

Herald's Classified Ads.

HELP WANTED
WANTED—First class chef, or man and wife. Address Herald. 19-42

FOR RENT
FURNISHED ROOMS for light house-keeping; rent reasonable. 110 Second street. 11-42

OFFICE ROOMS—Choice suites in the Odd Fellows and Willis buildings; best location in the city. See W. O. Smith, Herald office. 10-42

FOR SALE
FOR SALE—Adjustable dress form. Call at Winter's Jewelry store. 14-42

MISCELLANEOUS
MONEY TO LOAN—On real estate. Arthur R. Wilson, 517 Main st., Klamath Falls. 18-82

LOST AND FOUND
LOST—Between Klamath Falls and Merrill, 1915 auto license No. 5185. Finder leave at the Palace Market. 17

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

CITY AND COUNTY ABSTRACT COMPANY
ABSTRACTS INSURANCE
Members Oregon Association
Title Men

Office and Residence, Phone 115
NW cor. 7th and Main
CLAYTON E. WHEELER
Physician and Surgeon
Osteopath
Spondylotherapist
(Spinal Treatment)
Office hours: 9 to 11:30 a. m.; 3 to 5 p. m.; evenings, 7 to 8

KLAMATH FALLS
Steam Laundry
Guarantees first-class work as well as first-class service.
Rough Dry, 6c per pound, 40c per dozen.
New collar machine prepares the collar for the tie.

Wood! Wood!
Block Wood, single, double loads
16-inch Body Wood
16-inch Limb Wood
4-ft. Body Wood
4-ft. Limb Wood
Rock Springs Coal
(Extra on hill)
Leave Orders at
Square Deal Store
Cor. Sixth and Main
P. C. CARLSON
Phone 185

Midway Livery Co.
IN NEW HANDS
Horses bought and sold. Harness and buggies for sale. Good rigs for hire and gentle horses. Baled hay and grain for sale.
Phone 2153

We Will Give Scrip
WITH ALL SPOT CASH WOOD BUSINESS at regular prices.
Leave money with order or pay on Delivery
KLAMATH FUEL CO.
515 Main Street

Plumbing and Tinsmithing
We Do the Work Just Right
PADE & FINGLE
"The Know How Men"
Cor. 6th & Klamath, Phone 217

Impure blood runs you down—makes you an easy victim for disease. For pure blood and sound digestion—Burdock Blood Bitters. At all drug stores. Price $1.00.
Herald want ads bring results.

The Evening Herald

W. O. SMITH, Editor
Published daily except Sunday by The Herald Publishing Company of Klamath Falls, at 115 Fourth Street.

Entered at the postoffice at Klamath Falls, Oregon, for transmission through the mails as second-class matter.

Subscription terms by mail to any address in the United States:
One year $5.00
One month .50

KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON
THURSDAY, JANUARY 21, 1915

AND STOP AT KLAMATH FALLS

IMPORTANCE OF MARKETING

THE INDUSTRY of vegetable production rests upon marketing, yet this phrase of the subject has been given but scant attention while methods of production have engaged the serious consideration of Oregon growers for many years, says Professor A. G. Bouquet, head of vegetable gardening at the Agricultural College.

"Every plan and all the activities of growers are based upon their effects on the sale of his products. Since success in marketing each product by the route that brings the highest net returns to the grower depends upon having the kind and quality of product demanded by accessible markets, the successful market gardener will always take his market demands in consideration in planning his garden and selecting his crops.

"It is what the markets, not what he grows, that determines the success of the gardener."

Scattered Shots

IS BUSINESS GOOD?—The Palm Alleys report that the ball keeps rolling right along.

BASKETBALL for girls and boys is looked upon by some mothers as unladylike and a waste of time. Others are of the opinion that this manner of spending spare time, in addition to benefiting health and giving poise, consumes time that might otherwise be devoted to reading trashy books, and makes the youngsters too manly and womanly for the "postoffice" type of parties.

ANOTHER INFALLIBLE sign of what's coming is the plethora of seed catalogs the postoffice boxes are afflicted with.

Q.—WHEN is the maximum the minimum?

A.—WHEN it bowls the Linkville team.

"BE WARMER HEREAFTER," says a headline in the Northwestern. Many a poor devil will, no doubt.

SOME SAY THE FREE mail service is practically assured for Klamath Falls. But how in thunder is the Man in Gray to find your house if it isn't numbered?

IF NAMES count for anything, mention of Fleet, the new secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and Blower, who resigned, indicates anything but inertia.

THERE IS ONLY one thing each army will not say it has taken. That's a sound beating.

Any Old Thing.
In the absence of comparison, any old thing will sell. This is just as true in life insurance as in other things. Ask Chilcote about the "Dividend Paying Company of America." 635 Main Street. 11-41.

The man who eats apples has little desire to drink. BAGLEY'S APPLE JUICE should be more widely used. 244f

"Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is the best remedy for that often fatal disease—grip. It has been used with success in our family for eight years." —Mrs. L. Whiteside, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Herald, delivered at your door, office, or home, 50c a month.

Magnificent Liberal Arts Palace at San Francisco.

This photograph gives a comprehension of the size of the vast Palace of Liberal Arts at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, San Francisco, 1915, but gives no idea of its brilliant coloring. The huge dome in the center of the picture is 160 feet in height. The richly sculptured central portal is decorated in Spanish renaissance. In the foreground is seen the tropical South Gardens, where millions of flowers are now blossoming and where rhododendrons and tree ferns and creole plants and other rare and beautiful plants, brought from the far corners of the world, are thriving.

Congressman's Efforts Save the Homesteaders

FLIGHT OF MRS THOMAS WOOD AND OTHERS TAKING UP WITHDRAWN LAND IN KLAMATH PROJECT, IS DELIEVED BY "NICK" SINNOTT — SEVERAL WERE CLOSE TO DANGER OF LOSING THEIR HOMES, OWING TO WORDING OF ENTRY APPLICATIONS

N. J. SINNOTT

A very happy ending of a deserving Klamath county widow's woe puts another big mark on the right side of the ledger in the accounting of Congressman Nicholas J. Sinnott, with the people of this district.

Some ten years ago Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weed settled upon 160 acres of desert land near Malin. They were not familiar with the land laws of the United States, and acting upon what they considered authoritative advice, they did not realize that their settlement upon the land, which had been withdrawn from entry, gave them no rights to the tract. These people converted this rough sage brush land into a home. Mrs. Wood labored by the side of her husband day after day, year in and year out, clearing the land, piling sage brush with a pitch fork, and assisting in all the extremely hard labor involved in developing a farm from the untamed soil. The couple put all their savings of former years into their new home. Their labors were intelligently applied and a fruitful farm was the result. All the land is in cultivation; all is well fenced and cross-fenced; there is an orchard of 400 bearing fruit trees, a large garden and a berry yard; the house is a good, comfortable six-room dwelling and the barn and outbuildings are in keeping. The couple were ready to enjoy their hard earned home and take life easier when a cruel fate intervened. The unremitting years of toil claimed their toll and last year Mrs. Wood was left a widow. But her sorrow was sweetened by the thought that she had a home hallowed by memories of her husband and one that would keep her comfortable in her declining years. A few months ago the reclamation service decided that best interests of Klamath county and the state demanded that all withdrawn lands not servable with water from the Klamath project be opened to entry. Notice of the restoration of the lands to entry was published in the local papers.

Public welfare prompted the action but it spelled disaster to Mrs. Wood, who then learned that her dearly bought home was not her own. Not only was the land subject to entry by others, but under the rules of the land office she, as a squatter before the date fixed for settlement, was barred from making entry. Broken hearted and in desperation, she appealed to Mr. Sinnott and he immediately became active in her behalf. He took the case to the department of the interior and found ready listeners. The red tape was cut and a new rule made that will give Mrs. Wood her home. Mrs. Wood has, through the mediation of Mr. Sinnott, not only saved her home but has also proved to be the salvation of some twenty other settlers to whom the new policy will apply.

A LITTLE SPORTING GOSSIP

By Hal Sheridan

United Press Service
NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Big Jess Willard, who is matched to battle Jack Johnson somewhere outside of these United States in the near future, has "passed the buck." In other words, he has put it squarely up to his manager and the men who are pushing the titular clash, whether he is to engage any of the numerous white boys before the big mill and by so doing quiet the howls of the multitude, "who did you ever whip?" Jess has shifted the matter to the shoulders of Tom Jones and Jack Curley. Stung by the numerous howls as to what he had ever accomplished and that he was afraid of the other "hopes", the big cowboy came forth recently with the announcement he was ready and willing to battle all comers, but his managers would not listen to it. Jess said he had always stood ready to show the world he was the one best bet to uncrown the negro, and particularly right now when there seems to be some doubt about the matter. That certainly puts it up to Tom Jones, Jack Curley, et al. Could it be possible that these men are afraid to show the big westerner through the ropes with some of the others hopes? Belief in sporting circles is gradually turning that way. If Jess is the best thing in his line it looks as though his managers would be willing to have him prove it. Merely pointing to "his great record," which is plentifully sprinkled with "K. O.'s" of various "Battling Battlers" and "Terrible Terrys" is not proving to the men who shove their shovels through the box office window that he is the man to whip the big black. Willard has come out and declared himself. He asserts he is ready and willing to prove all his managers claim for him. Now it's up to Messrs. Jones and Curley.

PINE GROVE PICKUPS

(Herald Special Service)

PINE GROVE, Jan. 21.—The Boys' Social Club meets at Earl Mack's Sunday.

Elder S. D. Harlan, pastor of the Christian church in Klamath Falls, preached on "Education" here last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Miller, of Bonanza, were visiting his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Miller, this week.

Of course, Mr. Grouch is wanting the snow to melt.

Mr. and Mrs. Icenbice and Mrs. Dixon were guests of H. M. Miller and family last week.

The young people of Pine Grove debate at the literary society. If the boys don't look out the girls will get the best of them again.

The Literary Club meets on Thursday this week.

Insurance that pays. See Chilcote, 635 Main street.

Herald want ads bring results.

PIANOS FROM $175 TO $600
PLAYERS FROM $200 TO $1500
School and church organs $25 and up.
WRITE US.
Shepherd Piano Depot
Next Door to Post Office
KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON

News of Our Neighbors

Joseph and Progress of Nearby Communities as Chronicled in the Press.

Electric Night Watch

The Farmers and Fruitgrowers Bank has contracted with the American Bank Protection Co., of Minneapolis, Minn., for a triple automatic electric system of vault protection, to be placed in the bank. It will take about sixty days to build this wonderful device, and when it is completed and installed will give an absolutely burglar proof vault. The system consists of plates of steel, lining the entire vault, ceiling, walls, floor, vestibule and vault doors. The combination locks are also equipped with electrical apparatus and controlled by a double set of electric timers. —Medford-Mail Tribune.

Horse Fusses Man

According to reports from Paisley the prevalence of mad coyotes is increasing in that vicinity. The Press states that dozens of stories of this character are coming in frequently, among one of which is to the effect that a horse, bitten by a mad coyote, was encountered by a sheepherder along the Summer Lake rim. The horse took after the herder who was compelled to climb a tree for safety. By the ferocious manner in which the horse attempted to attack the man, it was considered that it was infected with hydrophobia. —Lake Co. Examiner.

"Get Together" Planned

A novel community gathering that is expected to bring together as fewer than 1,000 inhabitants of the Applegate valley, Jackson county, is planned for a date in May by W. O. Wheeler, principal of the Applegate school. Mr. Wheeler, a believer in special centers in rural communities, is arranging for an all-day gathering for the children of the Applegate valley schools and for the adults of the school district as well. A school program is to be given in the morning. At noon will come an old-fashioned picnic dinner. The afternoon will be occupied by athletic contests. —Medford Sun.

More County Division

Judge John F. Hall, in discussing the inconveniences of travel in the Coast section this morning stated it was his opinion there would be a new geographical arrangement of Coos and Douglas counties within a few years at most, and perhaps in the near future. He pointed out the great distance which Gardiner and Scottsburg are from their county seat and said that, when the railroad gets to Coos Bay, the people of the Umpqua river can get down here in less than an hour, while if they had business at Roseburg, there is a ninety-six-mile overland trip or 175 miles by train. —Marshfield Record.

DULL, SPLITTING, SICK HEADACHE

Dr. James' Headache Powders Move at once—30 cents a package.

You take a Dr. James' Headache Powder and in just a few moments your head clears and all neuralgia and distress vanishes. It's the quickest and surest relief for headache, whether dull, throbbing, splitting or nerve-racking. Send someone to the drug store and get a dime package now. Quit suffering—it's no medicine. Oh, sure you get Dr. James' Headache Powders—then there will be no disappointment.

Water Pipes Frozen?

We Can Thaw Them Out With Electricity

WITHOUT DIGGING OR TEARING OUT YOUR WALKS AND WITHOUT ANY MUSS. CALL US UP BY TELEPHONE AND LET US TELL YOU ABOUT IT.

California-Oregon Power Co.
PHONE 54

Old Age Tells the Youth to Save

while he is still young. It is easy to acquire the saving habit then. It is harder later on. Besides, the earlier you begin to save the sooner you will be in a position to view old age without fear or worry. Why not open an account here and now?

FIRST STATE AND SAVINGS BANK
KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON

Marble and Granite Monuments
G. D. GRIZZLE
SATISFACTION OUR MOTTO
KLAMATH FALLS