

HOLIDAY GIFTS

We will be asked for more practical and useful presents this year than ever before

WE HAVE PUT IN STOCK A SPECIAL ASSORTMENT Cravats, Hosiery, Combination Boxes, Refeers, Smoking Jackets, Gloves and the rest, and we will ask you to make your selections at this Fine Men's Store, where men's likes and dislikes are known and anticipated. We have a fine stock of Men's Goods of the most acceptable sort.

LET US RELIEVE YOUR CHRISTMAS WORRIES

Leading Clothiers

The Holiday Season Will Bring Many Social Functions Refinement in Dress Is Not a Matter of Price But of Choice

Step in and select a Royal Tailored to Your Measure Suit and Overcoat

From $16 to $35

A Perfect Fit and Satisfaction or No Sale

See the Fine Woolen Display

Anything by Mail
You want for Xmas. We will deliver postage prepaid

K. K. K. STORE

19TH ANNUAL IS NEXT ON TAPIS

JOHN HOUSTON'S BIG NEW YEARS EVE MASK BALL WILL BE GIVEN ON A MORE ELABORATE SCALE THAN EVER

Once again Houston's annual New Year's Eve mask ball begins to loom up. This year it will be the nineteenth annual, and it's so close to the XX mark that John plans to make this year's affair even better than before—which, to say the least, will be rambling somewhat.

The ball will be given in Houston's opera house, where these dances have been held since the first one was given, in 1895. Prizes are to be given for the most original character, the best sustained character, and the most comic costume.

"Smoothbore" is "Konstabelle"
In place of John G. Schallock, who is seriously ill and is to be removed to Eugene, Fred Morley was Wednesday appointed constable by the county court. A lengthy petition, requesting his appointment, was presented.

Town Topics

A in Chicago.
According to signs that have been posted in Hot Springs addition, Canal Road is no more. Instead that thoroughfare is known as Michigan avenue, the council changing the name after Bob Alexander and other property owners made request.

Mrs. Worden Improves.
Mrs. William S. Worden, who underwent a surgical operation at the Blalckburn hospital, is improving nicely.

In on Business.
Walter Eggerth was in today from the Fairco ranch at Mt. Laki. Mr. and Mrs. Eggerth plan to leave in a short time for Pendleton. For a couple of years Eggerth was night manager of the local Western Union office.

To Southern California.
Mr. and Mrs. George McDonald left this morning for Southern California, where they will spend the winter months.

Goss Calls on Trade.
J. L. Goss, a well known Chicago salesman, is in Klamath Falls, paying his regular visit to the drug trade.

Aid Society Meets.
The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will hold a special meeting at the home of Mrs. M. S. West in Hot Springs addition Friday afternoon. At that time, the ladies are to turn in the fancy work and other articles prepared for the coming Presbyterian bazaar, so they can be placed on display.

No Heat at High School.
Owing to a disarrangement in the heating apparatus at the High School the students enjoyed a holiday today.

Duncan Joins Benedicts.
Deputy Prosecuting Attorney William M. Duncan returned last night from a visit in the South. He was accompanied by Mrs. Duncan, who prior to a marriage ceremony performed at Memphis, Tenn., in November, was Miss Eva Booker. The couple will reside on Conger avenue, the groom having purchased the B. St. Geo. Bishop property.

Easy for You.
The easy-payment plan in buying Christmas gifts has taken the worry out of Holiday shopping. Now that you have decided to buy sensible Christmas gifts, let us beg you not to wait until the last minute. Take this tip, and act. Come to "The Home of Sensible Christmas Gifts" and make your selection while the assortment is complete, and just say to us: "Reserve it and deliver it without extra cost the day before Christmas."
WILLIS-JOHNSTONE CO.

Princess Ketaw Kaluntucky, Now Mrs. Richard Croker

The marriage of Richard Croker, once all powerful boss of Tammany hall, to Ketaw Kaluntucky, a princess of the Cherokees, who is known to New York, where she has lived for years, as Miss Beulah Benton Edmondson, suffrage worker and lecturer, was as great a surprise to his old political friends as to the general public. When it became known that he was to wed it was believed that his old housekeeper, Mrs. Davidson, was to be the bride. Then word came from Memphis, Tenn., that Miss Willie M. Thompson, roommate of Miss Edmondson at the Studio Club building in New York, had sent a message home telling the facts.

Twenty-four hours before the wedding on Thanksgiving Day Richard Croker at his home in New York denied himself to all callers, and no one would admit or deny that the wedding was to take place Thanksgiving Day. In the record of the topees of the tribal chiefs, Mrs. Croker is the daughter of the Princess Sequoyah, who was the daughter of Chief Sequoy, in his day a formidable warrior and wise man of his race. About her first appearance in New York that attracted notice was when she appeared in the big suffrage parade of May 13, 1913. She rode on horseback attired in the manner of the Indian princess. Her features are characteristic of her race, somewhat softened, so that she is considered very good looking.

She said she was introduced to Mr. Croker in Kansas City at the time of the convention that nominated William Jennings Bryan for the presidency for the second time. The father of Miss Edmondson went to Oklahoma long before it was open to homesteading. The little girl that was born to him and the Princess Sequoyah was sent first to the Indian school at Tulequah, Okla. Her father was prosperous and the girl ambitious to study, so at the age of 16 she was sent to the Chicago University, where she made a full course. Later she attended another institution of learning in Boston.

Her father left her well-to-do. She now has a farm of 640 acres near Muskogean, and has an orchard of 1,000 apple trees. From the first all her energies and her attainments were devoted to the betterment of her race. She made many arguments before United States officials for the Indians. She devoted herself particularly to the Cherokee language, and after inventing its alphabet translated many of the songs and legends of her tribe. This is one of her translated Cherokee verses:

Story of the Cherokee Women
(By One of Them)
Then from all parts of the nation,
From humblest homes and richest,
Came the bright-faced Indian maidens,
Maidens fair and maidens dusky,
Maidens short and tall and willowy,
Came they to this seat of learning;
Drank they from this sparkling fountain,
And with thirsty souls unalaked
Longed for more of Hebe's potion—
Longer, and all their lives kept
longing;
And in time sent back their daughters
That their lives might be so sweetened
And their days and deeds be fruitful.

To those who have seen Mr. Croker recently he shows little signs of age. No one would take him for 71 years old. Some of his friends when they first heard of Mr. Croker's coming marriage, said that he was following in the footsteps of Thomas C. Platt and Chauncey M. Depew.

Shirts made to your measure at K.K.K. Store. See the samples, 2-10t

Orpheus
Klamath's Klassy Show House

"The Jackpot Club,"
Thrilling Special in Two Reels

"Home,"
Remarkable Scenes of the Vatican and Other Points of Interest.

"For the Hand of Jane,"
Comedy

Admission 10c

MATINEE EVERY SATURDAY AND SUNDAY AT 2:30

Coupons for silverware given Monday, Tuesday and Thursday.

AMATEUR PERFORMANCE ON WEDNESDAY NIGHT

MOVING PICTURES

"The Vampire's Trail," the first two reels of the "Kalliem Alice Joyce" series, will be shown at the Temple tonight and tomorrow. This series of pictures, featuring Alice Joyce, will be shown every two weeks on Thursday and Friday. But instead of being a long drawn out story, each two reels will be a concluded story in itself. The price of admission will still remain the same, 10 cents.

"Their Fairy Play" is the title of a big two part comedy number to be exhibited at the Star theater tonight. The picture portrays the comical way in which a family of ruralites and their neighbors interpret "The Sleeping Beauty." The attending mishaps are too funny for words. They will move you to tears—of laughter. Some of the old-time funmakers are seen in this comedy offering, among them being Josie Sadler, Billy Quirk, Hughie Mack and a score of others. A Biograph comedy and a Selig drama completes the program.

Ever Get the Blues?
Long winter days and evenings are easily made shorter with music. Second hand instruments, $20.00 and up. New Player Pianos, $295, and up. Why not see them anyway at SHEPHERD PIANO DEPOT, next door to postoffice.

Bids are to be taken December 15 on the Portland million dollar postoffice.

DAY OR NIGHT

IF YOU ARE BUSY DURING THE DAY YOU CAN MAKE AN APPOINTMENT AT NIGHT, AND WITH OUR MODERN EQUIPMENT WE GUARANTEE JUST AS GOOD A PICTURE.

WE CAN PLEASE YOU. NO Tiresome Waits.

MATINEE EVERY SATURDAY AND SUNDAY AT 2:30

COTTAGE STUDIO
ARCHIE MENLINK, Proprietor

FOUR BALSAM—A set of bats for basket good as new, cost $15, will sell cheap or trade for hay. W. A. DeWitt.

Subscribe for the Herald, 10 cents a month

Theater Guide

Houston's Metropolitan Amusements

HOUSTON'S OPERA HOUSE
DARK

STAR THEATER

"Their Fairy Play,"
Vitagraph Comedy in Two Parts.
Featuring Josie Sadler, Billy Quirk and Hughie Mack.

"Somebody's Sister,"
Selig Drama

"Song of Sunny Italy,"
Biograph Comedy-Drama
Any Seat 10c

Coming Saturday and Sunday—
CECILIA LOFTUS

"A LADY OF QUALITY"
Five Parts

Matinees every Saturday and Sunday at 2:30

TEMPLE THEATER

"The Vampire's Trail,"
Alice Joyce, in Two Reels

"Slippery Slim Gets Cured," Essanay Comedy

"The Broken Rose,"
Biograph Drama

ADMISSION ALWAYS 10 CENTS
MATINEE DAILY AT 2:30
ALL LICENSED PICTURES

MERRILL OPERA HOUSE
Merrill, Ore.
MOTION PICTURES TUESDAY AND SATURDAY

Really Delicious
Is the Flavor of Our "Morning Glory" Coffee

Try it the next time, and it will gain you for a friend. The use of one pound will convince you that it is the only coffee you want in your home.

Steel-cut in "waxlike" packages, 35c per pound, three pounds for $1.

Sunset Grocery
AT 10TH AND MAIN
Phone 200