NOT A CONCERN ON THIS PAGE THAT WILL NOT HELP THE HOMES OF THIS CITY TO SAVE MONEY PATRONIZE THE REGULAR ADVERTISER—HE IS A LIVE CONCERN

AUNTIE—Lucille, you phone right down to a transfer man and tell them I want my trunk taken down to the train at once. I almost forgot that, and the train will be leaving in about half an hour. Hurry, Lucille, or I will be late.

LUCILLE—Now, Auntie, do not get excited. I know Joe Moore, and if I phone him to come for your trunk you need have no fear, he will have it there. He runs the only bus to and from the trains, and he has some teams always in waiting for just these emergency cases, and he is very reliable, and makes it his business to attend to all these matters promptly.

AUNTIE—Oh, Lucille, is he the man who conducts and runs the bus at the trains?

LUCILLE—Yes, Auntie, that's the same man who owns the Western Transfer, and he does moving in fact, he makes that one of his special features and he also does general hauling of all kinds, and teaming. Oh, he does a big business, and is well liked, for he tries to please everybody.

AUNTIE—Well, Lucille, my girl, don't stand there too long, for I want my trunk taken down.

LUCILLE—Never mind, Auntie, I will phone them. Let's see, his phone is—187, office—and the residence phone 266. Hello! Is this the Western Transfer company? Well will you send a team right down here at once and get Auntie's trunk? She wants to leave on this morning's train. (Answer—Be there in 5 minutes).

MORAL—If you want the job done quickly and right and seasonable, call for the Western Transfer Company—Joe Moore.

SANTA CLAUS TO BE A BUSY MAN IN KLAMATH FALLS THIS EVENING

In addition to his other duties, such as calling on all the good children in the universe, Santa Claus has quite a little bunch of employment lined out for his stay in Klamath Falls. Besides his chimney descents into the homes of all good children—and for the past two days at least, they have all been angels, he has a number of Christmas trees to visit tonight, as Christmas exercises are to be held in several of the local churches. With a special four-piece orchestra and with a chorus of twenty adults to support the children in the choral numbers, the Christmas exercises at

Grace M. E. Church tomorrow night will prove highly enjoyable. "Waiting for Santa Claus" is the cantata to be given, and the program follows: Opening Chorus Solo—"George and Tower"—Wayne Keese "Planning Details"—Clara Calkins Solo and chorus—"He's Fooling You"—Frank Turpin Solo—"Grandma's Song"—Mrs. Turner "Ring All the Bells"—Chorus Solo and chorus—"The Angel's Lullaby"—Audrey Roberts "Ding Bat"—Boys' chorus

Solo—"Jack's Christmas Present"—R. Mutschenbacher "The Fairies' Song"—Four Little Girls "Joy, Joy, Joy"—Chorus "The Two Dolls"—Walton Sisters "Koko's Song"—Mr. Chilcote "Santa Claus is Coming"—Chorus "Santa Claus"—Santa and chorus "Goodbye"—Santa chorus At the Presbyterian church, preceding the tree, there will be a program rendered by the Sunday school children. The older members will produce Kate Douglas Wiggin's "The Birds' Christmas Carol," their rehearsals being directed by Miss Jessie Telford. Those to take part are: Dorothy Delzell, Ernest Coates, Henry Gerber, Will Hagelstein, Hortense Hogue, Mary Ball, Ruby Hayden, Rex La Prairie, Ruth Ball, Elsie Steinman, Pearl Dow, John Johnston, Marion Masten, Gertrude Stubblefield, Dave Campbell, Loulae Coates, Mercedes Boyd, Charles Johnston. The beginners who will sing are Constance Shallock, Bonita Keese, Elizabeth Graves Faith Kimball, Mercedes Boyd, Elizabeth Dorr, Dorothy Wilson, Gertrude Wrd, Blanche Wrd, Rita Letlard, Johnny Delzell, Jeanette McCready, Kathleen Malloy, Marguerite Cummings, Freddie Quiltlitch, Lucille Rogers, Gene Rogers. The Christian church program will be as follows: Music by the orchestra. Luke 2: 7-20, inclusive—C. C. Calvin, Sunday School Superintendent. Prayer—S. D. Harlan, Pastor Music by Double Quartet. Song by Christmas Fairy, who suddenly appears where a snow ball had been. Recitation—"Under the Stars One Night." "At Christmas"—Song by the School. "Christmas Arithmetic"—An exercise given by four boys. "The Song, the Star and the Story"—An exercise by three girls. Music by Double Quartet. "The Discoverer"—Recitation by Charles House. "What Can I Do?"—Recitation by Edna Dunbar. "A Good Will Band"—Recitation by William Clark. Recitation—"Keeping Christmas"—Sleep, Baby, Sleep—Lullaby by three little tots. "Our Gifts"—Drill by nine girls. "Dear Little Stranger"—Dorothy Elliott. Song—"Little Star" "In Bethlehem Long Ago"—Song—The Sunday School. The following exercises will be held at the Baptist Church. Song by the Sunday School—"Joy to the World."

Prayer—Judge J. B. Griffith. Address by Pastor Simmons. Recitation—"Thrice Welcome"—Francis Reed. Song—"Dear Little Daughter"—Junior Class of Girls. Recitation—"Santa's Assistant"—Master Dwain DeLap. Recitation—"When Christmas is Near"—By Three Little Girls. Song—"Luther's Cradle Song"—By Beginner's Class. Recital—"God's Son"—Earl Edsli. Song—"Christ - Asleep"—By Young Ladies' Class. Recitation—"What Shall the Bells Say?"—By Four Little Girls. Duet—"Holy Night." Recitation—"The Christmas Carol"—Mrs. Griffin. Closing Song—"Christmas Joy"—By School. In addition to this work, Santa has another job in store for him on Christmas Day. This will be at the White Pelican Hotel, where he will distribute candies from the big tree to all the kiddies who attend. This will start at 1:30. At its conclusion, Santa will lead his little friends to the Orpheus Theater, where a special free matinee will be given for them.

It won't be a real lively Christmas Day without some new Player Piano Rolls Shepherd Piano Co.
