

PRINTS THE NEWS WHILE IT IS NEWS

The Evening Herald

KLAMATH FALLS OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER

Ninth Year—No. 2,500

KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1914

Price, Five Cents

ENTIRE RUSSIAN ARMY ADVANCING AGAINST TEUTONS

ENVELOPING MOVEMENT IS UNDER WAY

While the Russian Left is Enveloping the Austrians in the Galicia Country, the Russian Right is Driving the Germans Back to Their Defensive Positions—Austrians Retreat After Week of Fighting.

United Press Service PETROGRAD, Oct. 29.—The entire Russian army is advancing now against the Austro-German troops. The latest advices from the front indicate that the Russian left is enveloping the Austrians between Galicia and the Russian frontier. At the same time the czar's right is repelling the Germans and driving them back upon their advance lines of defense inside the East Prussian boundary. After a week of fighting along the River San, the Austrians have commenced to retreat from the southern station.

United Press Service LONDON, Oct. 29.—An unconfirmed dispatch from a Petrograd news agency says that a German officer, imprisoned by the Russians, declares that the three German generals who were responsible for the disaster to the kaiser's forces at Augustoff, were tried by court-martial, found guilty and shot. The story from Russia is that the German prisoner has shown a copy of a general order from Kaiser Wilhelm, expressing great indignation at the surrender of Augustoff, and ordering the recapture of the position under penalty of death.

ANOTHER SHIP HITS A MINE; IS WRECK

United Press Service LONDON, Oct. 29.—Dispatches to a press association from Fleetwood say that another steamer has struck a German mine off Malin Head, on the north coast of Ireland, and went down. Lloyd's have no information, but it is believed the boat was a small coaster.

BRITISH SEIZE AMERICAN SHIPS

PROTESTS ARE LODGED WITH THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND U. S. CONSUL IS ASKED TO MAKE INVESTIGATION

United Press Service WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 29.—The state department has been advised that the British at Gibraltar have seized the vessels San Giovanni and Regina Italia, carrying cargoes of American copper. Four copper companies and shippers of the cargoes have notified the department of the seizures, and have requested that protests be made. The American consul at Gibraltar has been asked to make an investigation and report. The vessels sailed from New York.

DIED ON TRIP TO VISIT HERE

SISTER OF MRS. L. R. ROBERTSON WAS TO BE HERE THIS WEEK FOR A VISIT, BUT SHE DIED AT EUGENE

Miss Ruby Campbell, sister of Mrs. L. R. Robertson, died at Eugene on Wednesday morning. Miss Campbell and her mother were on their way to visit Mrs. Robertson at Klamath Falls and they had expected to be here this week. They had stopped on route to visit a brother of Miss Campbell in Eugene. While Miss Campbell has not been well for some time, her condition did not become serious until Sunday morning. The funeral will be at Marshfield, the family home.

Michigan Teachers in Session United Press Service KALAMAZOO, Mich., Oct. 29.—Schools all over the state were closed today, and the students celebrated while the teachers met in Kalamazoo for the annual convention of the Michigan State Teachers' Association. The school holiday will last through tomorrow.

Germany's Great Naval Hero, Who Sank 3 British Cruisers

Captain Lieutenant Otto von Weddigen, commander of the submarine U-9, is the naval hero of Germany. He was the daring exploit which resulted in the destruction of three British cruisers in the North Sea—the Cressy, the Hogue and the Aboukir—a feat which shocked all England and made her people tremble momentarily in doubt about her navy. Von Weddigen is only 32 years old, but his name rings through Germany and Great Britain's enormous navy has not in the war produced a hero whose fame compares with that of the German. Von Weddigen was 200 miles from his base of supplies, having traveled most of that distance under water, when he sighted the three cruisers. He found them in a triangle, and after taking a last sight at them, dove. He worked between them, within less than a mile of each. From a depth of about twelve feet he loosed a torpedo at one ship, which he later learned was the Aboukir. She went down in a few minutes, and her men were in the water. The Cressy and the Hogue hurried to the scene, their commanders evidently believing an accident had happened to the Aboukir. He loosed another torpedo at the Hogue, and she keeled over. Too late the British commanders found out the cause. Another torpedo caught the Cressy, and within thirty minutes from the time of the first shot was fired the three wrecks and their men were struggling in the sea.

"R-RE-VENGE," IS THE CRY OF SELF MADE "CHAIRMAN"

BOB EMMITT IS AFTER SCALP OF W. O. SMITH

Because Herald Has Not Seen Fit to Support Worden, Self-Constituted Head of Central Committee Is Writing Letters to Defeat Smith, Using the Assessments That Smith, With Other Candidates, Put Up.

By W. O. SMITH REVENGE! This is the word that sounds sweet to the old political war horse, "Bob" Emmitt, chairman of the republican central committee, and to his honor, Wm. S. Worden, the county judge. For he it known that the said "Bob" Emmitt, aided by Judge Worden and his friends, are working day and night in an effort to defeat the editor of The Herald as a candidate for the legislature. Mr. Emmitt has been in politics long enough to know that Worden hasn't a ghost of a show now, so he and the judge are trying to find satisfaction in their idea of revenge. It is only natural that Emmitt should feel sore at anyone who had the nerve to oppose Worden, for wasn't Emmitt on the county pay roll for a long time, and wouldn't all future prospects go glimmering with Worden's defeat? The republicans of the county elected four committeemen in four of the twenty-five precincts. Mr. Emmitt was one of these. As one of the committeemen was out of town, and another so far away he could not get here, Mr. Emmitt proceeded to call himself together and elect himself county chairman. So now he is the big political "boss," and tells all other citizens and republicans where to get off at. It was political treason for The Herald, as a newspaper, to oppose a man for office who happened to be on the republican ticket, but Mr. Emmitt as chairman of the republican central committee, does not hesitate to make a fight on the editor of The Herald, who also happened to be on the republican ticket. In carrying out his plan he has caused letters to be sent out through Crook, Grant and Lake counties, urging the people of those counties to vote for Vernon A. Forbes, republican, and P. H. Dencer, democrat, both of Crook county, and stating that the people of Klamath county did not want W. O. Smith elected. Naturally it can be expected that Crook county will give the majority of their votes to the two men from that county. Grant county, which adjoins, may do the same. So, Mr. Emmitt and his friends figure that if a considerable vote in Lake county can be thrown to these two men that W. O. Smith will be beaten, and they will have that sweet revenge for which they are longing. Now, I want to say to the people of Klamath county that I do not care whether I get a single vote in the whole district. I never asked a man or a woman to vote for me, and I am not now asking it. I accepted the nomination simply because no one else seemed to want the job at $3 a day and pay their own expenses, and I felt that the interest of Klamath county and this part of the state demanded representation in the legislature. Two years ago I represented this district to the best of my ability. I drafted and secured the passage of the county budget bill, which compels county courts to prepare an itemized budget, showing the amount of taxes to be levied and for what purpose the money is to be expended. Heretofore county courts could make a blanket levy for as large an amount as they thought the people would stand for, and then use it as they saw fit. Of course this new business law did not please Judge Worden, and when the people found out what he was going to do with the money he was forced to cut down the levy

LOOKS LIKE AN ALL WINTER CAMPAIGN

United Press Service LONDON, Oct. 29.—Additional warships have been sent to channel ports along the northwest coast of France, to support the allies in a new attack, which has apparently been planned against the Germans from these ports.

Undoubtedly the Germans have massed their submarines and light torpedo boats in the canal between Bruges and Zee Bruges. It is also reported that the Germans are moving a large part of their airships fleet to Belgium.

United Press Service PARIS, Oct. 29.—Physical exhaustion is seriously interfering with the progress of the fighting in Northern France, the soldiers beginning to break down under the continued strain. That is the reason given for the slackening there last night and today. The German losses far exceed that of the Allies. The German line, though, is largely intact.

The allies have not attempted a general advance. Both armies are reinforcing for a big struggle.

Thousands of German reserves are reported crossing Belgium. It is believed that another attempt to advance will be made by the kaiser's forces from Nieupoort toward Dix Mude and between Lille and Arras.

Headquarters believes the Germans contemplate active operations all winter.

This afternoon communique says that the allies continue to make progress, especially between Ypres and Arras, where a number of German trenches were captured after a series of brilliant charges.

The communique declares that the allies are advancing in the Argonne region, and close to the forest of Apremont, but that elsewhere there is no change in the battle front.

SKATING RINK WILL OPEN THIS EVENING

The skates for the Hunsaker & Wakefield rink arrived last night, and tonight the rink will be opened to the public. The fine maple floor has been placed in the best possible condition, and the "skate fans" are all joyful at the prospects of a winter on "wheeled shoes."

Iowa Democrats Close Campaign

United Press Service DES MOINES, Oct. 29.—The democratic campaign will be closed here tonight at a banquet of the Iowa League of Wilson clubs, at which Secretary of State W. J. Bryan and Postmaster General Burleson are scheduled to be the principal speakers. Democrats from all over Iowa are here today attending the closing rally of the campaign, the object being to land Congressman Maurice Connolly of Dubuque in Senator Cummins' shoes, eleven congressmen and a state ticket.

Look Over This List

It's a Resume of Some of the Initiative Measures

- Condensed titles with their ballot number of a few of the proposed constitutional amendments, and a brief statement of their real meaning and effect, if adopted: Nos. 302 and 303—For constitutional amendment creating the office of lieutenant governor. This proposal has been heretofore rejected by the people. An unjustified repeater. Nos. 306 and 307—For amendment of section 7, article XI of the constitution authorizing indebtedness for irrigation and power projects. Its effect would be to encourage bonded indebtedness and would nullify the restriction of the section, as it now stands, limiting the state legal liability to $50,000. Nos. 308 and 309—For amendment of section 22, article I of the constitution. This is the third submission of this proposed amendment. It has been twice defeated by the people. Nos. 310 and 311—For amendment of section 1, article IX of the constitution. Another proposed modification of uniform rule of taxation, heretofore twice defeated. Nos. 318 and 319—Amendment of section 29, article IV of the constitution raising pay of members of the legislature. The pay is now $3.00 per day. It has been twice defeated by the people. Nos. 320 and 321—Universal eight hour day amendment. Applies to every kind of employment. Menaces life of farm and many other industries. Nos. 352 and 363—Constitutional amendment establishing department of industry and public works. Proposes to levy inheritance tax to give work to the unemployed. Authorizes legislative appropriations for same. Oregon would be the haven for the unemployed of the whole country.

MILLS RANCH IS NOT ON REGISTER

MORNING PAPER ERRED IN THIS CONNECTION—THE FIRST FARM NAME WAS REGISTERED LATE IN 1911

The morning paper erred this morning in reporting the registering of "Aspindale," H. L. Mills' fine farm near Hildebrand. Instead of being registered with the county clerk, as the paper stated, the name was sent to The Herald for publication, in response to a suggestion made in a recent editorial. This was the first name to be sent to The Herald for publication since the editorial was printed, but it was not the first to be registered with the county clerk, for as yet Mr. Mills has not done this, while the register of farm names shows the following entries: "Lost River Ranch," Francis J. Rowne, Bonanza. Filed November 16, 1911. "Spring Hill," E. Elvy, north of Merrill. Filed October 30, 1911. "Seven Springs Ranch," Edward Freuer, Poe Valley. Filed October 5, 1911. "Bedford Ranch," Edward Ray Freuer, Poe Valley. Filed November 25, 1911. "Clovelly Farm," Ray Freuer, Poe Valley. Filed April 16, 1913. "Dellcrest," H. P. Hoey, Crescent. Filed April 3, 1913.

Evans-Paul. License to wed was today issued to Dan Loy Evans and Olive Bessie Paul. Both are residents of Worden, the groom being a fireman.

AMATEURS SCORE A HIT IN SKIT

ONE-ACT COMEDY WRITTEN BY ONE OF THE TROUPE WAS OFFERING AT THE ORPHEUS THEATER LAST NIGHT

It was a well pleased audience that left the Orpheus theater last night after witnessing the production of "The Country Girl," by local amateurs. The members of the cast displayed histrionic ability in the manner in which they handled their lines and situations, and kept the house laughing. The skit, which has to do with a case of mistaken identity, was written by Mrs. Sam Garrett. In addition to furnishing the sprightly vehicle for the appearance, Mrs. Garrett also took the part of "Mary," a servant girl, and added much to the success of the play by her clever work. The other members of the cast were Mrs. A. Y. Tindall, Mrs. O. D. Matthews, Mrs. J. L. Cunningham, Florence Greeg, Charles Hutchinson, Rhinehart Motschenbacher and Stanley Smith, and they all carried their parts good. The bill will be repeated this evening.

Oregon Mothers' Meeting United Press Service PORTLAND, Oct. 29.—With several hundred delegates in attendance, and with a list of mothers highly qualified to discuss child life in all its phases, the Oregon Congress of Mothers is in annual session here today. The session will close tomorrow. One woman in every three in the pottery trade in Great Britain earns less than $2.40 a week.

"The Mutual Girl and Her Auntie" WOMAN AS MAN'S PURCHASING AGENT It is a fact long recognized by shrewd retailers and careful advertisers that woman is the world's spender. Her disbursements for family supplies are enormous. It is not the great industry, mercantile establishment or bank that puts into circulation the money that keeps the world going; it is the housewife. Remove her transactions from trade operations and stagnation would result. The industries, the mercantile institutions and the banks owe their prosperity to her. On the other hand they are her conveniences. Perhaps she handles only a small part of the income of the very rich, but the incomes of the very rich are at once drawn from the concerns to which she, either directly or indirectly, gives her patronage, and are, either directly or indirectly, invested in the concerns that supply her wants. She handles the largest part of the incomes of the well-to-do. She handles practically all the income of the poor. The man works and earns, generally speaking; the woman spends. How well she spends is a determining factor in the welfare of the community and the nation. As a rule, the man who does not consult his wife in regard to the home needs, who does not take her into his confidence concerning the business affairs, don't have much to spend, and I'm of the opinion that he ought not to have much to spend, for the reason that he don't know how to spend it judiciously. He is usually a "tight wad," and is not much account to anybody or anything. Of course, I am speaking more particularly of the good, sensible class of women, and women that are fast coming to the front in the business matters today. Many a woman in this city and community will cut out and paste up in her home The Mutual Girl and Her Auntie Page that the Herald will soon begin to publish, for future reference. "DADDY."

(Continued on page 4)