

FRENCH GUNS MORE EFFECTIVE THAN "BERTHAS"

BELIEVED NEW GUNS ARE RECEIVED

Cannonading Operations Are Favoring Allies in Nearly Every Place. Fighting Heavy Again Through Alsace, and Big Guns Shell the Argonne Trenches—Turks Report a Victory Over British.

United Press Service
PARIS, Dec. 7.—The French artillery is outraging the German guns, and is proving more effective everywhere along the line. The latest statements regarding this are evidences that new guns have arrived, and are having their effect.

The allies are on the offensive almost the full length of the line. Heavy firing is reported through Alsace. The German trenches near the Argonne forest are being shelled by the artillery, and the allies are also attacking there by mining operations.

New positions taken along the Yser by the allies yesterday are being held.

United Press Service
CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 7.—An official statement says a British landing force between the Tigris and Euphrates, which attempted to take the Turkish positions there, was repulsed with heavy loss. The Turks captured machine guns and considerable ammunition.

TWO CASES ARE OUT OF COURT

DISMISSALS GRANTED IN THE BURSROUGH CASE AND IN THE ACTION OF MARTIN AGAINST CHITWOOD AND WIFE

Upon motion of District Attorney Irwin, Circuit Judge Benson today dismissed the indictment against Fred Bursrough, who attacked his wife with a butcherknife in a road camp near Fort Klamath over a year ago. Unavailability of witnesses was the reason given.

An action by Alex Martin against H. C. Chitwood and wife was also dismissed. This was done at the instance of J. C. Rutenic, plaintiff's attorney.

Sims One 'John Doe'

Merrill Man Charged With Theft of Indian Horse

The identity of one of the "John Does" indicted by the grand jury in known. This is William Sims of Merrill, who is indicted for the larceny of a mare.

The indictment charges that Sims in September, 1913, took a mare belonging to Harrison Brown, a Klamath Indian.

Others indicted by the grand jury are: William Jonas—Hape. Alleged to have been committed September 15, on Ruth Lemmon.

Al Carrington—Perjury. Alleged to have been committed March 11, 1914, in trial of Baobe vs. Hoyt, equity suit before C. F. Stone as referee.

A. G. Loyd, alias Pumphord—Uttering a forged check. Alleged to have been committed June 20, 1914.

Charles Mender and Fred Bailey—Burglary. Alleged to have been committed July 16, by entering basement of the I. P. Tabor bar.

Belgian Soldiers Trying to Keep Warm in Blankets

The winter, which peace advocates hoped would tend to put an end to the great war, has come to the men in the field in Europe. This photograph shows how cold it is at Ypres, in the north of France. The Belgians shown are holding their heavy blankets closely about them to keep from freezing in the biting wind. The men go about all day with these blankets pulled about their overcoats, because they would freeze if they had no such protection. When the snow is deep their suffering will be much worse.

Would Violate Neutrality
United Press Service
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 7.—According to an announcement by the state department, President Wilson has decided that the building of submarines for belligerents by American manufacturers would be a violation of neutrality. As a result, Charles Schwab will not carry out the intention to build submarines.

W. C. T. U. to Meet
The regular meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. B. S. Grigsby, at Eleventh and Bush streets. Members and friends are cordially invited to attend.

Some farmers in Germany use roosters for hatching eggs and raising chicks. They take better care of the chicks than the hens do, even fighting hawks to protect them.

QUIET WEDDING SATURDAY NIGHT

DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. WILL T. LEE BECOMES THE BRIDE OF ALEX SHIVE, PROMINENT LOCAL MAN

A wedding that comes as a surprise to their many friends was solemnized Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will T. Lee, when Miss Pearl Lee and Alex Shive were united by Rev. J. S. Stubblefield. Captain J. P. Lee and Miss Agnes Lee were present in addition to the immediate relatives of the bride.

Sunday afternoon a dinner party was given in honor of the newlyweds by Mr. and Mrs. Lee. This was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Mills, Mrs. Fred Melhase, Mrs. A. F. Salfickey, Miss Hazel Barnes, Miss Agnes Lee and Thad G. McHattan.

The couple will reside here, where the groom is interested in the Shive grocery. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Shive, pioneer residents of Klamath county, and, like his bride, has a wide circle of friends.

TICKET SALE IS STARTED TODAY

CHANCE FOR SOME YOUNG LADY TO GO TO THE FAIR AND RETURN FREE OF CHARGE—ACTS REHEARSING HARD

Today at noon the sale of tickets for the vaudeville performance to be given by local talent for the Chamber of Commerce was started. It is expected that the sales will be brisk, as a round trip to San Francisco is to be the prize offered the girl making the biggest sale of tickets.

This contest is open to all young ladies in the county. The prize is well worth striving for, and the interest being manifested in the performance Christmas night and the night following shows that there will be a good market for the admission pastebords.

A new number for the program is a skit taken from Sheridan's great comedy, "The Rivals." This will be staged by Miss Pearl Boivin, Miss Dorothy Weeks, H. Roland Glatysier and George C. Blower.

SATTERLEE IS WED IN DENVER

BRIDE OF WELL KNOWN INVESTOR IN KLAMATH REALTY IS A TALENTED VIOLINIST—WILL LIVE IN LONG BEACH

The following announcement of the marriage of J. P. Satterlee appears in the Long Beach Telegram. Mr. Satterlee is well known in Klamath Falls, as he has made yearly visits here for some time, and is heavily interested in both city and county property.

Miss Charlotte Kingore and John Paul Satterlee were married in Denver Colo., at the home of the bride's father, M. H. Kingore, 1422 St. Paul street, on Saturday, November 21st, by the Rev. Frost Crapt.

Miss Kingore has but recently completed a trip around the world with the Jotham Bixby Jr.'s, whom she left in Boston and journeyed on to Denver with small Margaret Bixby in charge, leaving Mr. and Mrs. Bixby in Boston planning a tour of the Eastern cities before their return to Long Beach. In Denver Miss Kingore was met by Mr. Satterlee, and the wedding followed.

Mr. Satterlee is in the city today, coming here to prepare his home on West Ninth street for his bride, and also to dine with his family in Los Angeles on Thanksgiving Day, Mrs. Satterlee remaining in Denver with her small charge until the Bixbys shall come on and again take her under their parental wing.

As Miss Kingore, the bride was known throughout the state for her musical talent, the violin being her chosen instrument. She was a member of the Dominant Club, an exclusive musical organization of Los Angeles, and other clubs. She has charm, beauty, a certain dash in style and altogether a striking personality. Mr. Satterlee is a civil engineer; has contracted several large Eastern engineering projects and is a Cornell graduate.

Mr. and Mrs. Satterlee will make their home in this city, and it is expected that the bride will be here for the holidays, which they will spend in their own home in this city.

Marshfield will establish a coffee club and free employment bureau.

THREE CITIZENS ARE MADE TODAY

FULL NATURALIZATION PAPERS ARE ISSUED IN CIRCUIT COURT TO ENGLISHMEN AND A DUTCH WOMAN

John Fallon and John Henry Angore are no longer Englishmen. Today they were issued full naturalization papers.

Helen Josephine Hehmann also became a citizen today, forever foregoing allegiance to Queen Wilhelmina.

Oregon has seven candy factories and 257 bakeries.

TRAVEL SCRIP IS ISSUED HERE

K. K. K. STORE AND REGAL SHOE STORE ARE NOW PREPARED TO GIVE A "MILE OF TRAVEL FOR A DOLLAR IN TRADE"

Hereafter, for every dollar spent with the K. K. K. Store, the Regal Shoe Store and the Hotel Hall, its cigar store or grill, a mile in travel will be given. These concerns have signed up with the American Scrip company, and today began their scrip issuances.

This scrip is acceptable for fares on any first class railroad or steamship line. It can also be used whenever the holder wishes.

The Dalles postoffice building is to cost $75,000.

GERMANS MOVING FAST THRU POLAND

United Press Service
LONDON, Dec. 7.—Taking Lodz and advancing twenty-five miles on both flanks, the German troops operating in Poland are gaining control of the main railroads leading to Warsaw, and threatening the Russian communication on the southern front.

If the success of the Teutonic forces continue, the Russian movement of offense against Czenstochowo must be abandoned.

This may also necessitate the withdrawal of all Russian troops there may be in the vicinity of Cracow.

United Press Service
BERLIN (wireless via Sayville, N. J.), Dec. 7.—Today's official statement says the Germans took Lodz yesterday, the Russians retreating after suffering heavy losses.

The German troops are reported retreating along the Yser.

United Press Service
VIENNA (via Berlin), Dec. 7.—The following is the official statement just issued:

The results of the battles in Poland continue in our favor, and many prisoners are being taken. In the southern theater our troops are also winning, while continued successes are reported from the west and southwest at Arandjelowitz and in the vicinity of Gorn.

At Jmilandwatz the enemy has been reinforced and the battle for the investment continues.

COMMITTEE TO SWAT POVERTY

ORGANIZATION BEING FORMED BY LOCAL WOMEN TO DISTRIBUTE FOOD AND FUEL IF PEOPLE NEED THEM

Having in mind the poor people, local women are organizing to carry on relief work this winter. They will especially work to see that deserving people are supplied with food and fuel, although they will also distribute clothing.

Contributions toward this work can be left at the Klamath Chamber of Commerce.

MANY VACANT SEATS TODAY

SMALLEST ATTENDANCE IN YEAR AT OPENING OF CONGRESS. PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE READ TOMORROW

United Press Service
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 7.—When the Sixty-fourth congress convened at noon today, there were more vacant seats than on any opening day in many years.

Today was devoted to routine matters. Tomorrow President Wilson will read his message.

The leaders in the two houses have cleared the tracks as much as possible in order to rush through before the holidays such appropriations as are usually unopposed.

Secretary McAdoo submitted the treasury estimates for the government's expenses for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1915. The total is $1,090,775,134, which is $4,000 under the expenses of the present year.

The Medford postoffice is to be built of Jackson county limestone or sandstone.

John McLeannan of District No. 16, at noon announced that a resolution would be offered at a special convention of miners here for taking such action.

The resolution will set forth that the Colorado strikers are willing to return to work under the terms of the three year peace plan outlined by President Wilson.

END COLORADO MINE STRIKES

CONFERENCE DECIDES UPON THIS AFTER A SESSION IN DENVER—MEN RETURN TO WORK UNDER WILSON'S PLAN

United Press Service
DENVER, Dec. 7.—The strike of the Colorado miners will be declared off tomorrow morning.

After a conference of the international executive officers, President

Club Will Help Poor

Local Relief Work Taken Up by the Library Club

In order to assist needy persons in the city, and to have an organization through which the relief work can be carried on to the best advantage, the Woman's Library Club has just added a philanthropic department to their other club work.

The committee in charge of this work is composed of Mrs. Charles Graves (chairman), Mrs. A. Bainter, Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg, Mrs. E.

H. DuFaut, Mrs. C. V. Fisher and Mrs. H. R. Harrison.

It is the intention of this department to collect clothing, etc., that people feel free to contribute. These will then be distributed through the society to persons who are in a condition where they need such help.

Donations of this kind can be left at the Library Club building, with Miss Hawkins. Through the medium of the department they will be distributed to alleviate suffering much closer home than Belgium.