

Ashland High School Victors

Clean, Fast Contest Pleases the Spectators Today

Ashland 15, Klamath County 0.

In a game that was absolutely free from the fouling, nagging and other unsportsmanlike acts that are usually connected with inter-scholastic games, Coach Klam's football team, representing the Ashland High school, added another to their season's list of victories today, at the same time ending all local hopes of Southern Oregon championship.

But considering the fact that several of the local players were suita for the first time in their lives, and were up against a heavier and more experienced team, the local high school has no reason to feel in the dumps about it. The local boys played a good game all through, against a team that handed a much worse whipping to Grants Pass High.

The fireworks started in the first few minutes of play, when Ashland, after kicking into Klamath's territory, got the ball on downs, and sent Plymouth across for the first touchdown.

In the same quarter Ashland secured the ball in Klamath's territory. From the fifteen-yard line three attempts at kicking field goals failed. In the kicking department Noel seemed to have a shade over the visiting booter.

In the second half the Klamath Falls team seemed almost certain to make a touchdown. The second costly fumble of the day was made at the fifteen-yard line, and Ashland, getting the ball, kicked out to safety.

As in the second quarter, most of the play in the third quarter was in the center of the field, with both teams fighting hard. At the last of the third Ashland made its second touchdown, but again failed at kicking the goal.

From this time on, the Ashland team kept working the forward pass, and when close to a goal would try field goals. After several attempts, sometimes blocked entirely by the Klamath onslaught against the line, Ashland's final three points were made in this manner.

The work of Noel for Klamath Falls was excellent throughout, and he proved a pretty consistent gainer. Another big factor in the Klamath makeup was little Gus Page, who proved to be the most effective man in breathing up the Ashland plays.

Deales, who went in in the closing minutes of the game, also showed some fine flashes of real football.

Spencer's work for Ashland was noticeable at all times, while Deisman and Plymouth were largely responsible for the Ashland victory. Neither team has a man who can be said to have shirked, and the result was a fast, clean game, with sportsmanship paramount.

O'Loughlin banged up one hand and Anderson had an ankle hurt. These were the only injuries, and both men continued to play, although Anderson slowed up somewhat.

There was no lack of school spirit on the part of the local rooters. The girls turned out en masse, clad in red sweaters and white dresses, and like the boys, their heads were crowned with red and white caps. Despite the fact that their team was playing a losing game, the rooters kept up the racket, and instilled the fighting spirit into the gridiron bunch.

JUDGE PREPARES FOR DEFEAT ON ELECTION DAY

WOULD TIE UP FEW CONTRACTS BEFORE GIVING UP OFFICE

People Get an Inkling of Probable Cost of New Court House When Plans Are Shown for Completion of Building—Cost May Run to Half a Million, if Present Plans Are Followed—Over $112,000 Spent Now

Evidently convinced that he has no show for re-election, Judge Worden is getting active to tie up the county in a few contracts before he goes out of office. Although every cent in the court house fund this year has already been spent, he is planning on letting the contract for the completion of the building. As soon as this is accomplished the taxpayers of the county may be able to get an approximate idea of what the total cost of the new court house will be.

In planning improvements or the erection of a building, business men first figure the cost, but it is now plainly evident that Judge Worden had no more intelligent idea than a child, and only made a wild guess, when he asked the people of the county to authorize him to erect a new court house.

At that time he told the people that the new building would cost about $150,000. Later he privately admitted that it would probably cost $200,000. As time goes on and bill after bill is allowed, it can easily be seen that the latter amount will not cover one-half the cost, if Worden is permitted to carry out his plans.

Up to October 1, of this year, a total of $112,614.69 had been spent on the new court house, and all there is to show for it is the foundation, walls and a portion of the roof. Conservatively speaking less than one-third of the work, and what is usually considered the easiest part, is done, and at a little short of the total original estimated cost.

It would not be surprising if the court house should cost nearly half a million dollars before it is completed and ready to be used, if the plans being figured on are carried out. All of the real expensive work remains yet to be done. All that has been done so far is the bare outside walls, and not even the roof has been finished. There yet remains the floors, partitions, interior finishing, vaults, plumbing, heating system, electrical wiring, furniture and equipment for all of the offices and the steel work and furnishing for the jail.

When it is considered that the plans for the interior are of the most elaborate furnishings imaginable, including marble walls and floors in many of the rooms and closets, a faint idea can be gained of the extent to which Judge Worden is going in his reckless extravagance.

A great deal was said by Judge Worden at one time about the hot water from the springs for heating purposes, and how many thousands of dollars he was going to save the taxpayers in just this one item alone. Nothing is heard recently about this hot springs heating system.

An examination of the plans shows that the specifications call for one of the most comprehensive heating plants and ventilating systems, one that would be appropriate for the most elaborate hotels in New York city. It is roughly figured that the heating plant, ventilating system and plumbing will cost between $40,000 and $50,000, and maybe more. This item alone would be about one and one half times the total cost of the Klamath County High school building.

Old Timer Visits. Bert Cotter, formerly a resident of this city, and employed by the Southern Pacific out of here as a conductor, is here visiting friends. Cotter is now running out of Ashland.

KAISER ALMOST A PRISONER, IS RUSSIAN STORY

THE GERMANS ARE REPORTED RETREATING

Little's Tide in the East Theater Favors the Muscovites, According to the Press Dispatches Sent Out by the War Office at Petrograd. Russians Prepare to Attack German Frontier.

United Press Service. PETROGRAD, Oct. 24.—Soldiers wounded in the fighting at Warsaw, and who are now returning declare that Kaiser Wilhelm narrowly escaped capture by Russian forces in the recent fighting. These stories are circumstantial, and not confirmed, but the war office permits the publication of the rumor.

The fact that one of the most authoritative German generals was captured at that time causes the belief that the Kaiser was at the front.

According to the war office, the defeated Germans in East Prussia are still retreating, with the pursuing Siberian troops inflicting heavy losses.

It is stated that the road of the retreat is littered with guns and equipment, transports and dead and wounded. Now that the Russians have crossed the Vistula it is believed that they are ready to begin an advance against the first line of German frontier defenses.

Military reports say that the German killed, wounded and imprisoned thus far in the operations in Poland total 200,000.

United Press Service.

ROME, Oct. 24.—It is announced that Russia has formally offered to liberate and send to Italy all captured Austrian troops of Italian birth, especially those from the Trieste and Trent districts.

Russia, in making the offer, asks Italy to retain such troops in Italy until the close of the war.

LAKE PRISONERS REACH THIS CITY

FOUR MEN SENTENCED TO THE PENITENTIARY BROUGHT IN TODAY ON THEIR WAY TO SALEM

Deputy Sheriff Rhinehart and Manning Morton of Lakeview reached here this afternoon in charge of Buck Lindsey, sentenced for horse-stealing, W. T. Bowen, sentenced for rustling cattle, and the Quick brothers, sentenced for house breaking. They are on their way to Salem to serve the sentences imposed upon them by Judge Coke last week.

The men will be kept in the county jail over night, and leave out in the morning.

Before Lindsey was tried he was arrested at Albany, and was almost to Klamath Falls when he escaped from the train. Special watch is being kept to prevent any more dashes for liberty.

American Troops to Guard Railroad

United Press Service. WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 24.—American troops will probably be called upon to guard the Pekin-Mukden railroad, according to the war department. The English and French have abandoned the Chinese territory through which the railway runs. Under the Chinese neutrality treaty America is undoubtedly called upon to protect the line.

SIEGE GUNS AND MONITORS IN A HOT STRUGGLE

United Press Service

PARIS, Oct. 24.—The Germans today demanded an armistice in the Thiaucrot region to give both armies a chance to care for their wounded and bury their dead. This the French general refused, and the fighting continues with increased violence.

This was announced verbally in connection with this afternoon's communique.

There was no cessation of the fighting between LaBasse and the sea last night. At some points the allies retired, but it is stated that no where did the Germans gain a strategic point. The allies withdrew mainly from exposed points, to save a slaughter of men.

The big German siege guns are in action along the line connecting Neuport, Dix Mude and the Ypres, trained against the British positions. There is a disastrous duello between the big siege guns, the British naval guns and the French three-inch pieces.

The Germans are attempting to drive a wedge through the allies line at Arras and retake Armentieres. So far this has not succeeded.

United Press Service.

BERLIN (via The Hague), Oct. 24.—Today's official statement says that the German offensive is being maintained successfully everywhere along the right wing, and material gains are reported.

The statement says the allies are unable to check the Germans in the vicinity of Arras, Lille and south of the Dix Mude.

The Germans are also advancing along the Meuse, and are bombarding Verdun.

United Press Service.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—A press bureau says that German cavalry are now wearing Belgian uniforms, showing that Germany considers Belgium now her territory.

The report calls this action "intestuable."

United Press Service.

PARIS, Oct. 24.—Tonight's communique follows:

"On the left the battle continues. The enemy has made progress north of Dix Mude and around La Bassée.

"We have gained appreciatively east of Neuport and in the Longue-marche region, and in the region between Armentieres and Lille. These fluctuations are inevitable on the line of a battle so general as the one now being fought.

"On the rest of the front the German attacks, both day and night, have been repulsed. We have advanced in many places."

PELICAN MILL WORK IS SWIFT SAYS POLICE WINK AT VICE

RAFTERS ARE UP, READY FOR THE SIDING, AND CAR OF MACHINERY ARRIVES—TO WORK THIS WINTER

Great progress is being made in the erection of the new sawmill of the Pelican Bay Lumber company, replacing the mill destroyed by fire last summer. Already the rafters are up, and all is in readiness for putting up the side walls.

F. Hill Hunter, in charge of the construction of the plans, expects to continue work on the interior of the mill this winter. The building will be enclosed during this spell of splendid weather, and when winter sets in it is understood that stoves will be placed in the mill to enable workmen to work without any loss of time.

A car of machinery for the mill, or for use in construction has arrived.

LIBRARIAN HERE FOR CONFERENCE

Miss Cornelia Marvin, state librarian, is here from Salem, working with Mrs. J. C. Brockenbrough, librarian of the Klamath County Library, on the arrangements for that institution, and visiting other libraries here. On Friday Miss Marvin visited the Women's Library Club library and the school library, and discussed matters at each of them.

Today she is at work with Mrs. Brockenbrough on the compilation of a book list for the county library.

An Appeal to Women Buyers

The page that The Herald will soon feature will be full of representatives of the various business people of this city, and we are going to make a strong appeal to the women of this city and surrounding country.

WHY?—Because we are quite sure that the women do read the evening paper, and we are very sure that nine-tenths of the commodities purchased in this city today are so purchased through the suggestions of the women. Therefore, The Herald will talk to the women particularly about its page, THE BUSINESS GUIDE AND DIRECTORY, coupled with "THE MUTUAL GIRL AND HER AUNTIE." Experiences in their trading, dealing and shopping with the business firms in Klamath Falls.

Why shouldn't we talk to the women? They are a mighty important factor in the world's commerce and trade today. Governor Johnson of California has recently appointed a board of women to assume direct control of one of the most important reformatory institutions of that great state, and this action, it is reported, has been greeted with wide spread commendation throughout the state. In San Francisco three women have been made police; the Berlin Times is edited by a woman; also a bank in Berlin is run by women, and proves very successful. A woman in New York heads in personal tax; a Miss Christina Armbuckle, sister of the late John Armbuckle, the coffee king. A woman in California is getting rich rearing butterflies. The Chinese government is about to establish a women's school, seeking the need of educating their women. Denmark's prime minister's wife is his stenographer. A lawyer's wife in Washington is studying to be her husband's law partner. Thousands of dollars were recently invested by Baltimore women in municipal bonds; 7,348 women are registered in the city of Spokane, Wash., or over $1 per cent. Minnie Weyer of Corning, Kans., won over four men opponents for the office of postmaster in that city. And so I might enumerate hundreds of cases wherein the women are fast coming into this business game. Therefore, as I said before, we are going to appeal to the women to deal, trade and buy from the advertisers upon the "Mutual Girl" page that will be published very soon in The Herald.

THE HERALD GOES INTO THE HOME BECAUSE IT IS A DAILY PAPER THAT RIGHTLY BELONGS IN THE HOME.
