

German Submarines Sunk Raiding Dover

United Press Service
 LONDON, Jan. 13.—It is reported that two German submarines today attempted to raid Dover, England. They were sunk by coast defense batteries, says the story.

The admiralty will make no statement regarding this affair.

The newspapers, though, are inclined to believe it. All of the papers today printed long despatches from Dover, claiming that both submarines were hit and sunk by the land batteries.

According to the Star, the submarines were sighted when they were well outside the harbor entrance. They were not fired on until within range.

Both craft disappeared when the salvo from the forts struck them, and the gunners are confident they were sunk.

WHAT THE WAR COSTS NATIONS

FEARFUL TOLL OF LIFE AND OF MONEY IS EXACTED BY THE TITANIC STRUGGLE—IN PROGRESS FIVE MONTHS

Statisticians have estimated that five months of the greatest war of history have cost the nations involved 6,000,000 men (killed, wounded and captured), and $7,000,000,000. These figures are subdivided as follows:

- Losses:
- Great Britain—Eight hundred officers killed, 4,000 wounded, 15,000 men killed, 60,000 wounded, 25,000 missing.
 - France—Total casualties, 1,100,000, of whom 250,000 have been killed.
 - Belgium—Thirty thousand killed, 53,000 wounded, 35,000 captured.
 - Serbia—Total casualties 170,000; said by Austria to have been captured 80,000.
 - Germany—Two hundred and fifty thousand killed, 850,000 wounded, 400,000 missing.
 - Austria—Total casualties, 1,500,000, of whom 160,000 have been killed.
- Expenses:
- Great Britain—Two hundred and twenty-five million dollars a month, a total of $1,225,000,000 at the end of the year.
 - France—Three hundred million a month, a total of $1,500,000,000.
 - Russia—Three hundred and fifty million dollars a month, a total of $1,750,000,000.
 - Germany—Three hundred million dollars a month, a total of $1,500,000,000, in addition to paying the expenses of her ally, Turkey.
 - Austria—Estimated to total $1,000,000,000.

In addition, all the warring nations are said to have lost perhaps as much as they have spent by the paralyzation of commerce and industry. Owing to this tremendous cost, financial authorities say that the war must end within the next five months.

A LITTLE SPORTING GOSSIP

By Hal Sheridan

United Press Service
 NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—A bunch of fistic fans gathered around a table in one of the chief fanning places a few nights ago and began to talk of the famous punches.

"Well, I have seen a lot of 'em," drawled a Californian, who is visiting here, "but I think the best one ever pulled was by Young Corbett in the last round of his battle with Terry McGovern. Terry was coming in like he always did, head down and blazing away with both hands. Corbett pulled back and shot his left out just as Terry rushed in. The blow caught Terry flush on the neck behind the ear and he whirled head over heels in the air and landed flat. He got up on one knee and grimmed and we all thought he was resting, taking advantage of the count, but when he made no move to get up the referee tolled off ten, we knew he was gone. He was clear out. I've seen him bowled over, but this bird did a complete loop."

Another lad spoke up and he had a new one on Spider Kelly.

"I remember one night when a promoter in San Francisco asked Spider to get a lad to substitute for a lightweight in a bout.

"What do you want for the boy?" the promoter asked Kelly.

"A yard and a half," says Spider, which he meant for $150. The promoter agreed and Spider's boy got the fight. But he got an awful beating along with it. About the fourth round Spider grabbed the boy and started out of the arena with him.

"Hey, Spider what's the big idea—why take him out?" yelled a ringside spectator.

"Oh just a little early piety," said Spider.

"Say, they wanted to mob me when I put the kayo on One-round Davis at Buffalo," said Fireman Jim Flynn the other night. "He was a big card there and I ruined him for them. They made me wait hours for my money."

Just a Few More Days the Sale Continues

The inclement weather has interfered to some extent with this sale, and many bargains still remain in stock. However, if you wish to take advantage of these, you will have to come right away, for the sale will close in a few days.

The line of Suits, Coats and Furs we are offering now and the price at which they are marked affords an opportunity for the careful buyer seldom, if ever, equalled in Klamath Falls. Don't let this chance pass, for if you do you will be sure to regret it.

Notes of Interest Regarding the Fraternal Orders

Ewauna Camp, Woodmen of the World, at last night's meeting decided to install officers at the next meeting, to be held January 26.

Besides the regular meeting of Aloha Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star last night, a social session was much enjoyed. Talks were made by several, songs and musical selections were given, and a banquet was also a feature of the session.

The new corps of officers will be installed at tomorrow night's meeting of Klamath Lodge No. 99, Knights of Pythias, to be held in the west hall of the I. O. O. F. building. Besides this, there will be some interesting entertainment features.
