LITTLE ACTIVITY IN FRANCE; GERMANS ATTACK BRIDGES

United Press Service
PARIS, Nov. 27.—Heavy cannonading and intermittent infantry attacks continue everywhere along the line. In the Vosges region operations have been suspended, owing to the snow.

The Germans are very active at the northern end of the battle line. They are attempting again to cross the Yser.

Aviators have succeeded in bombing several German positions. Quantities of munitions and supplies have been destroyed in this way.

The communique today says:

The enemy's artillery fire slackened everywhere today. Two infantry attacks were made by the Germans to gain the bridges across the Yser, south of Dix Mude, but these were repulsed.

There is little fighting in the Aisne or in the Champagne districts. The trenches lost three days ago in the Argonne region were retaken today by infantry.

Rhims was violently bombed while the war correspondents of neutral countries visited the city.

United Press Service
BERLIN, Nov. 27.—"In the eastern theater, the battles are indecisive," says the official statement. "In the western front and in Argonne, we progressed further today."

French attacks in the vicinity of Ste. Mihiel were repulsed.

United Press Service
LONDON, Nov. 27.—A secret inquiry into the cause of the destruction of the dreadnaught Hulwark has been started. Experts are unable to explain the destruction on the theory of an accident, unless caused by deteriorated ammunitions, but this is unlikely in the light of frequent tests.

Rumors of a spy or submarine being responsible are in circulation.

United Press Service
LONDON, Nov. 27.—Lloyd George, speaking for the house of commons, described the financial breakdown as the result of the war as follows:

"For the moment, we can neither buy nor sell, though the whole world owes us money. America owes us about $5,000,000,000, but under the present circumstances we cannot do business."

CARRANZA SETS UP HIS CAPITAL

TROOPS ENTER VERA CRUZ, AND TWO GUNBOATS, PRACTICALLY THE COMPLETE MEXICAN NAVY, CONTROL THE PORT

United Press Service
VERA CRUZ, Nov. 27.—Carranza today formally established his government here. At least, Carranza's troops entered the city this morning, and the gunboats Bravo and Zaragoza are in the harbor, so he thus controls the customs.

Dispatches state that the capture of Tampico by the Villista troops is imminent. It is said the resistance there will probably be slight.

The Villistas already control the Panuco oil fields near Tampico.

United States Consul General John R. Shillman reached here today.

Late Mexico City advices say Zapta's subordinates, not Zapata, entered and took Mexico City from Carranza. As a result, Villa has postponed his entry into the city, in the hope of effecting a meeting with Zapata, so the two can enter together.

Siemens has a Chalmers.
The latest addition to our motoring class is John Siemens Jr., cashier of the First State and Savings bank. He reached here Thursday, overland from The Dalles, with the first 1915 Master Six Model Chalmers to be sold in Portland. He was accompanied from Portland by his brother, Holly Siemens of Seattle, who will visit his parents.

In the coal mine explosions last spring in West Virginia, when 180 lives were snuffed out in a moment, five boys were among the lost. The law of that state allows 14-year-old boys to work in mines and demands no proof of age, "except in cases of doubt," when a parent's affidavit fills all requirements.

The Eskimo pays his doctor his fee as soon as he arrives. If the patient recovers it is kept, if not it is returned.

Transfer of Passengers From the Van Dyck, Captured Off Brazil

Passengers of the British steamer Van Dyck, which was captured 200 miles off the mouth of the Amazon river by the German cruiser Karlsruhe, which with the cruiser Emden has been one of the German terrors of the sea, reached the United States with stories of danger and mutiny. More than 100 of them were transferred at sea from the Van Dyck to the steamer Ascencion by the cruiser's officers, and were taken to Sao Paulo. There they were transferred to a Brazilian steamer and sent to New York. The officers of the cruiser boarded the Van Dyck and announced she would soon be sunk. The passengers were given twenty-four hours to pack, whereupon they were removed in lifeboats to the other vessels, which had been held for the purpose by the Ascencion by the cruiser.

On the way to Sao Paulo the crew refused to serve food, but the German guards at the point of the bayonet threatened them. Later a plot to seize the vessels from the guards was hatched, but the Germans quickly squelched it. The passengers said the German officers and crew treated them with courtesy and really protected them against the British stewards of the Van Dyck on the trip to Sao Paulo.

GERMAN RELIEF IS DEFEATED AS WELL, PETROGRAD SAYS

United Press Service
PETROGRAD, Nov. 27.—It is declared that destruction or surrender were the certain fates confronting the Germans who surrendered in the present campaign.

Trains still continue to enter Warsaw with wounded and prisoners. It is estimated that there are now 50,000 German prisoners there.

Russians are clamoring for an official confirmation and full account of the great victory the Russians gained over the German forces in Poland.

Each detail as given out increases the extent of the victory.

It is declared that not only was the offensive movement of von Hindenberg's army crushed and his forces divided, but the relief army sent out by Germany under General von Mackensen was also defeated.

United Press Service
VIENNA, (via Berlin and London), Nov. 27.—According to Austrian official information, the fighting in Russian Poland has assumed the proportions of a continuous battle.

In Western Galicia the Austrians were repulsed by the Russians, who have made progress in the Carpathians near Colubra. The Russian's strong point is near Lazarevitch, and the Austrian attacking force took 1,300 prisoners, three guns and four ammunition wagons.

MEDFORD WINS GAME, 32 TO 6

MAKING A TOUCHDOWN IN THE FINAL HALF, KLAMATH COUNTY HIGH PREVENTS COMPLETE WHITEWASH

For the first time this season, the football team of Klamath County High School scored Thursday, when they made a touchdown from the Medford High School team. The score, though, was just about five times as much for Medford.

Though the score is lopsided, the game was one of interest to all who watched it. Every inch made by either team was fought bitterly by the other side, and considering the fact that they were bucking a heavier, faster and more experienced team, local people believe the high school players put up a brilliant fight.

LOCAL WOMAN CALLED BEYOND

WIFE OF COURT REPORTER RICHARDSON PASSES AWAY IN ILLINOIS AFTER A VERY LONG ILLNESS

Court Reporter R. M. Richardson has received the sad intelligence that his wife died Monday night at Evanston, Illinois, following a prolonged illness. It was in the hope of curing the malady that the Richardsons left here about a year ago. Specialist after specialist was consulted, but all in vain.

At the time he received the sad tidings, Mr. Richardson was in Lakeview. He telegraphed at once to delay the funeral, pending his arrival,

BENSON IS FETED BY LAKE CO. BAR

ATTORNEYS AND COUNTY OFFICIALS HONOR LOCAL MAN WHO GOES ON THE SUPREME COURT BENCH

Circuit Judge H. L. Benson and Court Reporter Richardson are home from Lakeview, where they held a session of court. This was the last trip the Judge makes to Lakeview as Circuit Judge.

In honor of the revered jurist who is soon to grace the supreme bench, the Lake County Bar Association and the officials of Lake county tendered him a banquet Thursday night. At this County Judge Daly presided, and eulogistic speeches were made by many.

LOCAL COUPLE WED THURSDAY

MARRIAGE PERFORMED THANKSGIVING BY REV. RICHARDSON, WHEN MISS NINA NOEL BECOMES MRS. ANGLIN

In the presence of only a few relatives, Rev. Ernest C. Richards last night united in matrimony Miss Nina Noel, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Noel, and Harry Anglin. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey R. Campbell.

The couple will reside here, where the groom has been superintendent of construction work at the court house and county library. The bride was a member of the class of 1914 of the Klamath County High School, and is well and favorably known here.

Stamp Documents

More of the War Tax Hits Home to the Citizens

County Clerk De Lap has received the following communication from Milton A. Miller, collector of internal revenue for Oregon, regarding revenue stamps on documents:

Your attention is hereby called to act of congress dated October 22, 1914, entitled An Act to Increase the Internal Revenue and for Other Purposes, and in order that you may be apprised of the provisions thereof, insofar as it relates to the stamping of documents, etc., I enclose herewith a copy of Schedule A referred to in said act, which explains itself.

For your further information, the following is an extract from treasury decision No. 2042, of October 31, 1914:

"All deeds or documents delivered to the grantee subsequent to December 1, 1914, should be stamped before delivery. Any such document delivered to any other party than the grantee prior to December 1, 1914, and which does not reach the hands of the grantee prior to December 1, 1914, will, upon delivery after that date, require to bear the documentary stamp."

Section 13 of the act above referred to also provides:

"That it shall not be lawful to record or register any instrument, paper or document required by law to be stamped unless a stamp or stamps of the proper amount shall have been affixed and cancelled in the manner prescribed by law."

Bonds, debentures or certificates of indebtedness of any association, company or corporation, on each $100 of face value or fraction thereof, 5 cents.

On each original issue of certificates of stock, whether on organization or reorganization, on each $100

LOCAL MAN MAY BE BADLY HURT LOCAL STORES SHUT AT 6 P. M.

S. E. OWENS, WHO WAS SHOT IN PECULIAR MANNER IN NEVADA BELIEVED TO HAVE RESIDED IN KLAMATH

The S. E. Owens mentioned in a Rochester dispatch to the Sacramento Union is believed to be S. E. Owens who conducted the Owens Floral company, and had the greenhouse across the railroad track. Friends of the Owens' say they spoke several times of a claim near Indian Peak.

While holding out his hand to point out a mine to his wife, S. E. Owens, a prospector of Indian Peak, was shot and badly wounded when a stone fell on and discharged his hammerless shotgun. His wrist was so badly shattered that his hand was only prevented from dropping off by a thread of skin. Owens saddled his horse, but being unable to ride, was compelled to walk five miles to the home of Gay Ludwick for medical treatment. Before starting first aid relief to prevent his bleeding to death was administered by his wife.

Several of the girls who are taking domestic science there have made this mock mince-ment since school has been in progress, and have successfully fooled their parents with it.

AGREEMENT IS FINALLY REACHED BY THE CLOTHING, DRY GOODS AND CROCKERY MEN TO THAT EFFECT

After two years of wrangling and bitterness, the local clothing, dry goods and shoe stores have decided to close their establishments at 6 o'clock p. m. during the week, except Saturday. This is hailed with delight by the clerks, and as yet there has been heard no word of disapproval from the public.

The new closing hours go into effect Tuesday. According to the agreement the stores are to close at 6 o'clock every afternoon except Saturday, three days before July Fourth, and a week before Christmas.

They will all close all day on New Years and Christmas days. On Labor Day, July Fourth and Thanksgiving, the stores will close at noon.

An old piano has been used at the Bath (Me.) high school for more than forty years. It is said that when Emma Eames was a school girl she walked all over its keyboard because she did not like its tone.

Out of 2,500 barristers in the Paris law courts, 2,000 have been mobilized.

'Its Business'—Stone

Commissioner Says Board Gets Back Within Law

"We had to do it to get back under the law," said State Fish and Game Commissioner Charles F. Stone, discussing the recent meeting of the new commission. Stone returned last night from Portland.

"Our work was largely undoing the work done by the board at its February meeting, following the resignations of several of us," he continued. "At that time, W. L. Finley was taken from the position of game warden and made superintendent of biological survey and educational work, and R. E. Clanton was made superintendent of hatcheries. We replaced these men as game and fish warden, abolishing their former offices, as we also did the office of clerk of the board."

"Under the former regime, these men all conducted separate offices at a considerable expense. This, we believe, is needless, and by cutting down in this way we are saving $12,000 a year of the sportsmen's money."

"We feel that we are now back under the letter of the law. If these offices are necessary, we suggest that the matter be taken up with the legislature, that body to also make provision for salaries."

"Politics has no place in this," concluded Stone. "We didn't take this step except to comply with the game law as it stands. We are not 'sore' at anybody, nor were we making any attempt to get even with anyone. We are doing our duty."
