Jose, who is the guest of Mrs. George A. Hayden. Late in the afternoon, dainty refreshments were served by Miss Margaret Dunbar and Miss Ella Deus. As guests of the club, Mrs. M. E. Sargent, Mrs. Charles E. Worden, Mrs. Ed Yarnice, Mrs. Burge W. Mason, Mrs. John McCall, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Louis H. Bath, Mrs. W. A. Delsell, Mrs. Albert M. Worden, Mrs. M. J. Kelley of Albany, Mrs. Worden of Pueblo, Colo., Mrs. Lou Rogers of Minneapolis and Miss Britton were present, in addition to the club members, who are Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby, Mrs. J. F. Goeller, Mrs. Karl G. Cummings, Mrs. Henry Newham, Mrs. George Chastain, Mrs. Geo. A. Wirtz, Mrs. R. H. Dunbar, Mrs. C. C. Hogue, Mrs. Geo. R. Hurn, Mrs. Sam T. Summers, Mrs. F. M. White, Mrs. G. W. White, Mrs. Arthur R. Wilson, Mrs. J. S. Stubblefield, Mrs. H. F. Phillips, Mrs. W. E. Faught and Mrs. Geo. A. Hayden.

A social session of the Klamath Literary Club was held Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Stewart. This marked the opening of the club's 1914-15 season. "Vacation experiences" were in order, and some highly interesting, as well as amusing anecdotes were given by the members. Late in the evening delicious refreshments were served. Present were: Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Stubblefield, Mr. and Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Stewart, Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Richards, Mrs.

E. M. Chilcote, Miss Erma Cole, Miss Pearl Tally, Miss Bessie Applegate, Miss Jean Stewart, Miss Ida Momyer, Miss Alice Pool, Miss Clara Kimer, Miss Augusta Parker, Miss Milam, Arthur D. Hay, Rollo C. Groenbeck, Andrew Collier, Dr. Fred Westerfeld, Dr. Johnson.

The Entre Nous Club will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. West in Hot Springs addition Tuesday night.

The new high school students were guests of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church last night, and a most enjoyable time was spent by the five score or more young people in attendance. Games, many of them unique and laughable, were played, and refreshments were served.

The following committee will have charge of the next banquet of Prosperity Rebekah Lodge, to be held at the regular meeting on October 1st: Mrs. Carrie Clendenning (chairman), C. B. Clendenning, Mrs. Madge Esell, W. E. Esell; Mrs. Margery Otterbein, Nate Otterbein, Miss Greta McMillan, Mrs. Stella Sheets, R. J. Sheets, Mrs. Nancy Donart, Chas. Donart, Mrs. Anna Bean, Mrs. Belle Willis, Mrs. Hulda Boyd, Arthur Boyd, Mrs. Alice Baldwin, Wallace Baldwin, Mrs. Dorothy Cofer, C. C. Cofer.

Members of Prosperity Rebekah Lodge are requested to be present at a special meeting on Monday night, for the purpose of degree team practice.

Mrs. Earl Whitlock was hostess to the Tuesday Club and a few friends Tuesday, when bridge was played, following which, refreshments were served by the hostess. In attendance were Mrs. Thos. Hampton, Mrs. Bert Withrow, Mrs. Charles Robertson, Mrs. A. R. Campbell, Mrs. O. W. Robertson, Mrs. English, Mrs. E. B. Hall and Mrs. Fred Schallcock.

Mrs. Francis R. Olds left this morning for Sacramento, to re-enter business college, after a fortnight's visit here.

A business meeting of The Doceas will be held this evening. At this session officers will be elected and plans outlined for the coming year's work.

YOUR WARDROBE

When composed of clothing made for you and you only, give you an appearance and feeling of personal satisfaction that cannot be had from the kind that are said to be as good as when we make and fit you with a suit or overcoat.

We are willing to have it compared with any other made elsewhere, and guarantee it to stand as high.

This is the reason why our business is always increasing, in spite of so-called money-saving clothes.
