Notice of Sheriff's Sale By virtue of an execution on foreclosure duly issued by the clerk of the circuit court of the county of Klamath, state of Oregon, dated the 14th day of November, 1914, in a certain suit in the circuit court for said county and state, wherein Fairbanks, Morse & Company, a private corporation, as plaintiff, recovered judgment against Chas. W. Sherman for the sum of three thousand nine hundred and forty-three and 88/100 dollars, with interest thereon from November 7, 1914, at the rate of 6 per cent per annum, together with the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars attorney's fees, and costs and disbursements for the sum of ten dollars and sixty cents, which said judgment was enrolled and docketed in the clerk's office of said court in said county, on the 7th day of November, 1914.

Velvet as a separate waist material is a new departure this season, that has been welcomed with open arms. It is especially attractive in combination with lace, net or chiffon, and almost all of the velvet waists show transparent sleeves. The craze for metallic effects has resulted in a lavish use of gold and silver lace as waist trimming, and they are very smart indeed on the velvet bodices. A charming substitute for the gold metallic effect which, alas, tarnishes all too soon, is an all-over lace exactly the shade of gold. Several artistic waists using this lace for deep yoke and sleeves while the lower portion is of plain chiffon in the newest shades of Russian green, tete de nigre, or corbeau blue are indispensable additions to a wardrobe which relies upon a suit and separate blouse to furnish a dressy afternoon toilette.

Indeed, so endless and fetching are the many styles and materials this season that it would be hard not to find some one blouse to please even the most perverse. So artistic and well done is the workmanship and so really superior are the fabrics used for most of these confections also, that it is really a thrifty person who spends most of her money wastefully this winter.

Lovely tub waists in washable satin, crepe de chine and taffeta are charming in softest shades of pink, blue,
